

Huskers Get Light Drills Prepping I.S.

Coach Bernie Masterson's mid-week practice routine was whittled down to light contact work only Wednesday night as the Huskers prepped for their initial Big Six battle Saturday with Iowa State.

The Husker crew switched to the Frosh practice fields on the Coliseum layout when afternoon rains formed them to abandon the regular varsity practice confines in Memorial Stadium.

Checking against further practice injuries, Masterson had his Scarlet charges running plays against dummies and had his backs brushing up on pass defense against light contact.

The Nebraska coaching ranks dipped into the Nubbins lineup again Wednesday to reinforce the tackle positions. Edgar Thompson missed practice because of the flu. His absence made it necessary to call up Fred Golan from the "B" unit.

See Cyclone Formations

Line Coach Tony Blazine and Backfield Coach Dougal Russell worked with one group of varsity members against a Nubbins eleven running plays from Iowa State formations.

With due respect for the throwing arm of Ron Norman, second to KU's Ray Evans in passing last year, the Husker mentors stressed a tighter aerial defense.

Meanwhile Masterson sent another group through Husker formations off the "T" in an effort to improve the Scarlet's ground attack.

End Ralph Damkroger and Tackle Gene Sim, who came up with ankle injuries in the Minnesota test, worked out without pads, but are being counted on for service against Abe Stuber's Cyclones Saturday.

Fischer May See Duty
Although Cletus Fischer continued to watch drills, the former St. Edward six-man flash should see duty at Ames.

Masterson continued to work Bill Moomey and Dick Hutton at the halfback spots on a number one unit with Dale Adams at full and Del Wiegand at quarter.

Damkroger and Pack Pesek held the end posts, Harold Becker

Cross-Country Turkey Race Next IM Event

The next big event on the intramural agenda is the annual cross-country Turkey Race which will be held Thursday, October 23.

Starting at 4:30 p. m. in front of the east stadium, the gruelling 7/8 mile grind winds its way through the campus and finishes in the chute on the athletic field.

All men entering the race must have numbers pinned on their front or they will be barred. The contestants also furnish their own clothes.

Every university student may enter this except track lettermen and those now on Coach Ed Weir's two-mile squad.

Call For Numbers.

Every intramural manager must call for all numbers on Wednesday, October 22, at Room 207 in the Coliseum.

To the winning group goes a championship trophy and the individual winner will receive an intramural medal and a turkey. The second man receives a goose; the third, a duck; the fourth and fifth man each receive a chicken. The last man that finishes receives an egg.

Last year's winner was Don Thiel whose winning time was 5 minutes, 2 and 5/10 seconds. Delta Upsilon copped the team trophy.

and Charlie Toogood drilled at tackles, Fred Lorenz and Gene Wilkins worked at the guard positions while Tom Novak was at center.

Bob Costello replaced Wiegand in the first team backfield on defense.

Carl Samuelson, shifted from his wing spot to right tackle, continued to work with a second team line. Another shift to the tackle spot saw Charlie Duda, veteran guard, move out. Duda missed both opening tests because of a fractured wrist.

Need Five Teams Duck Pin League

Intramural Athletic Director L. E. Means, announced Wednesday that there is room for five more teams in the Duck Pin Bowling League now being formed. Competition is open to any group of five or more men on the campus.

League games will begin in about two weeks at the Duck Pin alleys at 1117 P Street, Lincoln. Entries should be made at once at 207 Coliseum, extension 21. Independent, fraternity, or any other group may enter the competition which will continue once each week thruout most of the winter months.

In addition to the Duck Pin Bowling league, several other leagues will begin soon. The first to get under way will be the faculty inter-departmental league which closes entries in one week. Others are the inter-college and inter-departmental student leagues, the inter-fraternity leagues, and the independent leagues. Play in most of these is slated for about Nov. 1.

Intramural Grid Battles Postponed

The Intramural football league had a day of rest Wednesday.

Afternoon rains forced postponement of the single contest scheduled at Ag campus while Coach Bernie Masterson's Huskers moved in on the Coliseum fields to force rescheduling of the four tilts that were to be played there.

All Wednesday night games will be played at a later date.
