Shestak Belabors the Greeter; Ponders Concept Of 'Beauty'

BY GEORGE T. SHESTAK.

undistinguished day. The sun is lobsters steaming against a con-where it belongs, the trees are trasting background of vanilla ice doing vhatever any normal tree cream as the zenith in aesthetic would do under similar circumstances, people are walking hither and yon-it's a ghastly sight. This, then, is the sort of a day that in-*uces a certain type of idiot to run up, bare all thirty-odd teeth, drool on your hand-painted tie, and gush joyously,

"Gee, it's a beautiful and/or fine

Waxes Indignant.

Beautiful? Well, the sun is shining-but what's to prevent it? It's as sure as death and down slips that on a given number of days, the amount of moisture in the upper atmosphere will be great enough to prevent the visible radiations of the solar orb to traverse the air blanket and reach the earth. Obviously not worth men-

Now if Walt Simon should stand on the state capitol, and by sheer lung power (and he has quite enough) blow every cloudlet into Kansas—let me know. It will be a red letter day. (This has no reference to The Scarlet Letter by one of the Hawthorne boys—the early American sex story of one sort or another.)

Esthetic Values.

As to this business of beautiful, well, a day is a day and no more, You can't whistle at it, or eat it. The light hurts my eyes anyway.

What, is beauty at that? They tell me that in certain rather backward areas in Nebraska, an enlarged pituitary gland is looked

Bulletin

Cornhuskers.

Dean Skokan, business mana-ger of the 1947 Cornhusker, announced today that 50 Cornhuskers are available for purchase. Skokan also stated that Friday has been set as the deadline for $3 partial payments for the year-

Inter-Varsity Officers.

Installation of newly-elected inter-varsity officers has been scheduled for tonight in Union Room 316. A social speaker is planned.

Interfraternity Council.

A meeting of the Interfraternity council will be held for the election of officers today at 5:00, in Room 313 of the Union.

Inter-Fraternity Sing.

There will be a meeting of all directors who participated in the inter-fraternity sing to receive judges' criticisms from the sing on Friday, May 16, in Student Union Room 315 at 5 p. m.

Correction.

Undergraduate wives and husbands of Teachers College will meet for an informal party at the home of C. L. Jennings at 2620 North 45th, Friday at 8 p. m. Club hostesses will be Mrs. J. A. Varney and Mrs. V. W. Arnold. This party was previously reported as being for graduate wives.

Gamma Delta.

Members and students interested in Gamma Delta, Lutheran college youth organization, will meet for the weekly topic discussion at 7:15 tonight in the YMCA room of the Temple. "To Sign or Not to Sign," a leaflet related to the subject of marriage, will be the topic discussed.

Pygmalion . . .

(Continued from Page 1.) Irish drama, "The Playboy of the Western World" by John M. Synge, March 17-20. Next year's Shakespeare will be "The Taming of the Shrew," scheduled for the week of May 12. Dallas S.

Williams is director of the University Theater.

Personalized Senior Announcements No Deadline

GRAVES PRINTING CO.

312 North 12th South of the Temple

on as the acme of charm. And I Item: It is a perfectly normal, have been partial to bright red thrills though you may disagree with me. So you see, it is a debatable and Hill, Nebraskan managing editor unpleasant subject. All I know, and political science major who is that when I get up and the day is "fine", I wrap my babuska tightly about my head and eyes, run to the pool hall, and play snooker in a dark corner until the sun goes down.

Slajchert . . .

(Continued from Page 1.) his committee to attend the NSO constitutional convention at Wisconsin university this summer, one to choose cheer leaders for The university has been invited to send four. Those recommended had been customary prior to 1942, approved by the Council were Dorothy Lasher, delegate to Nebraska-Dakota NSO regional that a week ago the Council conferences; Betty Jean Holcomb, named a committee to choose the debater and radio major; Jack and political science major who was a Nebraska delegate to the Chicago conference last December; and Bob Gillan, former Student Council member who has attional Unitarian Youth confer-

Other Business.

other major topic for The Council consideration was a request by the Innocents Society that their group be appointed the had been customary prior to 1942, Ned Raun moved that the privilege be restored, despite the fact yell squad, composed of the presidents of Corn Cobs, Tassels, Innocents and Mortar Board. A hand fic signals at busy campus cornvote failed to carry the motion. ers, elimination of final examina-

Student Union Board, presented percent in any course, and a cama list of six board candidates from pus-wide survey of services which tended debate conferences and na- which the council was asked to the student body desires accompappoint three. In an effort to be lished.

acquainted more fully with the candidates before voting, especially because board membership has recently been revised, the Council decided to table voting until next meeting, when all nominces are requested to be present for interviews.

Dale Ball, chairman of the Campus Improvement Committee, reported five projects under construction by the committee including improved campus lighting facilities, extended parking areas south of the stadium, added traf-Dale Novotny, president of the tions for students averaging 85

VBIDERANS!

EXPENDABLE CARDS EXPIRE TODAY

NEBRASKA BOOK STORE

MADE IN U.S.A.

2 CO. LTO. 200, 52 W

Free Variety Show Gene Tierney & Tyrone Power

"SON OF FURY"

3:00 p. m., SUNDAY, MAY 18

Union Ballroom

8:00 p. m., May 18, Ag Union

It's true, if every smoker knew what PHILIP MORRIS smokers know . . . they'd ALL change to PHILIP MORRIS.

Yes, the PHILIP MORRIS smoker really gets what other smokers only hope to get . . . PERFECT SMOKING PLEASURE.

So for perfect smoking pleasure . . . try a pack