

Public Housing Meetings Held

John Lange, regional director, and W. H. Wolaver, five-state area manager, conducted the federal public housing conference held on the university campus Tuesday.

Problems of colleges and municipalities such as division of cost of operation between local agencies and FPMA, final disposition of projects, fiscal arrangements and allowable normal operating expenses were aired.

Representatives of the university, Union college, Nebraska Wesleyan, Dana college, Doane college, Midland college, Peru Normal, York college, Fairbury junior college and the Nebraska State Trade School at Milford attended the conference.

Graduates Join Illinois Faculty

Among the new faculty members added to the instructional staff of the University of Illinois' Galesburg division are two former Nebraska women, Dr. Johanna F. Ogden, who will instruct classes in rhetoric, and Miss Elsie C. Muller, who will teach mathematics.

Dr. Ogden graduated from Nebraska in 1914, and was for a time assistant dean of women. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the American Association of University Women.

Miss Muller, who also studied at the University of Nebraska, received a bachelor's degree from Nebraska State Teachers' college, Wayne, Nebraska. She is a member of the National Council of Mathematics Teachers, National Education association, and the Michigan Education association.

Music Sorority Presents Spring Concert Monday

Delta Omicron, professional music sorority, presented its annual spring concert Monday night in Temple theater.

The vocal ensemble conducted by Barbara Olson of Lincoln opened the concert with Bach's "Hear King of Angels," and also presented the closing selections, Hageman's "Do Not Go My Love" and "Tree Silences" by Lenz.

Alice Saunders played two violin solos, Rachmaninoff's "Vocalise" and "Slavonic Dance" by Dvorak-Kreisler. Marilyn Nelson played Copeland's piano showpiece "Scherzo Humoristique." Arleen Heinz sang Debussy's "Mandoline" and Smith's "My Song and My Love."

A triple trio composed of Jacqueline King, Joyce Stuve, Nancy Pierson, Margaret Shelley, Margaret Ann Amend, Mary Lou Sommer, Patricia VerMaas, Mary Barton and Lois Swanson sang Stoughton's "Kung Fu-Tze" and Clokey's "Flower of Dreams."

Joann Weston and Margaret Shelley were accompanists.

Election . . .

VI, concerning qualifications for candidates to fill Council vacancies and an addition was made to Article V providing that president and vice-president of Council must be chosen from the holdover members. By custom, secretary and treasurer are also elected from the holdover membership.

The election would have been validated at 9:45 p. m. if it had not been for a tie between Nadine Anderson and Jane McArthur for the second woman representative from Arts and Science college. Five tedious recounts were made before an error was discovered in favor of Miss McArthur. The elections committee and faculty advisor, Miss Mary Mielenz, validated the election at 10:30 p. m.
