Mobile Dental Unit Will Treat Naval Officers, Trainees

A mobile dental unit sent from Great Lakes for treatment of all navy personnel on active duty in this district is located this week at the Naval and Military Science building.

A veritable dental clinic on wheels, the unit is made up of a tractor, motive power unit, trailer, two complete operating room units, dental x-ray space, and a waiting room. It is operated under the direction of Lt. Cmdr. H. P. Williamson who heads the staff of two doctors, two dental corpsmen, and a driver and maintenance man.

Originated during the war, the naval dental unit was built especially to accommodate small outlying stations within the United States where proper dental facilities are not available, according to Lt. Cmdr. Williamson.

All dental students have been invited to inspect the unit which will be station here until next Tuesday.

Three Students Resume Promotion Of Chesterfields

Geneve Mitchell, B. J. Holcomb and Jack Hill will represent the Chesterfield cigarette company on campus this year, it was announced Thursday.

Now on a nation-wide basis, the Chesterfield campus representative program has been effected by the three students in the previous semester. They will continue to promote Chesterfields on a campus basis, tying in their work with a recent survey showing Chesterfields to be "the campus favorite."
