

38 Player Squad Named Irish Trip

Nebraska's Scarlet and Cream received a lighter menu Wednesday night in preparation for the battle of the week with Notre Dame's mighty Irish Saturday at South Bend.

Coach Bernie Masterson named a 38-player squad to make the jaunt to the home of the nation's No. 2 gridiron machine. The traveling squad will leave Thursday night at 7:30 following a final workout on the local practice confines Thursday afternoon.

Wednesday's light but lengthy drills consisted chiefly of defensive work against Notre Dame formations and a brush up on the Husker passing attack.

Nubbins Furnish Offense

Ray DeBolt's Nubbins reported on the hill to run the Notre Dame "T" against the varsity defenders.

Masterson juggled his varsity combinations somewhat through the evening's session while whipping the Scarlet through an earnest play review session.

Spirit was high in the Husker camp as they moved through the final prepping stages for the test against Coach Frank Leahy's highly rated Fighting Irish.

With the services of two all-American performers in the persons of Johnny Lujack, "T" quarterback deluxe, and Tackle George Connor, Irish captain, Notre Dame has been rated a 39 point pregame favorite.

Alone I. S. Performance

Leahy's Irish will be out to regain its perch atop the nation's grid leaders while Masterson's Huskers will be out to atone for a feeble performance last week against a keyed Iowa State eleven.

The following 38 Huskers will entrain for South Bend Thursday night: Bob Ackerman, Dale Adams, George Bostwick, Junior Collopy, Kenny Fischer, Cletus Fischer, Dick Hutton, Bill Moomery, Bill Mueller, Jim Myers, Joe

J. Sharp Paces Delts to 20-0 IM Grid Win

One-sided victories featured the IM football tilts at the Coliseum grounds Wednesday evening.

Delta Tau Delta, sparked by the passing of Jim Sharp, romped to a 20-0 win over Phi Delta Theta. Sharp was the whole show as he pitched two aeriels to Breetzke for tallies and one to Van Norman for the final TD. He hit Stroh and Wiemer for the extra points. All three scores came in the wild first half.

Alpha Tau Omega breezed by Zeta Beta Tau, 26-0. Don Gallop's passing figured in all the scoring as he combined with Bick for two TD's and flipped to Locke for another. Ross and Locke grabbed two Gallop pitches for the extra points and a Bick-to-Harman pass completed the ATO's scoring.

SAE In 30-0 Rout.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon completed the day's heavy scoring by plastering the Sigma Alpha Mu aggregation, 30-0. Dick Saladen sparked the winner's attack, hurling touchdown passes to Swanson and McArthur twice each. A Carl Dilldine-to-Nordeen aerial was Partington, Bob Riedy, Darwin Salestrom, Dick Thompson, Del Wiegand and Phil Young, backs.

Linemen include: Gene Wilkins, Captain Tom Novak, Charlie Toogood, Carl Samuelson, Edgar Thompson, Harold Becker, Alex Cochrane, Bob Costello, Ralph Damkroger, Dugie Doyle, Charlie Duda, Fred Golan, Rex Hoy, Gerald Jacupke, Fred Lorenz and Ardie Means.

IRISH LEADER—Johnny Lujack, All-American "T" director, will guide the Notre Dame Irish against Coach Bernie Masterson's Cornhuskers Saturday at South Bend. The accurate pitching arm of the flashy quarterback is expected to give the Huskers a long afternoon against the nation's leading grid eleven.

good for the final six points. In the final game, Beta Sigma Psi edged Brown Palace, 6-0. Wolfert's runback of an intercepted pass proved the winning marker.

Delta Phi Delta

Delta Phi Delta, law fraternity, will meet Thursday, Oct. 16. Dr. H. G. Schrickel, visiting lecturer in psychology, will speak.

Frosh Gridders Please Pop Klein

Daily workouts for the Scarlet Freshmen grid hopefuls have produced a wealth of prospective Husker talent.

Coach Pop Klein in whittling the Frosh roster down to a workable unit has uncovered a pair of promising backs in the persons of Harold Wolf, Pender, and Don Schneider, Norton, Kas.

Although he has not named definite units as yet, Klein has had two prospective backfield lineups working against the varsity and against Ray DeBolt's Nubbins.

Frank Meyer, Lincoln, has been quarterbacking a first team unit with Gerald Ferguson, Scottsbluff, and Kirk Lee, Fremont at the halfbacks and Walt Spellman, Creighton Prp, at fullback.

Gene Kirkendall, Lincoln, at quarterback, Don Bloom, Los Angeles, and Wolf at the halves and Schneider at fullback, comprise a second backfield quartet.

The outstanding line play of Ralph Weddle, All-State end from Nebraska City, and Laverne Busch of Boys Town has been pleasing to Klein.
