

Huskers Skirmish Nubbins Prepping for Iowa State

Nebraska's Cornhuskers, prepping for their initial Big Six test Saturday against the Iowa State Cyclones, got their first taste of contact work this week with Ray DeBolt's Nubbins Tuesday night.

Headmaster Bernie Masterson used three combinations in running plays against the rough Nubbins' defense on Memorial stadium's practice turf.

With only three men sidelined by injuries, the Huskers appear to be set for their first battle for loop honors. Big Ralph Damkroger, hobbling with a sprained ankle, was in uniform but stayed out of the contact work. Gene Sim, who also came out of the Minnesota game with a damaged ankle, remained on the sidelines through the B team scrimmage.

Fischer Watches. Cletus Fischer, out of the Gopher battle because of a sore thigh, continued to watch the varsity work. But all three will be ready for the Cyclones Saturday.

Masterson's juggled lineup Tuesday night saw Bill Moomey teaming with Dick Hutton at the halfbacks, Dale Adams running at full, and little Del Wiegand guiding the "T."

The first unit line was composed of Jack Pesek and Don Sailors at the wings, Harold Becker and Charlie Toogood at the tackle posts, Gene Wilkins and Fred Lorenz at the guard spots and Tom Novak at center.

Alex Cochrane and Otto Copenhagen, called up from the Nubbins Monday night, held down the end positions on the second team lineup; Big Carl Samuelson, shifted from his left end spot to a right tackle post, was running with Edgar Thompson, Rex Hoy and Johnny Sedlacek held the guard posts, and Bob Costello was at center.

Thompson Ready. Dick Thompson, ready for action after being hobbled with a bad knee, directed the number two unit from his quarterback spot, Junior Collopy and Bill Meuller ran from the halfback positions and Darwin Salestrom held the fullback spot.

Jim Myers, Bob Ackerman and Kenny Fischer alternated with a third unit at the halfbacks, Bob Riedy and George Bostwick switched at fullback and Joe Partington handled the quarterback assignment.

A lengthy passing drill and play review session rounded out the Huskers practice routine Tuesday.

Five Veterans Grace Miller's UN Gymnasts

Five returning lettermen will grace Coach Charlie Miller's crew of Scarlet gymnasts this season as the musclemen enter their second year of competition after revival of the sport here last year.

Individual conditioning has started in the UN gym as Coach Miller's men try to round into shape for an earlier and heavier schedule than last year. The official schedule has not been released.

Phil Sprague, letter winner and high point man from the 1946 squad, will be back to spark the team again this year. Sprague will enter tumbling, trampoline, side horse, flying rings and parallel bars.

Leo Geier, returning letterman who was another mainstay on the squad last year, will be back to work the side horse, flying rings and parallel bar events this season.

Veterans Return. Top man on the horizontal bar this year will be Clarence Lefler, returning letterman who showed remarkable progress in this event last season.

Gene Sundeen and Kenneth Harding are the other returning letter winners who are expected to give the Scarlet men strong support again this year.

Coach Miller is mourning the loss of one of his top gymnasts, Nickie Kallos, who took top spots on the parallel bars and flying rings on last year's squad, is enrolled in Hastings college.

Men returning this year who competed with the team last year but who did not letter are Sophomore Mel James, Juniors Wilson Lockett and Bill Rankin.

New Men Report. New men trying out so far this year will be Charles Purdy, senior; Dean Lowell, sophomore; Allen Heikes, sophomore; Lloyd

IM Squads Stage Bitter Grid Battles

Four bitterly contested intramural football games were played on the Coliseum grounds Tuesday night as all teams began to hit their mid-season peak. Delta Tau Delta showed the strongest offense with Jim Sharp pitching his mates to a four touchdowns and a 27-0 win over a hard fighting but outclassed Pioneer Co-Op team.

The Delts showed plenty of speed in all departments coupled with some classy blocking when it was needed.

In a little closer contest Phi Kappa Psi shook loose from a strong Brown Palace outfit to come out on top 13-0.

With Tom Donahoe passing to Whenne and Neidfelt for touchdowns the Sigma Chi men took a 13-7 verdict from a scrappy Kappa Sig team. Kappa Sigma escaped shut out by scoring on the last play of the game on a two yard pass play.

Delta Upsilon kept her slate clean by pulling out a 16-2 victory over Theta Xi. The DUs were held to even terms until midway in the second half before they could score a touchdown.

"They weep no more at PRINCETON"

Is Old Nassau making a gridiron comeback? If so, it's all due to Charlie Caldwell, the coach who engineered the most hair-raising form reversal of 1946. His 17-14 victory over Penn last fall restored the Tigers to respectability in Eastern football society. Known for trying the unorthodox, he has parlayed the power of prayer into the greatest revival of football enthusiasm ever seen at Princeton since the game was invented there in 1869. Don't miss the exciting article, "They Weep No More at Princeton." in this week's Post...
