

Huskers Squelch Sooners

NOMAN, Okla.—Two runs in the tenth inning gave the University of Nebraska baseball team a 5 to 3 win over Coach Jack Baer's Oklahoma Sooners here Friday afternoon.

Husker shortstop Bob Grogen came through with a single in the first extra inning to send Jim Sharp and Elroy Gloystein across the plate with the winning runs. By virtue of the victory Nebraska remained undefeated in Big Six competition.

Gloystein Wins.

Gloystein, Utica southpaw, was on the mound all the way for Nebraska and kept the Sooners well in hand. Although giving up 10 hits, one more than the Scarlet batters could collect off the slats of John Venable, Gloystein was tough in the pinches and fanned seven batters. He did not walk a man, a remarkable feat in a game played in a high wind.

The Oklahoma baseball team handed the Huskers their first loss in Big Six competition, in a close 9-8 game Saturday at Norman.

Nebraska got off to an early lead when three runs crossed the platter in the third inning. Fritz Hegwood and Wes Maser were on the base paths when Catcher Orville Schmeiding dropped a looping fly behind first base which went for a safe hit scoring both runners.

Two errors by Bill Denker, Nebraska third baseman, let in two Oklahoma tallies in the Sooners' half of the fourth frame. Oklahoma got another marker in the seventh inning when Red Deal singled and came home on a single by Catcher Johnny Chyz.

Missouri Next.

Following the Oklahoma series the Huskers move to Missouri for a pair of contests with the Tigers on Monday and Tuesday. Coach Tony Sharpe's nine will make its next home start against Iowa State Cyclones early in May.

Nebraskans Win Three Events At Kansas Relays

Nebraska's outdoor track team came across with two wins and a tie for first at the Kansas Relays held under threatening skies Saturday afternoon at Lawrence.

Harry Meginnis made a surprising leap of 22 feet 6 1/4 inches to place first in the broad jump contest. Meginnis was a dark horse entrant whom Coach Ed Weir sprung for the first time in the current outdoor track season.

Defending javelin champ Herb Grote repeated last year's top performance with a winning toss of 189 feet 10 3/4 in.

Lanky Monte Kinder's high jump of 6 feet 1 3/4 in. was good enough to tie for first place. Kinder also tied for first in his event at the Texas Relays this season.

The Scarlet's distance medley relay team ran third. Bad weather hampered all performances.

Softball Teams Begin League Action Monday

Another major sport is to be added to the already crowded schedule of intramural activity next week.

The softball season gets under way Monday with three games on top for the opening day. Many teams have been holding regular workouts either in vacant lots or on the diamonds available at the west side of the Coliseum, giving promise to some closely played ballgames.

All teams are reminded that each team is to furnish one official for its game and that all games will go seven innings unless both teams agree to different terms.

Five Minutes.

All games will start promptly at 5 with both teams given no more than a five minute limit for being late. The many games are scheduled for 5, many of the contests will be twilight affairs with the first 6:30 games being played on Tuesday.

Monday's games will pit Brown Palace against Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Sigma against Sigma Nu, and Farm House against Theta Xi.

Scrimmage Washed Out By Downpour

Water polo activity is confined to the intramural sports program, so the scheduled football scrimmage between teams chosen from the Cornhusker spring practice squad was canceled.

No Help.

Slated for Saturday afternoon on the varsity gridiron, the gridiron activity was first shifted to the fast-draining freshman field, but when the rain refused to relent, despite baleful glares from all members of the Nebraska coaching staff, head coach Bernie Masterson regretfully called off the contact work.

With only two more weeks of spring practice available, the the Husker headman is anxious to give his charges more testing under actual game conditions. The spring squad has been divided into four teams, the Crusaders, Renegades, Hatfields and McCoys, for the scrimmage which will probably will be held next week.

Six Volleyball Teams Earn Playoff Spots

The water polo season which has been in action for several weeks, will go into the playoff stage in which the top two teams in each of the three fraternity leagues will fight it out for the top positions in final standings.

In league I Delta Upsilon and Alpha Tau Omega seem to have things well in hand and will be the entries from that circuit. The other winners are Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Gamma Delta champions of their leagues and Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu the runners up in Leagues II, and III.

Along with water polo, volleyball has also been going a hot pace as teams ready themselves for playoff action which will follow after the regular season is concluded. Most of the games will be finished this week with final playoffs to follow next week.

Monday volleyball games: 5-1. Sigma Chi vs. Sigma Alpha Mu; 2. Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Pioneer Coop; 3. Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Delta Upsilon, 7:30—1. Alpha Tau Omega vs. Beta Sigma Psi.

are posted on the IM bulletin board at the coliseum. All entrants should notice the board to find out when they play.
