Spanish, Aztec Reports Heard By Phi Sigmas

Members of Phi Sigma Iota, national romance language scholastic honorary, heard two papers read by senior members who are Spanish students, Betty Easter and Helen Busacker.

Showing a number of color prints of portraits by El Greco and Velasquez, Miss Busacker talked on "The Greek and the Spaniard—Spiritual Countrymen," comparing works of the two masters.

Miss Easter's paper, "On the Aztecs," discussed the religious, governmental, and custom factors of the Aztecs that made Cortes' conquest easier. Included also was material of general interest about Hernando de Cortes and about the Aztec Indians.

Question periods followed the reading of each paper, and refreshments were served to close the meeting at which the president, Mary Louise Hansen, presided.

Sinfonia Sets Up $50 Scholarship For Music Major

Upsilon chapter of Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia, national music fraternity, will offer for the first time this spring a $50 scholarship to some man majoring in music who shows outstanding ability in his chosen field and the need for financial assistance. On this basis, the chapter may award the scholarship each succeeding semester.

A major Sinfonia project, the scholarship money will be drawn from a scholarship fund recently set up by the local chapter. The committee arranging the scholarship was headed by Ray Schaumburg.

Candidates may secure application blanks, which must be filed before April 1, from Prof. Emanuel Wishnow, 210 School of Music, from chapter president Ralph Salyard, or from Schaumburg. Blanks may be returned to the Sinfonia mail box in the School of Music or to Salyard personally.
