

Ragged Edges

BY BILL CAMPBELL

January is the big month for exams but February will find Bob Deitemeyer and Jean Stevens walking down the aisle to the tune of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." Congratulations!

Taking advantage of the calm before the storm, exams that is, are the Betas, who will have their formal Saturday night with such twosomes as Nancy Mines and Jack Cressman, Nancy Watkins and Curt Hasselbach, Barb Cy-preansen with Bill Shamburg, and Donna Kiechel with Jack Clemmens. Grace Swanson will be there with her usual escort, Don Duncan.

Peeping Toms.

Female Peeping Toms have entered the private lives of several Sigma Nus living out in the city. The main attraction seems to be Lee Farmer, who, of late, has been beating the women off with a club.

Betty Jo Fidel returned from her vacation in North Platte with a diamond ring given to her by "Punk." She plans to leave school at the end of the semester to work, and will be married in June.

Alene Cooper and Maurine Evnen have succeeded in convincing Harold Grossman and Stan Kessler, respectively, that they are more than a passing fancy and now sport diamond rings from the boys.

Altho Tish Gardner is going steady with Bob Edwards in Omaha, she finds time to give Lee Knight her personality while on the campus. "When the cat's away . . ."

The Betas have sent out an urgent request that Ellie Swanson please make up her mind about which one she is going to decide upon.

Ronnie "The Snipe" Samuelson has been getting many letters from a gal in Denver. The letters are reputed to be edged in blue, and Ron plans to fly out there as soon as exams are over.

It looks like Jean Metzger is really playing the field since she stopped going steady with Tom Noble. She was seen coking in the Crib the other day with the supposed steady of another woman. This can lead to mayhem, gal.
