

Ragged Edges

By Ellie Swanson.

While the female population of the campus is saving their money for the big night, the men are sitting back preparing for the worst. And if you haven't got a date yet, don't worry boys; this is only Wednesday.

Also there is much preparation for about ten different parties to be given as the last fling before vacation. The Thetas plan to celebrate in a big way despite heavy competition from other houses. Bobbie Stryker will import Gordie Johnson from Omaha for the occasion, and Coll Quigley will divide her time between her own party and the Sig Alpha house party. Her date is Dick Nash.

A few others attending the Sig Alpha party will be Harry Galloway with Shirley Lierk, Herb Gish and Marge Cherney and Betty Lysinger and Lew Reinhardt who will divide their time between the Sig Alpha and the Pi Phi house. (confusing . . . I know.)

Off the subject of the numerous parties of the weekend temporarily, we must not forget to mention a few new steadies and pinnings of late. The Betas were surprised to find out, by accident, that Bob Schulte had pinned Charrie Welles last Sunday. Also of interest is the new steady combination of Babs Call and Joe Shultz. Meanwhile, Rog Stewart seems to be very contentedly occupying Marge Benson's time.

Unusual Candy Passing.

One rather unusual candy passing occurred Monday night at the Theta house. Nicky Sandberg passed the candy and Theta sisters, inquired to whom she was pinned. "I'm married," she answered . . . as of August 3." The Kappas entertained the Sigma Nus for the candy passing of Keith "Mutt" DeLashmutt and Dorothy Jane Duncan, and Ruth Goldberg and Danny Katzman passed candy at the S.D.T. house.

Going to the Mortar Board Ball Friday night will be B. L. Mauch and Mark Hargraves, but that isn't all there is to it. Mark informed B. L. that she would have to remind him at least once a day of the date so she has been busy everyday sending telegrams, singing messages and other oddities so he won't forget. Also attending the M. B. Ball, but under normal circumstances will be Barb Cypreanson and Bob Brown, Candy Jones and Jack Donaldson and Joan Fankhauser and Chick Story.

Dinner Parties.

Along with the various house parties occurring Saturday, we find almost as many dinners on Sunday. Peggy Cowles will be with Walt Loomis at the Beta dinner and Anne Jennings with Dick Levine. The Kappa Sigs will give their Sweetheart party the same evening and Donna Alfrey will be with Randy Ewing. Bill Tyson will escort Dorothy Beckenhauer. Only one date is now available for the ATO Buffet Dinner and that is Cub Clem with Maralie Peterson.

Since space is running short, some of the rest of the parties will have to be included later. Things are confused enough now.

Carmer . . .

ple find have telephones, movies, and radios for entertainment, and resorted to story-telling after the day's work as a pleasant pastime. The more incredible the stories were, the better!"

Carmer spiked his talk with many interesting and humorous tales, a few were even fabulous ones. He concluded by saying, "These stories are not altogether of the past. We still tell them, and they still entertain listeners all over the country. There is a tremendous interest in folklore at this time. Returning G.I.'s devoted to the American way seek for stories related to their homeland. The American artist can find no better source for inspiration than in the folklore that lives in this country."

Pershing Rifles

Pershing Rifles will meet Wednesday at 5 p. m. in Room 210 N. H. All actives must be present. Any member of Basic R. O. T. C. interested in pledging should make application at this meeting.

University Enters Intercollegiate Bridge Tourney

The University of Nebraska is one of the many colleges all over the United States which has accepted the invitation of the Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament Committee to enter the competition.

According to Foster M. Coffin, director of Willard Straight Hall, Cornell University, and chairman of the committee, entries all over the country have been pouring in. So far, 49 entries from as many different colleges have been received.

The Tournament Committee have as their aim, developing bridge as an intercollegiate sport for both men and women.

Varsity Team

Each college entered will select a "varsity team" of eight. Two pairs of players will play a round of bridge by mail on February 12, 13, or 14. The results of these mail plays will be tabulated and the two highest pairs from each of the eight zones in the country will be invited to Chicago for the finals on April 18 and 19. The expense of the trips will be paid for by the Committee.

The tourney is open to undergraduates only, and any college may send one team to the finals in Chicago.

Student Racial Group Joins Lincoln's SAC

Lincoln's Social Action Council has voted to accept the university student committee on racial affairs into its membership.

The SAC, composed of a group of Lincoln citizens, was formed during the past summer to promote economic and social equality for all races and nationalities. The student group is an outgrowth of the seminar on relieving racial tensions held during "Religion in Life Work." The chairman is Pat Neely and secretary is Calvin Ravinskroff.

Co-ordination

By merging with the SAC, the student group hopes to profit from the experiences of the local council and to co-ordinate their activities in the hopes of obtaining greater results.

The student group will, however, maintain its individual
