

Overhead Drill Marks Football Work Friday

Husker gridders were in need of a respite following Thursday's rough scrimmage, so Coach Bernie Masterson had a diet of passing and kicking practice on tap for the backfield candidates during Friday afternoon spring drills.

Occupying the spotlight in the punting were Jack Pesek and Jim Myers, who handled the majority of the toe chores last fall. Backfield Coach Dougal Russell is touted as a kicking specialist, and the showing of his pupils at Kansas State last season bore out the claim. Pesek was getting off some fifty yard boots during the Friday session.

Passing too came in for attention. Myers and Dick Hutton were among the overhead artists who were outstanding. Although he did no passing from his half-back post last fall, Hutton flashed possibilities as he nailed receivers with regularity.

Tony Blazine's men up front worked on pass defense as well as on formations to protect Nebraska passers.

DOUBLE SCRIMMAGE—Two different games were underway during the Thursday scrimmage work which was the high point in last week's football drills in the Nebraska spring training camp. In the above action an unidentified ball carrier smashes through the white-clad Nubbins on a fine play. Another game is in progress in the background.

Three Sports Highlight IM Activity Slate

Intramural activity continued to hit a high pitch this week as teams began to dig in for championship honors in three sports, water polo, volley ball and badminton.

In the badminton single elimination tourney, Sig Alpha Mu Thursday succeeded in downing Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Sammies copped two out of three games to earn the right to advance near the quarterfinals. In Friday's action, Beta Theta Pi white-washed Delta Tau Delta three games to none as they moved near the finals.

Leading the three water polo leagues are Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu. This rough and tumble sport has been hitting a fast pace through the week as all teams have their eyes on play-off spots.

Thursday and Friday results: Zeta Beta Tau 19, Tau Kappa Epsilon 3, Kappa Sigma 17, Farm House 0, Alpha Tau Omega 13, Phi Kappa Psi 6, Delta Upsilon 25, Theta Xi 3, Sigma Chi beat Delta Tau Delta (forfeit), Sigma Nu 18, Alpha Gamma Rho 5.

Volleyball

The newly formed volleyball leagues that number three fraternity loops and one independent league have also hit a hot pace this week as an average of three games a day have been played on the coliseum floor.

The undefeated leaders in the fraternity loops thus far in the season are Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Nu and Beta Sigma Psi. Leading the independent league are the unbeaten Presbyterians and Lillies.

Mike DiBiase Bows; Grimm Fourth in 50

Marvin Grimm, Nebraska's representative in the National Collegiate Association swimming championships, placed fourth in the 50 yard freestyle event Friday night in Seattle, Washington. Michigan's R. Weinberg splashed to victory in that event in :23.3.

Ohio State moved to the front in team scoring with a great array of divers plus world champion freestyle Bill Smith. One new record was established Friday as George Hoogerhyde of Michigan State won the 1500 meter marathon with a mark of 19:44.2.

Mike DiBiase, Cornhusker heavyweight participating in the N.C.A.A. wrestling meet, was the victim of the biggest first-round upset. Mike, last year's A.A.U. king, was decimated by Leroy Ailtz of Iowa State-Teachers by a 5-4 margin.

Team Race

The team championship, following the opening day's matches, was developing into a showdown between Cornell College of Iowa, Iowa State Teachers, Illinois, and Oklahoma A. & M., the defending champion.

Bill Koll of Iowa State Teachers, defending champion in the 145 pound class survived Friday's preliminaries, as did Cornell's 136 pound Lowell Lange and 121 pound Dick Hauser. The latter two grapplers won National A.A.U. championships in their weights while still in high school. Harold Mott, 121-pounder from Iowa State Teachers remained among the season's unbeaten wrestlers by successfully advancing to the semifinal round.

Swimming Party Booked April 2 At Coliseum Pool

A co-recreational swimming party will be held in the university coliseum from 7:00 to 8:30 Wednesday, April 2, for all those who care to attend.

Everyone is invited to the get-together splash. The facilities of the university pool will be open during the evening for the convenience of all. Swimmers must provide their own suits but towels may be obtained for a fee of 5 cents.

All students must have a swimming permit on file or bring it with them. These may be obtained at the Student Health Service, Pharmacy Hall. Everyone will adhere to the rules of the pool. All faculty members and their families are cordially invited to join in the fun.

Red Cross Swim Men to Give Tests

Coach Hollie Lepley announced this week end that a representative of the American Red Cross Water Safety council will be on hand starting April 28 to give courses and examinations in life saving and water safety work.

Be in Shape

An invitation is extended to all male students who are interested. The 20-hour course will extend from April 28 until May 9, with classes meeting from 5 to 6 each afternoon. It is recommended that those men interested be in satisfactory swimming condition in order to eliminate any necessity of using class periods for conditioning. Men wishing to participate in preliminary work may attend Coach Lepley's advanced swimming class on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, or they may use the recreational swimming period from 3:45 to 5 daily.

Coach Lepley's present plans are to conduct a learn-to-swim campaign, using the men who have passed the Red Cross course as volunteer instructors. This program will start May 12 and continue until May 30. There will be two classes each afternoon, one from 4 to 5 and the other from 5 to 6.

All those interested in the Red Cross course see Mr. Lepley or call Extension 21. The complete program is to be conducted free of charge for those participating.

Rose Bowl Grads.

Onlookers at Friday's session were Herman Rohrig and Harry Hopp of the Rose Bowl team. Rohrig now performs with the Green Bay Packers, while Hopp will be with the Baltimore Colts next season.

Two weeks of spring training have gone by the boards, and the Huskers will have one more week of work before laying off for spring vacation. Following the week's rest, the gridders will have three more weeks of practice.

Scarlet Rank 2nd In All-Sport Point Tabulation

Nebraska ranks second behind Oklahoma in all-sports rankings following the completion of six conference competitions. In figuring the standings six points were given for first, five for second and so on down the line.

The Huskers have failed to win a single championship, but have finished second in indoor track and swimming. Missouri and Kansas were held back in the scoring because they did not compete in wrestling and swimming competition.
