

Scarlet Track Team Set To Bid for Big Six Title

Conference Form Chart

(See Sport Editor's Predictions in Husker Hillites.)

Relishing the role of underdog in premeet calculations, the Nebraska track team is getting in its last licks before leaving for Kansas City and the annual Big Six track and field indoor championships which are slated for March 1.

The Missouri Tigers are rated as the team to beat in early predictions, with the Huskers and Kansas ranking behind the Columbia thinclads. Coach George Brettnall's Iowa State Cyclones, indoor rulers for the past three years, are given no chance to retain their laurels for the fourth consecutive time.

Nebraska Coach Ed Weir is not too certain that the Bengal performers from the Show Me state will be at the top of the list when all the returns are in from Saturday's running, jumping and throwing. The reason for the Scarlet mentor's hopes are a nucleus of tried and true contestants who are ranked as the best in the conference in their specialties.

Injury List.

Fritz Ware and Bill Moomey have been counted out of all premeet figuring. Moomey has been hampered all season by a pulled muscle and is definitely on the sidelines. Ware is bothered by the same trouble, but there is a scant hope that he may be able to run a 440 in the mile relay.

Conference rules this season stipulate that each school may enter 22 performers, four more than were allowed in last year's indoor carnival. Faced with this limit, Weir will have to lop four point winners off the squad he has used throughout the dual meet season.

Little Bobby Ginn carries a good share of the Husker hopes, for the midget Madison gamester is down for a double stint in the mile and 220. Ginn's performances in both events are the best in the conference, and he exhibited his ability to carry the double duty in the Oklahoma meet when he loafed to first place in the mile in 4:30.2 and then turned on the steam in the 880 to hang up a new Nebraska record as he toured the four furlongs in 1:57.4.

Another Scarlet mainstay is High Jumper Monte Kinder. Ever since his second indoor meet Kinder has won the high jump event and has posted the best height of the season among Big Six jumpers with a leap of 6 feet 4 1/2 inches against Kansas.

Dwayne Feeking, current conference record holder in the high jump, will be back to defend his crown. The Iowa State leaper cleared 6 feet 4 inches last winter to establish a new Big Six record.

In the pole vault Coach Weir will have Don Cooper, York sky-rider, and Dick Miller, three time Big Six indoor king. Cooper has soared 13 feet 9 1/2 inches this season, while Miller has hit 13 feet.

Dick Van Dyne of Missouri is the only other vaulter to get over the 13 foot mark. He cleared 13 feet 1 inch against Kansas in a dual meet last week.

Still another leader is Hurryin' Harvey Stroud. The North Platte thinman is the man to beat in the 440. Although defeated by Dick Ault of Missouri in the Husker-Tiger dual meet, Stroud has turned in a :50.5 clocking, the best of the season.

Along with the long-geared Stroud, Coach Weir has Loyal Hurlbert, Ord freshman, who has moved up rapidly in recent meets. Hurlbert's terrific finishing kick makes him hard to beat in the final spurt for the tape.

Sprinter Dick Hutton and Hurdler Ralph King are other possible first place winners. Hutton has a share of the fastest time in the 60 yard dash, :06.3, but bowed to Fred Guth of Missouri in this event at Columbia. Guth also has registered a :06.3 clocking. The Husker speedboy is a threat in the 60 low hurdles, although he is a novice at the race.

King, Waterloo veteran, ran a :07.6 flight in the tall timbers against Oklahoma and defeated last year's king, John Sharp of the Sooners. This time was the fastest of King's career and indicates that he will be ready to make a stern bid for first place.

Nebraska will be the team to beat in the mile relay. The Husker quartet composed of Don Volterton, Loyal Hurlbert, Harvey Stroud and Bill Conner has whipped through the mile in 3:29.2. Missouri is expected to push the Scarlet in this event.

Nebraska basketballers will come to the end of a long road tonight when they close their season against Kansas State in a conference tilt booked at the coliseum for 8 p. m.

The Huskers are at the bottom of the Big Six cage scramble, but a win over the Wildcats tonight would drag the Manhattan quintet into a tie for the cellar spot.

The individual scoring duel between Hal Howey of the Wildcats and Claude Retherford will highlight the action. At present Retherford has a one point edge on the K state ace, leading 97 to 96 in points scored in conference games.

Coach Harry Good has indicated that he will string along with his usual starting lineup. This means that Claude Retherford and Rodney Cox will open at the forward spots, Dick Schleiger will play at center and Joe Brown and Bob Cerv will hold down the guard positions.

Cerv Back

Cerv returns to the starting lineup in place of guard Al Kirlin. The Weston ball hawk had been handicapped with a bad back but will be able to go against the K staters Thursday.

The Wildcats are rejuvenated following their 48-45 win over Kansas a week ago and will attempt to repeat an early season victory over the Cornhuskers. Playing at Manhattan the purple cats drubbed the UN quintet 63 to 54.

Coach Jack Gardner's club has a hope of finishing at the top of the second division, providing it can get by the Huskers. Currently boasting a record of three wins and six defeats, the Kansas State outfit would be in a position to tie Iowa State if the Cyclones bow to Kansas.

After a blazing early season start, Nebraska has faltered. The Huskers started their loop campaign by losing to Kansas State but came back to hand Oklahoma its only conference loss and then edged Kansas.

Another resurgence came late in January when the Scarlet hoopsters drubbed Drake and Ottumwa Navy on a road swing into Iowa.

Since that time the Huskers have crushed South Dakota State but bowed to Iowa State, Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri.

According to word from Manhattan the Wildcats will open with Dave Weatherby and Harold Howey at forwards, Clarence Brannum and Keith Thomas at guards and either Jerry Patrick or Marlo Dirks at center.

Watch Him

Howey ruined the Husker's conference debut early in January by pouring 27 points through the hoop.

Weatherby was an all-Big Six forward last season but has had a hard time hitting his usual scoring pace during the 1946-47 campaign. Against the Jayhawks last week, the willowy forward shook off the doldrums and was the scoring leader along with guard Thomas.

Probable starting lineups:

Nebraska — Claude Retherford f f .. Dave Weatherby
Rodney Cox .. f .. Harold Howey
Dick Schleiger .. c .. Jerry Patrick
Joe Brown .. g .. Clarence Brannum
Bob Cerv .. g .. Keith Thomas
Officials: Ted O'Sullivan and Cliff Ogden

Wrestle Team Gets Weekend Road Journey

The University of Nebraska wrestling team travels this week end. The Cornhuskers meet Indiana university at Bloomington Saturday and Cornell College at Mount Vernon, Ia., Monday night.

Ed Copple, undefeated 155-pounder, will be unable to make the trip due to a broken rib suffered in the Oklahoma dual match. Coach Jerry Adam plans to take these nine wrestlers:

121 pounds—Bob Yambor.
128 pounds—Mickey Kelly, Mickey Sparano.
135 pounds—Jack Barrett.
145 pounds—Jack Tamal.
155 pounds—Marshall Boker, Andy Martinkovich.
165 pounds—Fred Turner.
175 pounds—Harold Boker.
Heavyweight—Mike DiBlase.

SUFFERING?
FROM CHAFITIS?
SKIVVY-GRABITIS?

Why bother with old-fashioned shorts with a sandpaper center seam that gives you too much close support when you crave freedom?

If your skivvies have that discouraging habit of creeping relentlessly back and sabotaging you every time you bend over, switch quickly to a pair of super-comfortable Arrow shorts.

The seamless crotch is a feature of every pair of Arrow shorts—can't grab, can't chafe.

We carry Arrow underwear.

NO HANDS!
(with Arrow shorts)

Question: How can a man go through a full day without using his hands to yank down creeping shorts?

Answer: Wear Arrow shorts. They CAN'T crawl up because they are made with Arrow's patented seamless crotch which eliminates chafing.

Also they are Sanforized-labeled (fabric shrinkage less than 1%), come with either buttons or Grip-er fasteners. You'll like the price, too!
