

Klein's Frosh Test Varsity Ground Game

It was a double duty drill for the Nebraska varsity crew Tuesday night.

Coach Bernie Masterson gave his Huskers an opportunity to brush up on their offense against L. F. "Pop" Klein's freshmen on the varsity greensward while Assistant coaches Doug Russel and Tony Blazine worked alternate units on defense against the Nubbins on the varsity practice turf.

Little Del Wiegand drew the main quarterbacking assignment with some relief from Joe Partington. Cletus Fischer, returning to his first team halfback spot, flashed signs of his old running form as he repeatedly romped through the Frosh defense.

Bill Mueller, Jim Myers and Bob Ackerman also reeled off long gains with hard running against the persistent and scrappy freshmen.

Toogood Nurses Cut Lip

The Huskers are returning to full physical strength. Charlie Toogood was the only regular varsity lineman out of the Frosh skirmish. He is nursing a badly cut lip, but will be ready for Saturday's battle with the Fighting Irish.

Masterson grouped Jack Pesek and Ralph Damkroger at the ends, Carl Samuelson and Fred Golan at the tackles and Fred Lorenz and Gene Wilkins at the guards with Captain Tom Novak at the pivot spot with the No. 1 line. Dick Hutton and Dale Adams teamed with Fischer and Wiegand in the backfield.

SCATBACK RETURNS—Cletus Fischer, speedy broken field runner, rejoined the Huskers' first eleven Tuesday night after a two week session on the sidelines with a pulled leg muscle. The St. Edward flash showed signs of his old form in romping through Pop Klein's freshmen gridders. Fischer will be in the starting lineup for the Notre Dame fracas.

Junior Collopy, Jim Riedy and Kenny Fischer ran with Partington as a reserve backfield unit with the first team line.

While Masterson worked to improve the Husker running attack for the Notre Dame battle, Russel and Blazine continued to polish Nebraska's defense against the Johnny Lujack guided "T" formation of Coach Frank Leahy's Irish.

75 Candidates Launch Official Cage Workouts

Head Basketball Coach Harry Good announced Tuesday that official cage workouts will start Wednesday. Varsity, B team, and freshmen candidates will report for the daily supervised practices.

Approximately 75 men have been conditioning the past few weeks for the coming season. Major lettermen who have been working out are: Joe Brown, Nashville, Tenn.; Bob Cerv, Weston; Rod Cox, Lincoln; Claude Retherford, French Lick Springs, Ind.; Dick Schleiger, Omaha, and Paul Shields, Monrovia, Ind.

Minor award winners back this year include Kenneth Anderson, Creston, Ia.; Anton Lawry, Omaha, and Dick Srb, Lincoln. Neal Mosser from Hebron and Jim Sandstedt from Omaha, both out with pre-season injuries a year ago, will be counted on to strengthen the ball club.

Splash Party

A regular co-recreational splash party will be held in the University of Nebraska swimming pool Wednesday night at 8:30. All persons attending must have a swimming permit and must furnish their own suits. Hollie Lepley, UN swim coach will be in charge.

for varsity berths include Bob Allen, Lincoln; Don Bauer, Goehner; Doyle Buskohl, Norfolk; Bill Denker, Elkhorn; Fritz Simpson, Atlantic, Ia.; Tom Milliken, Fremont; Bill Saler, Greensburg, Ind.; Jim Van Burgh, Minneapolis, Minn.; Melvin Williams, Lead, S. D., and Thurman Wright, Richmond, Ind.

Since the pre-war freshman rule goes into effect this season, there will be three separate squads. Tony Sharp and John Thompson will assist Good with the coaching duties.

First game on the 1947-48 Husker slate is with Purdue, Dec. 8, on the coliseum maples.

ATO Stymies Late DU Bid

Alpha Tau Omega Tuesday turned back a spirited Delta Upsilon drive in the last few seconds of play to win one of the most closely contested IM football games this season.

The ATO men looked like sure winners with three minutes to go, holding a 7-0 advantage on a TD pass from Don Gallop to Tommy Harman. Then the DU boys came to life and by virtue of a pass interception and a series of quick pass plays by Jack Cottingham crossed the ATO goal line. The try for point fizzled.

Beta Sigma Psi struck through the air twice to defeat Pioneer Co-Op 13-0 in a otherwise tightly played ball game. Sigma Phi Epsilon dropped a close 7-2 game to Theta Xi in the only other fraternity game. The Theta Xi counter came on a pass from Sullivan to Johnson. In another IM game the Newman club took a tight 1-0 overtime decision from Melting Pot.
