

Mizzou Trek On Schedule For Oct. 31

The general schedule for the Student Council-sponsored migration to the Nebraska-Missouri game at Columbia Nov. 1st was announced at the Council meeting Wednesday afternoon by Frank Loeffel, rally chairman. Plans include a round-trip in reserved train coaches, block attendance of Nebraska rooters at the game, and a mass rally staged in the center of the Columbia business district.

Annual Migration

Each year the Council sponsors a student-body migration to the scene of a Cornhusker game away from home. A traditional event, the migration offers students a special opportunity to display school spirit. Last year's jaunt took varsity boosters to Kansas University.

The yell squad, the 125-piece ROTC Band, approximately 50 Corn Cobs and Tassels and representatives from Student Council will form the nucleus of the migration body. Members of WAA will manage food concessions on the train.

Costs Low

Cost for railway fare and game ticket total $20, with $2.75 for the game, and $17.25 for the round trip Burlington fare. The special train will leave the Lincoln Union terminal at 11 p.m. Friday Oct. 31st to arrive in Columbia during the forenoon of game day. The group will depart again at 11 Saturday night, to arrive in Lincoln Sunday morning.

Announcement of the ticket-selling drive will be made later, Loeffel said. In the meantime, his committee urges students to set aside $20 in their budget for the annual migration. Committee members include Betty Aasen, Joan Farrar, and Stanley Malashock.

Coeds to Meet Dean Johnston At Annual Tea

An annual tea for all women students, particularly freshmen and new students, will be given by Miss Marjorie Johnston, dean of women and her staff at Ellen Smith hall on Friday, September 26th from 3:30 to 5:30.
