

Home Ec Club Holds Elections For Officers

Nominees for offices in the Home Economics Club were announced at the club Sign Off Party, the final meeting of the semester. Club members will cast their ballots in the Home Economics building, today and Thursday.

Candidates for the offices, as selected by the nominating committee are: President, Priscilla Flagg and Marianne Srb; Secretary, Roberta Joe Faes, Lillian Locke, Lois Thorfinson; Treasurer, Pauline Christiansen, Vivian Frasier, Donna Rae Gorham; Historian, Donna Lee Johnson and Irene Wellenseck.

Priscilla Flagg is Assistant Manager of the Cornhusker, member of Coed Counselors Board, Home Ec. Radio, YWCA, Vespers committee, and Phi Upsilon-Omicron.

Marianne Srb, is Editor of the Cornhusker Countryman, Secretary of Ag Exec Board, Member of the Student-Faculty Council, Secretary of the Home Ec Club, Vice President of the State Home Economics Association, Phi Epsilon Omicron, YWCA, and member of the Ag Student Union Board.

Alpha Phi Omega Schedules Meet At Student House

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, will meet at the Methodist Student house at 7 p. m., tomorrow.

Officers of the fraternity, which was recently revived after an absence of several years from the campus, are Don Crowe, president; Walter Long, secretary; Raulin Wight, treasurer; and Bob Hamilton, service chairman.

H. P. Doole, M. A. Alexander, L. K. Crowe, and F. W. Hoover have been chosen faculty advisors.

Alpha Phi Omega completed one of the first of its increased activities on December 28th and 29th when Bob Hamilton and Walter Long attended the national convention in Kansas City, with Professor Robert Mills, chairman of faculty advisors.

All men who have been previously affiliated with the Boy Scouts are eligible for membership and are invited to attend the next meeting.

Elaine Lauer, Ag Student, Awarded Trip to 4-H Week

Elaine Lauer, Ag College student, has been awarded an expense paid trip to 4-H club week, the Nebraska 4-H club office announced Tuesday.

Awarded by the Omaha chamber of commerce, the trip is given to the county 4-H club champions who were unable to attend National Club Congress or the Omaha Chamber clothing demonstration.

Miss Lauer is a freshman in Extension at Ag.

Ag YWCA Members Vote For New Officers Today

Elections for officers of Ag YWCA will be held today and tomorrow in the Home Economics building from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Candidates for the office of president are Florence Arnold and Bernice Young. Slated to run for district representative are Marilyn Lyness and Mavis Musgrave. Virgene Kovarik and Lillian Lock will compete for the office of secretary, and Amy Jean Mitchell and Lois Thorfinson are running for treasurer.

There are no specified qualifications for the Ag campus election as in the city campus balloting. Any member whose name appears on the paid membership list is eligible to vote.

Committee.

A nominating committee composed of Betty French, Eleanor Johnson, Carol Bridenbaugh and Miss Mildred Taylor selected the candidates.

Miss Arnold has served on the YWCA cabinet for two years and has been music chairman during the past year. She attended the district conference at Doane College in Crete last fall.

Completing her second year on the YW cabinet is Miss Young. She has been chairman of the Thursday noon worship program throughout the last year.

Miss Lyness has completed her first year on the cabinet serving as publicity chairman. She also was a member of the financial drive committees.

Editor of the "Magnet" during her first year on the cabinet was Miss Musgrave. She also attended the district conference at Doane College last year and has been a member of the party committee.

Another member who attended the district conference last year was Miss Kovarik. She has served on the membership, financial and "Magnet" committees during the year. Miss Lock has been the social chairman in the past year and attended both the Estes summer conference and the district conference in the fall.

Miss Mitchell has worked on both the membership and financial committees. Serving on the cabinet during the past semester, Miss Thorfinson has been general chairman of social events. She was a member of the financial drive committee.

Classified

WATCH LOST—Between campus and King's Ballroom. Waltham Reward. Call Bill Karges, Phone 2-7831.

LOST—Brown billfold, Coliseum Monday. Ken L. Davis, Pharmacy College. Reward.

Opera . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

was one of Caruso's most famous roles and the aria "Vesti le giubba" is a concert favorite, as is the well-known baritone prologue, "Si Poo." The opera has remained in the permanent repertory of the Metropolitan since 1894, the year following its first performance in this country.

William Farnum, silent day flicker star, plays himself in Paramount's "The Perils of Pauline," and wears the same western outfit which he used in making "Riders of the Purple Sage," one of his biggest hits.

Billy de Wolfe had to bleach his complexion to lighten a heavy suntan he had acquired before starting his role with Bing Crosby, Fred Astaire and Joan Caulfield in Irving Berlin's "Blue Skies," the Paramount Technicolor musical.

Easterner Club Will Hear Talk By C. H. Rhoades

C. H. Rhoades, of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, will be guest speaker at the Easterner club dinner-meeting, this evening at 6:15 in Parlor B of the Union, according to president Art Cohen.

Descriptive booklets about Nebraska, furnished by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, will be distributed to each member prior to Mr. Rhoades' illustrated talk. The speaker is at present the director of the Nebraska Employment Service and has been previously affiliated with various state promotional activities, including the Department of Research of Humor in Nebraska, an association which will provide a basis for his talk.

A NOTABLE DOCUMENTARY FILM

"THE TRUE GLORY"

The Story of the American G.I.

4:00 p. m., Wed., Jan. 15

Union Ballroom

A 60 Minute Film

Miller & Paine presents

PAINTINGS by
TERENCE R. DUREN

Famous Nebraska Artist

You are invited to come often . . . until January 25,
AUDITORIUM—FOURTH FLOOR

MILLER & PAINE

Bulletin

CHARM SCHOOL.

Charm school meets at Ellen Smith Hall tonight at 7:00. Mrs. Fred Garden will speak on the variety and variations of silverware.

DAVE HAUN'S ORCHESTRA

9 to 12 Midnight

SAT., JAN. 18

44c per person

Union Ballroom

and

FREE JUKE BOX

DANCE

9 to 11:30 P. M.

FRIDAY, JAN. 17