

Scarlet Cindermen Set for Drake Trip

Fourteen University of Nebraska track and field performers will be among the collection of the Midwest and Southwest's best athletes which will gather at Des Moines Friday and Saturday for the 38th running of the Drake relays.

Three Husker entrants will be in the favorite's role for individual crowns. Herb Grote, Monte Kinder and Don Cooper are the pupils of Coach Ed Weir who have merited extra attention from pre-meet dopsters.

Grote, who holds the Texas and Kansas relay javelin titles, is expected to dethrone Bobby Lowther of Louisiana State for the Drake title. The Nebraska spear ace won the Drake title in 1941 and has a toss of over 197 feet this spring to indicate that he means business.

Wants To Be Alone

High jumper Kinder has shared in first place ties in both Nebraska relay appearances, but is anxious to shake loose his rivals and win an undisputed championship. The limber Cambridge leaper has gone 5 feet 5 inches this year. He cleared 6 feet 6 1/2 inches at the Texas relays several years ago.

In the pole vault the bespectacled Cooper rates a place near the top in forecasts. His vault of 13 feet 9 3/4 inches in the indoor meet with Missouri is one of the best performances in the nation, but with defending champ Billy Moore of Northwestern back in the running, Cooper will have to cut loose in outdoor competition.

Other Scarlet individual entrants are Al Thompson and Dick Hutton in the 100 yard dash, Harry Meginnis in the broad jump and Ralph King in the 120 yard high hurdles.

Relay Runners

Slated for duty on the 440 and 880 yard relay teams are Thompson, Hutton, Meginnis, Harvey Stroud and Bill Conner.

For the two-mile relay Coach Weir is expected to call upon Bobby Ginn, Jim Martin, Al Brown and Harold Kopf. A fourth Nebraska relay team will be entered in either the sprint medley or distance medley event.

The Drake program opens Friday afternoon with finals in the broad jump, discus and two-mile run in the university section. Iowa high schools and colleges will also be on hand for separate competition.

Broad jumper Meginnis, who surprised everyone with a first place leap in the Kansas relays, will be the only Nebraska entrant to be in action Friday afternoon.

Every Big Six school except Kansas State will be at the Drake meet, as well as most of the Big Ten teams, Texas and Baylor, Southwest Conference standouts, will be on hand, plus the major independent teams of the midlands.

Last Year

In last year's Drake carnival Nebraska earned three second places and a third. Grote was second in the javelin, Ned Nutzman was second in the shot put and the Nebraska two-mile relay team was runnerup to Michigan State. The Husker distance medley quartette finished in third place.

Ineligibility will keep Loyal Hurlbert and Dick Piderit at home, while Fritz Ware, quartermiler, is still bothered by a pulled leg muscle.

Following the Drake meet the Huskers have a dual encounter with Colorado and a triangular with Missouri and Wisconsin before the Big Six outdoor championships.

Rough Drill Saturday For Gridiron

Newcomers to the Husker varsity squad, got their first real acquaintance with the A squad routine Thursday afternoon as the Nebraska spring griders spent their time polishing plays in preparation for Saturday afternoon's scrimmage.

Russell Hale, lightweight hardy quarterback, was barking signals for a combination of backs, including Dugie Doyle, the most recent addition to the fullback platoon.

In the line Tackle Urban Schrage and Guard Bill Patton did their bit as End Coach Ray Prochaska sent the forwards thru a contact drill dedicated to the improvement of offensive assignments. Patton and Bill Kimball were the guards and Dick Goeglein and Edgar Thompson the tackles on defense against several line combinations.

Line Unit.

Jim McWilliams at ends, Gordon Hall and Schrage at tackles, Gene Wilkins and Jerry Jacupke at guards and Leonard Hand at center.

When headman Masterson combined backs and linemen for a dummy scrimmage, Hall replaced DiBiase at tackle and Joe Partington, Cletus Fischer, Bob Riedy and Darwin Salestrom furnished the ball-carrying personnel.
