

After a Fashion

By JEAN SWENGEL.

Did you know you may meet a pair of blue nylons walking down the street any day now? That's right, the latest fad is nylons in new muted pastel shades, now that nylons are back on the market again. Some of the colors shown to match your new spring outfit are Red Clover, Blue Hyacinth, Petal Pink, Moss Green, Dark Blue Iris and Nimosa Yellow. I wonder how the summer tans will mix with Shocking Pink.

Some of the fashion shows for the bridal costumes, which no doubt interest many of you are featuring pastel colors for the brides. Suggestions show either a pink or blue wedding gown. The bridesmaids' gowns would be matched accordingly.

Short Formal Wear.

At many of the various spring holiday parties in the larger cities it was noted that other than full length formals were being worn. In fact, three different skirt lengths were represented; the full length formal, the ankle-length decollete and the longer street-length with a covered-up top. It is believed that the men's lack of formal attire is the reason which prompts the desire for a shorter skirt length among the girls. Of course the men's formal situation will no doubt be relieved by next fall, but not sufficiently to alter this new trend.

These lengths seemingly do not suggest formality, but the materials used definitely do. Different fabrics are striped satin, striped taffeta or faille, which of course are formal in texture. Another departure from the daytime look in these costumes are the shoes. These are generally revealing

VETS NEWS

Subsistence Checks

Students under the GI bill here who plan to move as soon as school is out, should notify the Veterans Administration, Lincoln Regional office, and request in writing that their final subsistence check for the semester be forwarded to their summer addresses, according to Ted Martens, VA's education chief.

Martens also offered this additional advice to ex-GIs now enrolled in Nebraska universities and colleges:

1. Veterans who plan to enroll sandals with thin suede or kid straps (gold or silver).

Here's hoping this little bit of fashion gossip will tide you along while you patiently wait for the latest ideas next week.

for summer school at some institution other than the one they are now attending should apply to the VA's regional office at once for a supplemental certificate of eligibility, explaining the reason for the request.

2. Veterans who plan to leave Nebraska for the summer but who expect to re-enter school next fall, should so advise the VA. Otherwise, Martens said, their VA records will follow them out of the state and will delay the veteran's registration next fall.
