

Taus Celebrate Fiftieth Year Three Day Festivity Planned by UN Chapter

A smoker, buffet luncheon and dinner dance will be the highlights this weekend when Alpha Tau Omega celebrates the 50th anniversary of the founding of the University of Nebraska chapter.

The three day celebration will begin with the honorary alumni smoker, to be held at the chapter house, Friday night. The buffet luncheon will be served Saturday noon by the local auxiliary composed of mothers and wives of the chapter members.

Proof of the detailed planning that went into the celebration, is demonstrated by the fact that the alumni's block of seats for the Minnesota game were reserved over a year ago.

Festivities will end Saturday night with the banquet and dance at the Cornhusker.

A Sunday morning service will be held honoring members who are dead. The program will be attended by both alumni and the active chapter. Sunday noon, the chapter will again be hosts to the national officers and over 200 visiting alumni.

Heading the list of notables will be worthy grand chief, John M. MacGregor, from New York City. MacGregor, a prominent New York attorney and veteran of both World wars, is at present on a tour visiting Alpha Tau Omega chapters in the middlewest.

Another honored guest will be E. J. Shives, retired educator of Wittenburg college who was the installing officer of the Nebraska Gamma Theta chapter in 1897. He is now living in Venice, Calif., and is flying to Lincoln for this celebration.

Others to attend are: W. E. Tegland, national alumni officer from Jackson, Mich.; Albert W. Wilber, national vocational director from Chicago, Ill.; Martin Chittik, member of the high council from Chicago, and Fred V. Klemp, jr., midwest province chief from Kansas City, Mo.

The local chapter of Alpha Tau Omega was organized in 1897 by a group of students who formed a club with a one room club house in the old fraternity building. Since then over 800 members have been initiated here.

Lincoln attorney, Claude S. Wilson, one of the oldest members of the Nebraska chapter, will serve as toastmaster at the Saturday evening banquet.

Lewandowski Reports New Ticket Name

Student activity tickets for admission to university athletic contests will be renamed student athletic tickets next fall, A. J. Lewandowski, athletic director, announced today.

Because several hundred incoming students plagued the student activities office, recently transferred to the administration building, to purchase student activity tickets, it has been held advisable by administration officials that the change be made.

Student activity tickets (athletic contests only) will be available the remainder of this week, except for Saturday, at the athletic office in the coliseum.

Lewandowski expressed his appreciation to the student body's arrival and departure from Memorial stadium. The continued use of the correct ramps and early arrival of students will completely remove this perennial problem.

Rustic Theme to Prevail At 'Calico, Jeans' Affair

BY LAVERNA ACKER.

Tired of formality and sophistication? Like to go back to the simplicity of the country life? Tonight is the night for you to relax from the cares and worries of the academic life, dress up in comfortable clothes and come out to the Farmers' Formal, which is about as formal as a neighborly talk over the back fence.

The dance begins at 8:00 p. m. at the Ag College Activities building. So guys, dig out those jeans and old shirt or sweater, get your favorite gal in calico and spend a gala evening of dancing, fun and romancing.

Highlighting the Farmers' Formal will be the presentation of the queen and her six attendants. The queen's name and those of her attendants will remain secret until the crowning ceremony, which will be about 10 o'clock.

The queen was chosen Tuesday in an election held in the Ag union. Home Ec majors having 89 credit hours in the university and a weighted average of 80 or more were eligible. The woman having the highest vote will be crowned queen and those having the next six highest votes will appear as her attendants.

This is the second Farmers Formal since the war. True to custom, the theme is secret until the night of the big event. Last year the auditorium was decorated with huge cornstalks, bright pumpkins and other harvest time crops.

Morton Wells and his orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets are $2 per couple, tax included, and may be purchased from any Ag Executive Board member or at the door Friday night.

Just a word of reminder to you lucky guys who have signed with the date bureau on Tuesday. Your dates have been drawn and you are asked to drop in at the Ag union office before noon Friday to pick up necessary information. See you at the dance.
