

Intramural Grid Teams Begin Action

The race for the Jack Best trophy is on. Intramural Director, Lou Means, has announced the touch football leagues and the first two days' schedule. Thirty-two teams are ready to fight it out for the championship of the gridiron sport.

Last year, 34 teams played 112 games before Phi Delta Theta was crowned the all-school champion. Gayle Lebsack and Jack Cady led the all-victorious Phi Deltas in their wins over the D. U.'s for the inter-fraternity title and over the Lilies, Independent champs, for the school championship.

All games will be played either on the fields west of the Coliseum or at the Ag campus. Games will start at 5:00 p. m. sharp.

TUESDAY'S SCHEDULE

HUSKER SCATBACK—Jim "Squat" Myers, Husker halfback, picks up speed on one of several lengthy jaunts against Nubbins during two-hour scrimmage session Saturday afternoon at Memorial Stadium. The former York high school standout climaxed his afternoon running efforts by returning a Nubbins punt 75 yards to a touchdown in the fourth period.

UN Students Purchase 6,800 Activity Ducats

University of Nebraska students have purchased 6,800 activity tickets, according to Max Peterson, student athletic business manager.

Tickets will remain on sale in the Coliseum lobby thruout this week. Those who have coupons and receipts may acquire tickets there.

A report from the athletic office indicates that seats are still available for the Indiana-Nebraska game. A sell-out for the Minnesota contest is predicted.

Bowling Teams Will Organize On UN Campus

Bowling is destined to be a big year-round student recreational activity on the University of Nebraska campus this year.

This is evidenced by plans for the organization of inter-college and interdepartment bowling leagues plus the advent of inter-fraternity bowling leagues in early November.

Director Lou Means is also issuing a call from intramural headquarters for duckpin bowling teams to file entries at 207 Coliseum at once. There will be no entry fee.

Any fraternity, independent organization, or group of unorganized students may organize a bowling team and file entries at headquarters. Deadline for filing is Saturday, Sept. 27 at noon.
