

Dr. Fuenning To Continue Health Plan

Present Method Meets Approval

Affirming the success of the appointment system in the Student Health Service, Dr. S. I. Fuenning, student health director, announced that the Health Service will continue this routine.

This system, initiated at the beginning of the year, has eliminated the long waiting periods that students had previously endured.

"This new plan has been working very satisfactorily under present conditions," said Dr. Fuenning, "and we have been able to give students better services."

Regulations.

- The following regulations have been emphasized by Dr. Fuenning.
1. There is no day or night service to rooms. The average charge for a call by any doctor in Lincoln is $3 for a day call, and $5 for a night call.
  2. Office hours in the city campus clinic, pharmacy building, room 208 are 8-12 Monday thru Saturday and 1-5 Monday thru Friday. Hours at the Ag college campus clinic, branch office in the College Activities building, are 8-9 Monday thru Saturday, and 1-2 Monday thru Friday. There is no Student Health service Saturday afternoons, Sundays or during vacations.
  3. Hospital authorization is necessary in order to obtain the $1.50 per day toward the payment of the hospital bill. The Student Health Service will pay $1.50 per day for seven days in a non-contagious case, and 21 days in a contagious case. This hospital authorization must be obtained from the Student Health Service.
  4. Laboratory tests and services are given to students at cost. There is no charge for a urine or blood test.
  5. Student Health Service is limited to students only. University employees may obtain emergency treatment.

LSA Sponsors Lenten Vespers

Six Lenten Vespers are being sponsored by the Lutheran Student Association, with the first one tonight. They will meet in the Union in Parlors X and Y each Thursday at 7 p. m.

Pastor Petersen, university Lutheran pastor, will have as his general theme, "Cross Tenets." His first message will be "The Cross for Our Day." The L.S.A. choir is participating in these services.

Nu-Meds to Hear Tanner Discuss Cancer Mar. 5

Members of Nu-Meds, pre-med society, will hold a dinner meeting Wednesday, March 5, at 6:15 p. m. in the Union XYZ parlors.

Dr. Frank Tanner, Lincoln pathologist, will speak on the subject of "Cancer."

Any Nu-Meds who did not purchase their tickets at the last meeting should sign their names on the list outside of Dr. Wade's office in Bessey Hall.

Ag YM-YW Forum To Be Held Mar. 4

One student and two faculty members will discuss tax legislation as it affects education in Nebraska at a YM-YW forum which is to be held at 7:30 p. m. in Ag Hall next Tuesday.

Dr. E. B. Schmidt, assistant professor of economics; L. B. Snyder, assistant professor of rural economics and Miss Sue Fishwood, ag college senior representing the student body will comprise the discussion panel. Keith Frederickson will act as moderator.

The forum, sponsored by Ag YM-YW, will be the first in a series of discussions on current problems.

Dial Twistings . . .

By Lee Harris.

For those of you who are lucky enough to be awake around 7:00 on a fine February morning, KFOR presents Martin Agronsky with the latest in world news happenings.

If the sleepiness has still not left you, by now, rested souls, stay tuned to KFOR and listen to the Musical Clock, which is a fast 45 minute local feature that is guaranteed to send you away wide awake and ready to meet the hard world of today with its daily quizzes and hour exams. At 9:00 over KFOR the writers of "True Story" bring you a special preview of the coming issue of the magazine. All those who favor love and mystery stories, don't miss this entertaining half hour of touching drama.

Forenoon.

At 11:00 you may tune in KFAB and listen to the Kate Smith program. Here, radio listeners are treated with songs by Kate Smith and the latest news by Ted Collins. All in all this is definitely one of the top midday programs and is sure to satisfy. Other noon day features include the Kenny Baker show at 11:30, immediately followed by Baulkage speaking from Washington. Both of these programs are nationally broadcasted and can be brought to you merely by flipping your dial to KFOR.

Eskipping down to dinner time enjoyment, all you sports fans can catch up with the latest in the world of sports by staying tuned KFOR and listening to the 6:00 combination world news and sports program scheduled for that time.

Coaches Speak.

At 6:15 Jack Houston presents the Coaches Corner which may be classified as "The Thursday Evening Quarterback Club." Here a coach from a nearby locality is interviewed and questioned on future events of importance in the sporting world. Coaches Corner is a worthy 15 minute local feature that deserves your "radio ear" whenever possible.

For those who have spare time in the evening and enjoy listening to mystery programs, KFAB offers the exciting Mr. Keen thriller. This well known radio personality keeps you thrill-bound throughout as he masterfully traces down those persons attempting to escape society. If this does not fulfill your appetite for mystery, stay tuned to the same station, for at 7:30 the CBS network presents "Your F.B.I." in an actual case taken from the files of the FBI. However, if you would rather change your menu of radio listening, KFOR offers Town Meeting of the Air at 7:30. On this program, the finest of its kind on the air, the latest problems of the day are discussed by some of the foremost statesmen of our nation.

Hockey.

One of the big features of this evening sponsored by KFOR is the play by play announcement of the latest period of the hockey game between the Omaha Knights and Saint Paul. The Knights are at present in first place in the USHL but expect a hard fight from the rejuvenated Saint Paul club. The last period of any hockey game is always by far the most interesting, so don't miss this special feature broadcast direct from Omaha's Ak-Sar-Ben coliseum at 10:15 over KFOR tonight. For entertainment in the mu-

Faulty Timing Of Motorists Shown in Study

A. R. Lauer, professor of psychology and director of the driving research laboratory at Iowa State College, has found in his study that many unnecessary accidents are caused by the motorist's failure to consider the amount of time required to stop in an emergency on a highway.

Many deaths and serious injuries have resulted because the driver does not gauge the speed of his car to the space needed to stop his wheels.

The following chart will show differences in stopping on dry and wet pavements and will perhaps illustrate to highway drivers the need for more careful driving in winter weather:

|    | dry pavement | dry gravel | packed gravel | ice or snow |              |
|----|--------------|------------|---------------|-------------|--------------|
| 20 | 42           | 65         | 70            | 94          | 210 or more  |
| 30 | 84           | 129        | 140           | 185         | 415 or more  |
| 40 | 143          | 223        | 242           | 322         | 740 or more  |
| 50 | 220          | 338        | 366           | 490         | 1190 or more |
| 60 | 317          | 483        | 526           | 700         | 1535 or more |
| 70 | 438          | 670        | 723           | 970         | 2170 or more |

Dr. Gustavson Chosen Norden Club President

At a meeting Monday night, Chancellor R. G. Gustavson was elected president of the Norden Club, organization to promote acquaintanceship among citizens of Lancaster county of Scandinavian descent and to preserve the best of the cultural heritage of Scandinavia.

One of the four men named to the advisory committee was Dr. Joseph Alexis, professor of modern languages.
