

Landeryou New Prexy

Daily NEBRASKAN

Vol. 47—No. 86 LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA Sunday, February 23, 1947

UN Plans Debate Invitational Friday

Thirty-Five Universities, Colleges Will Attend Two-Day Conference

BY PAT JENSEN.

Thirty-five universities and colleges, representing ten states have accepted invitations to attend the university's seventh annual two-day discussion and debate conference scheduled to begin next Friday morning, Mr. Donald Olson, director of debate, reported Friday.

Final listing of the schools planning to participate is incomplete, and additions will be made this week. "Our National Labor Policy" is to be the theme of the conference, and delegates will make their headquarters at the Temple.

According to Mr. Olson's Friday figures, 79 debate teams have registered; 160 students have entered discussion; 18, oratory; 25, extemporaneous speaking; and 19, newscasting.

Schools Coming.

Universities and colleges which have accepted invitations are: Colorado State, University of Denver, Notre Dame, Iowa State College, Cornell College, University of Iowa, Morningside College, Simpson College, Central College, University of Kansas, Bethany College, Baker University, Ottawa University. South- See DEBATE, page 4.

YW Chairman States Purpose Of Commission

"The Advanced Social Service group of the YWCA has, as its purpose, to enter into actual contact with the various organizations in Lincoln which serve the public, especially those of the underprivileged groups or those who are generally discriminated against," stated Anita Osetman, chairman of the commission.

Some of these organizations are the Urban League, a community center for both the negro and white races, the Belmont community center, an orthopedic hospital. The members tell stories to groups of children, lead 47H groups or choral groups, Campfire and Beacon clubs, and tend babies and small children at the city YWCA.

The Advanced Social Service aims to serve the public interest which upholds the principals and teachings of the YW.

CAMPUS SEEN

Shy biology student turning crimson when asked by the professor during a class discussion how her face differed from that of a frog.

Boys, about to snowball whoever is coming out a sorority house door, frantically checking their throws when it turns out to be the house mother.

Kosmet Klub Script Prize Winner Told

Bill Wiseman and David Andrews, were announced Saturday as winners of the $50 Kosmet Klub award for their original two-act script, "Aksarben Nights," to be produced as the organization's first potwar spring show.

Three performances of the show will be given beginning Friday evening, April 19. The revue will be repeated the following Saturday afternoon and evening.

Directing the play will be Max Whittaker, former member of the Kosmet Klub, who is now an instructor in the university speech department.

Campus Setting.

Action in "Aksarben Nights" revolves around "Two Pots with a Plot." In a campus setting, two espionage agents from a southern university, attempt to obliterate the northern school, Aksarben. Fifteen original songs, pony choruses and dance routines are included in the production.

Tryouts for the performances will be scheduled this week, according to Fred Teller, president. Twenty-eight men are to be cast in roles for the revue.

Ex-Navy Personnel

The Lincoln Navy Recruiting office has announced that all ex-Navy personnel whose claims for settlement of unused leave were submitted prior to Dec. 1, 1946, and on which payment has not yet been received, should write immediately to the U. S. Terminal Leave Disbursing Office, Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., requesting that they be advised on the status of their claims.

250 Attend Pep Organizations' Dinner-Dance

Numbering over 250, members and guests of the Tassels and Corn Cobs attended a dinner-dance sponsored by the two pep organizations in the Lincoln hotel ballroom Friday night.

Dean Skokan, secretary of Corn Cobs, acted as master of ceremonies. Speakers of the evening included Joy Hill, president of Tassels, Don Kline, president of Corn Cobs, and A. J. Lewandowski, athletic director.

Beindorff Honored.

Mr. Lewandowski awarded Art Beindorff a miniature gold megaphone with a crown crest for his services as yell king. Other members of the cheering squad received miniature megaphones, bearing a red N. Kline presented 22 active Corn Cobs with recognition keys.

Johnny Cox's band furnished the music for dancing which followed the dinner.

Knoll Announces May Queen Data

Filings for May Queen are now open to eligible senior women, according to Eleanor Knoll, president of Mortar Board. Names must be entered at the Student Activities office in the Coliseum before 5 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 27.

To be eligible to file for May Queen, coeds must have been registered at the university for three years, have a weighted 80 average, no delinquencies and have one "B" activity. The May Queen will be chosen at women's elections on March 5 and will be presented on Ivy Day, May 3.

Elect Foundation Board Members

Officers, District Chairmen Selected for Current Year

BY WALLY BECKER.

Lorraine Landeryou was elected president of the Student Foundation in an election of officers held last week. She succeeds retiring president, Lorene Novotny.

Joyce Geddes was elected vice president; Jean Hickey, secretary; Genene Mitchell, treasurer; and Mimi Hahn, publicity director. They will assume office immediately.

LORRAINE LANDERYOU.

Seven district chairmen have been appointed for the coming year by the retiring seniors of the Foundation board. Eileen Hepperly heads district 1; Beverly Jackson, district 2; Bonnie Voss, district 3; Eugenie Sampson, district 4; Barbara Turk, district 5; Greg Kallos, district 6; and Marjorie Anthony, district 7.

Active in Campus Work.

New president Lorraine Landeryou served as treasurer of the Student Foundation this past year, was a freshman commission leader in the YWCA, and is a member of Delta Gamma. She is a junior in the college of Arts and Sciences.

Vice president Joyce Geddes has been Student Foundation secretary this past year, is on the Home Ec club council, staff member of the Cornhusker, member of the YWCA leadership cabinet, a Tassel and member of Phi Epsilon Omicron, home ec honorary. Miss Geddes is treasurer of Kappa Kappa Gamma and a junior. See FOUNDATION, page 4.

Contest to Name Fountain Room Opens Today

Mrs. Richard Hiatt, Ag Union director, has announced a contest to name the newly completed fountain room of the Ag Union.

A prize of $10 will be awarded for the winning entry which will be announced at the Ag Union "open house" Friday, Mar. 21. Students must present identification cards with their entries which can be submitted to the Ag or downtown Union. The contest will begin today and will close Saturday, Mar. 1.

The Ag Student Union Advisory Committee will act as judges for the contest.

New Hours.

Mrs. Hiatt also announced that starting today the fountain will close Monday through Thursday at 10 p. m. Starting Mar. 1 the Union will close at 1 p. m. on Saturdays except for special events.

Coed Follies

The A.W.S. board advises all sororities and organized houses to have dinner early Monday and Tuesday nights, because of the Coed Follies' dress rehearsal Monday night at 8 p. m., and the Coed Follies Tuesday at 7 p. m.

Dean Bengston Named YM Board Head

Dr. Nels Bengston, dean of the junior division and professor of geography, was named YMCA Board of Management chairman this week, succeeding Dr. LeRoy Laase who was chosen treasurer for the new term.

Ted Sorensen, president of the city campus YM, was elected vice-chairman of the board. The secretary position will be held by Keith Frederickson, vice-president of ag campus YM.

Other student members of the board which directs both Lincoln city and campus YM groups are Donald Crowe, Bob Borin, Owen Scott, Don Meaders, Ralph Johnson, Virgil Ganzel, and Dale Stauffer.

The Rev. Dr. Gerald Kennedy and Mr. Clarence Miles are representatives from the Board of Directors.

Deason, Cole Win Premiere Contest

SPENCER TRACY.

Courtesy Lincoln Star. CRAIG COLE.

From a group of five finalists, Maxine Deason and Craig Cole were judged to be the two university students who most resemble Katherine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy, respectively.

Appearing as proxies for Hepburn and Tracy, Miss Deason and Mr. Cole will attend the "Sea of Grass" world premiere Wednesday night in the costumes worn by the stars in the picture.

After arriving at the Stuart theater in a special limousine, the two proxies will be seated in the loge with other guests and, later, will be brought to the stage to be presented with $25 awards, plaques, and telegrams from Hollywood. Miss Deason will wear a corsage sent to her from Miss Hepburn.

Tickets for the premiere may be purchased at the Stuart theater.

KATHERINE HEPBURN.

Courtesy Lincoln Star. MAXINE DEASON.