

Huskers . . .

Harry Elliott's punt and recovered for Nebraska on the Gopher's 19-yard line.

Wiegand, Damkroger Click

Wiegand unlimbered his arm again and flipped a 15-yard aerial to Damkroger on the two. The DeWitt husky made a beautiful one-hand catch and stepped across the double stripe untouched. Costello's kick was good and the Huskers trailed 14-13.

But Minnesota roared back with a wealth of reserve power and tallied twice more before time ran out.

Harry Elliott and Bill Bye sparked Minnesota on the ground and in the air. Bye engineered the first Gopher tally. He ran and passed the ball to the three-yard line. After Bill Elliott failed to carry over, the Gopher scaback slanted off tackle to score from two yards out. Big Don Bailey came off the Minnesota bench to convert.

Elliott Sparks Gophers

Harry Elliott's passes accounted for the second Gopher tally. The shifty halfback completed a 17-yard aerial to Daugherty before hitting Bill Theile with a payoff pitch in the second period. Again Bailey trotted in to convert.

Elliott's passing was a big factor in the mid fourth quarter thrust by the Gophers. After Center Warren Beson recovered a Nebraska fumble on the Huskers' 38-yard stripe, Elliott tossed to Daugherty to the 12, and ran to the seven before carrying to the one-foot line. From there Jim Malosky went over on a quarterback sneak. Bailey's toe guided the conversion perfectly.

The Huskers came back and moved to the Gophers' 25-yard line with a 35-yard heave from Wiegand to Alex Cochrane eating up the most yardage. But Beson intercepted Wiegand's next flip and started the Minnesota jaugernaut on another touchdown rampage. Don Johnson, 200-pound fullback, capped the 80-yard drive with a one-foot smash for the final tally. Bailey's kick was true again.

Myers' Punting Strong

Jim "Squat" Myers put a sparkle of courage in the Husker camp with his booming kicks. The little Husker back directed a 40-yard boot out of bounds on the Minnesota four and added a 55-yard quick kick while averaging 47 yards.

Damkroger's strong defensive play at end was also impressive for the Huskers. Game Captain Fred Lorenz turned in a strong performance at his guard post. Big Tom (Train Wreck) Novak rocked Gopher ball carriers with his vicious tackling to stand out defensively.

Halfback Bill Mueller's fight and drive marked him with Wiegand as one of the Huskers' top backfield performers.

Beta Sigs Cop 7-0 IM Thriller

Striking in the last 10 seconds, Beta Sigma Psi eked out a 7-0 win over the Cornhusker Co-op crew in one of two intramural contests played Friday afternoon.

The Beta Sigs, after squelching a late Co-op thrust, went to the air lanes with Merle Reilly pitching. Reilly hit Bob Bull with a long pass that carried to the 15-yard line with only 49 seconds remaining.

The same combination missed on another attempted, but clicked on a third heave to the two-yard line. With less than 10 seconds left, Reilly hit Norbert Teiman in the end zone for the game-winning tally. Orv Schmieding ran the extra point over.

In the other Friday test, YMCA scored early in the first half and portected its 6-point lead to cop a 6-0 decision from a scrappy Huskerville gang.

A 35-yard aerial flop from Duane Parker to Ralph Kellog accounted for the game's only score.

The Presbyterian House team won a 2-0 forfeit decision when a complete Melting Pot team failed to appear.
