

It Says Here

BY PAT NORDIN.

It might as well be spring judging from the actions of most of our fellow students, who continue a mad orgy of pinnings and engagements. It must be the result of a summer of sordid seclusion.

First of the pinnings is a cousin act performed at the Kappa house . . . Barbara Turk is now the pin-mate of SAE Sandy Porter, while cousin Pepi Votava displays Bruce Kaufman's Sigma Nu pin. Polly Hare has also announced her engagement to Bob Burhans, SAE, but sister Joyce Geddes prefers home town boy, John Forman.

Complications.

Complications have set in, however, in various cases. Jo Seidel Alpha Phi, and Dick Rogers, Sigma Chi, brought their pinning of two years duration to a close this summer. Jo is now being true to Bill Purdy of Omaha, and Dick would like to be true to AO Pi Wendy Corkin. But, being old fashioned, Wendy would like more than one date to make up her mind.

Phi Gam Jerry Johnston was feeling kittenish in the Crib Friday, when he brought in a plastic balloon to play with. The balloon soon made the rounds of the booths as waiters dodged and Jerry laughed hysterically.

Jean Compton and Dick Howell, popular campus couple, have announced their engagement of last June. A senior from Seward, Jean belongs to Pi Beta Phi, Mortar Board, Student Council, Cornhusker and is vice-president of AWS board. A law student, Dick is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Rumor has it that AOPi Marianne Srb and Sig Ep prexy Dick "Hans" Folda have considered exchanging Mortar Board and Innocent pins. Sounds like a pinning on a smaller scale.

Gamma Phi's Torchie Rediger has again taken up steady life with Bud Gerhart, ATO—a plan that was discontinued for the summer. They have evidently formulated a new system, as coke dates don't seem to count, at least as far as Torchie is concerned.

YMCA to Hold Organizational Meet Thursday

Upperclassmen commission groups will be organized at the YMCA fall rendezvous Thursday, from 3 to 5 p. m. at Ellen Smith.

Commission groups to be organized are social service, community religion, intercultural relationship, knitting, Bible study, personal effectiveness, upperclass leadership, vesper choir, international problems, teen-age leadership, labor, and music.

Betty Lou Horton, university delegate to Oslo, will discuss the summer conference at 3:30 p. m. In charge of the general arrangements is Janice Beck. Eleanor Stahl is chairman of the refreshment committee.

Freshman will meet for organizational purposes Oct. 30.

Foreign American Students to Attend Cosmopolitan Meet

The Cosmopolitan Club will hold its first meeting of the year at 4:30 p. m. Wednesday in Room 315 of the Union, according to Rambarin Ramdin, vice-president. All members, as well as interested new students, are eligible to attend.

The Cosmopolitan Club is a social organization aiming to acquaint foreign and American students, and to provide social contacts and common interests.

Confused.

Arlene Peterson, Kappa Delta, is having a hard time making up her mind between a Kappa Sig, an ATO and a Phi Gam after a date with each over the week end. Being firm, she already turned down one pin.

SAE Alex Cochrane is having a hard time keeping his mind on his studies as he awaits the arrival of Edward Alex or Holly Cochrane, which ever the cast may be. His wife is former Theta M. A. Cawood.

Fiji Bill Scheruck received quite a jolt when his date Jean Zehrung arrived at the picnic wearing a skirt. Other members of the crowd kept Bill in doubt for some time before disclosing the fact that he had been deceived by a pair of pedal pushers.

Steadies.

The steadies in the Pi Phi house are beginning to confirm the rumors circulating about them. Pi Phi pledge Patty Cheek and Sig Alpha Tom Griswold have decided "steady" is the word, as have Ann Stevenson and Phi Gam pledge Jack Killian.

Biggest surprise of the week was Pi Phi Bev Lytle's announcement of her approaching marriage to Jack Davis of Gothenburg. The event will take place November 9, in Gothenburg where the couple will make their home.
