

UN Swim Team Wins; Huskers Host To Cyclones

A stirring last lap spurt by Marvin Grimm in the 400 yard free style relay gave the University of Nebraska swimmers a win in this event and a 43-41 triumph over Oklahoma Saturday night at the coliseum pool.

Prior to the final event the Sooner tankmen had a 37-35 lead, but Grimm's superb anchor lap gave Coach Hollie Lepley's team their second win of the season.

Grimm, Wilber, Nebraska merman, also scored wins in the 50 and 100 yard free style events to take high scoring honors for the evening. Other Husker winners were Conrad King in the 200 yard breaststroke, Les Oldfield in the 150 yard backstroke, Roger Moore in diving and the 300 yard medley relay team. Summary:

300 yard medley relay: Nebraska (Oldfield, Draper, King); second, Oklahoma (Brighton, Bacher, Womble). Time, 3:23.3.
200 yard free style: Won by Burns (O); second Racz (O); third, Burr (N). Time, 2:34.
50 yard free style: Won by Grimm (N); second, Hill (O); third, Campbell (N). Time, 1:24.4.
100 yard free style: Won by Grimm (N); second, Hill (O); third, McWilliams (O). Time, 1:55.2.
150 yard back stroke: Won by Oldfield (N); second, Bacher (O); third, Womble (O). Time, 1:53.1.
200 yard breast stroke: Won by King (N); second, Brighton (O); third, Greenberg (N). Time, 2:47.6.
400 yard free style: Won by Racz (O); second, Burns (O); third, Burr (N). Time, 5:50.6.
400 yard free style relay: Won by Nebraska (Branch, Campbell, Draper, Grimm); second, Oklahoma (Burns, Womble, Racz, Hill). Time, 3:51.1.

Coach Charlie Miller's Scarlet gym team absorbed its second loss Saturday night when the potent Minnesota squad won all but one event to take home a 91 to 59 win.

Phil Sprague was the only Husker to triumph, as he won the trampoline event, George Patten won two events and tied for first in a third to pace the Gophers. Summary:

Horizontal bar: Tie for first between George Patten (M) and Howard Swanson (M); third, Jim Peterson (M).
Side horse: Won by George Patten (M); second, Phil Sprague (N); third, Leo Geier (N).
Flying rings: Won by Don Headstrom; second, Phil Sprague (N); third, Jim Peterson (M).
Parallel bars: Won by Don Headstrom (M); second, Howard Swanson (M); third, Phil Sprague (N).
Long horse: Won by George Patten (M); second, Jim Peterson (M); third, Leo Geier (N).
Tumbling: Won by Jim Peterson (M); second, George Patten (M); third, Don Headstrom (M).
Trampoline: Won by Phil Sprague (N); second, Jim Peterson (M); third, Gene Sundeen (N).

Trial coffee hour periods will be inaugurated this Sunday. If the events prove to be popular, they will become a weekly feature.

A triple header basketball program featured by the Nebraska-Iowa State meeting will be on tap for university sports fans Monday.

Coach Harry Good's Husker varsity will entertain the Cyclones in the third meeting of the season between the two teams. Iowa State won the most recent encounter, whipping UN 61-44 at Ames in a conference battle. Earlier this season Nebraska nipped the Iowa Staters 54-51 at the Big Six preseason tourney.

The Varsity game is slated to begin at 8 p. m., and will be preceded by two Nubbins games. At 5 p. m. one section of the Nubbins will meet Luther college of Wahoo, and at 6:15 another group of the reserves will play a return game with Concordia of Seward. The Husker B team won the first engagement 66 to 48.

A win for the Husker varsity will give the Scarleteers a foothold in the first division. Nebraska defenders will have to cope with Don Paulson, lanky center, and Ray Wehde, hotshot forward if they are to silence the Cyclone attack.

47 Batterymen Out for First Baseball Drills

Forty-seven men responded to Baseball Coach Tony Sharpe's call for pitchers and catchers. With the opening game with Colorado University less than two months away, conditioning workouts will be held indoors until the weather permits practice outdoors.

The basement of the field house, which is large enough to accommodate five batteries, will be used for early workouts. The remainder of the squad will report in two or three weeks.

Jim Sandstedt, Tap Jacob, Wally Scheef, and Dick Lebbs are the returning chuckers from last year's squad. Sandstedt pitched in the Pioneer Night league during the summer while Tap Jacobs twirled with Sand's in Lincoln, where he won 19 games while losing three.

Bill Kinnamon, regular catcher for Nebraska last season until a broken finger sidelined him, reported for practice. Whether or not he will be eligible to play still remains a question.

Battery Mates.

Elroy Gloystein, star twirler for Utica of the Cornhusker league last summer, and his battery mate, Orville Schmieding, also reported. Portsider Gloystein won 12 games including one no-hitter, a couple of one-hitters, and five shutouts, while losing only four. Schmieding was the team's leading slugger and, while in the army, caught such stars as Tommy Bridges, Ken Gables and Bob Savage.

LeRoy Schumacker, another newcomer, had a 13-3 record during the summer while pitching for Platte Center in the Tri-County league. Dick Todd, Millard freshman, who hooked up in a couple of pitching duels with Fremont's Paul Menking in legion ball, also made his appearance.
