

Di Biase Injured

That injury jinx hit the Huskers again Wednesday night.

Tackle Mike DiBiase, 240-pound heavyweight, was the individual victim. Mike was carried in from the practice field with a badly wrenched knee. Whether the joint was broken or not was not known immediately, but it is certain that Mike will not see action in the Gopher battle Saturday.

Larry Olonoski

DiBiase, who turned in a strong defensive performance in the season opener against Indiana last Saturday, was injured while skirmishing against a Nubbins eleven running off Minnesota formations.

Coach Masterson continued to drill his charges on pass offense and sent them through a concentrated session of play reviews.

Strong Forwards

A report from the Norsemen state indicates that the Gopher forward wall will be a tough one to penetrate—especially in the middle where a host of hefty veterans are parked.

Two-year letterman Larry Olonoski, 6 ft. 2 in., 250-pound giant guard, sparked the Minnesota forwards in their opening operation against the Washington Huskies.

Partington At Quarter

Masterson continued to work Joe Partington out at the quarterback slot Wednesday, but may call on the little veteran for a whirl at his old center position in Saturday's fracas.

With Jim Thomson out for the season with a fractured ankle and Gail Gade still hobbled with a twisted knee, the pivot chores rest on Tom "The Train Wreck" Novak and Bob Costello, former six-man gridders.

But the quarterback spot is also lacking reserve punch. Del Wiegand will continue to handle the first team assignment with possible help from Dick Thompson, still favoring a bad knee. Brice Bergquist, other varsity signal caller, is in the hospital with a severe flu attack.

STONEWALL NOMELLINI—Sophomore Leo Nomellini, Gopher guard who blocked a first quarter Husker punt for a safety last year, again heads a powerful Minnesota forward wall. The 238-pound "bull" has been likened to Bronko Nagurski by Head Coach Bernie Bierman and with more experience is considered a great All-American prospect.

Simpson Takes Free Throw Lead

University of Nebraska free throw artists took aim Tuesday afternoon to open the four-day University free throw tournament in the Coliseum.

First day's tabulations placed Fritz Simpson, Phi Kappa Psi and varsity basketball player last year, in the lead with 36 successful tosses out of 40. Tom Shea, Phi Delta Theta, and Tom Donahoe, Sigma Chi, were second with 34 for 40.

Match play will begin Thursday with the 32 best scorers paired for the final rounds. The tournament will be completed Friday at 5 p. m., and group and individual champions will be declared.

A trophy will be awarded the team champion, with the individual champion receiving an intramural medal.

Every man who shot 29 or better in the preliminary round is asked to report at the Coliseum promptly at 5 p. m. on Thursday to start match play. Finals will be held on Friday.

Phi Games Cap 7-6 Overtime Grid Victory

Wednesday's Scores

Phi Gamma Delta 7, Sigma Chi 6.
Phi Kappa Psi 6, Beta Sigman Psi 0.
Theta Xi 7, Zeta Beta Tau 0.
Lilies 19, Ag YMCA 2.
A.M.S.C. 2, Ricketteers 0.

In a bitterly contested overtime struggle, Phi Gamma Delta edged Sigma Chi, 7-6 in the intramural football feature Wednesday evening.

Sig Chi drew first blood when Donahue pitched to Nelson for six points. The Phi Gam's marker came on an Warren Eisenhart-to-Bob Olmstead aerial.

The regular playing time ended with the score deadlocked and each team had four downs in which to accumulate yardage.

The Sig Chis, in three plays, had gained more ground than the Phi Gams. On the next play, however, the losers intentionally grounded the ball thereby drawing a penalty and on the final play were not able to regain any yardage.

The Sigma Chi team has indicated that it will protest its tilt with the Phi Gams.

In other games Phi Kappa Psi edged Beta Sigma Psi, 6-0, and Theta Xi downed Zeta Beta Tau, 7-0.

With the aid of a fumbled punt return and a penalty, the Phi Psi's tripped the Beta Sigs. Esser grabbed a Hollander pass to register the lone tally.

Out at Ag. college, Lowe showed the way as the Lilies trounced Ag. Y.M.C.A 19-1, and Ag. Men's Social club won by forfeit from the Ricketteers 2-0.

POWER RUNNER—Bill Elliott, 183-pound Minnesota fullback, who will pit his hard-sitting and strong defensive play against the Huskers Saturday in the traditional Husker-Gopher battle at Memorial Stadium.
