

KU-Sooner Battle Key Loop Fray

The Big Six pigskin parade marches on this week-end with two teams playing intersectional foes and the other four elevens clashing in loop games.

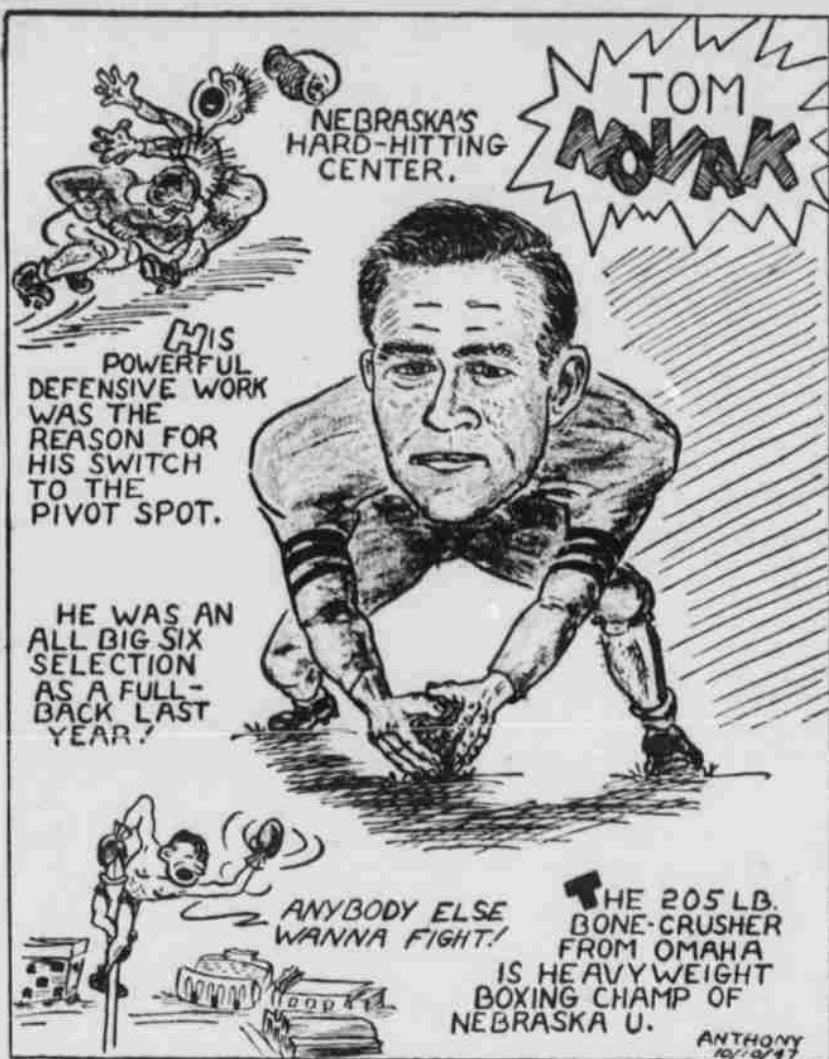

A crowd of more than 30,000 will watch the defending co-champions, Oklahoma and Kansas, battle on the Sooner gridiron in the "crucial" loop tilt. Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson has announced that Fullback Eddy Davis, 1946 star, has been moved to the first string. The Jayhawks plan to throw an aerial attack at the Sooners, with Ray Evans and T. A. Scott doing the passing. This game has been tabbed the 1947 conference play off.

In the Cornhusker camp, Coach Bernie Masterson has been readying his boys for their contest with the mighty Irish of Notre Dame at South Bend. Tom Novak, center from Omaha, will captain the Huskers.

Cyclones Underdogs

The Iowa State Cyclones have been preparing for the Michigan State game at East Lansing Saturday. Guard Bill Meyer and End Harold Shugart will be out of the Cyclone lineup; Meyer with a cold and Shugart with a shoulder injury. Coach Biggy Munn's Spartans will assume the role of favorite with a season's record of two wins and one defeat.

The University of Missouri Tigers, conference dark horse, and winless Kansas State will open their loop slates in a game at Columbia Saturday. Rated a second division team by the coaches in August, Coach Don Faurot's Tigers have shown a fine offense and may yet figure prominently in the Big Six pay-off. The Wildcats, who have lost their last 20 games, should give Missouri little trouble, but they are developing a scoring attack that may make the game interesting.

Sigma Nu Hits Phi Kappa Psi By 19-0 Tally

Sigma Nu ripped through a weaker Phi Kappa Psi line to take a 19-0 IM gridiron decision Thursday afternoon.

Walt Samuelson opened scoring in the first quarter, taking a pass from Don Grant. Sig Nu completed another pass for the extra point.

Grant pitched touchdown No. 2 to Don Shepard in the end zone.

Phi Kappa Psi started a determined drive in the final half but a pass interception by Sigma Nu on their own 10-yard marker ended any possible threat.

Don Waite's touchdown in the last minutes of play clinched the game.

Brown Palace fell before a tough Cornhusker team, 30-0. Melvin James was the spark-plug as he passed for all six of his team's touchdowns.

Field House outplayed Melting Pot in the last half to win by a 7-0 score. Don Claussen passed to Bob Cerv for the T.D.

YMCA edged Presbyterian House, 1-0, in an overtime struggle.

At Ag campus the Farm House crew dropped a 7-6 overtime decision to Kappa Sigma.

Thursday's Scores

Kappa Sigma 7, Farm House 6.
Sigma Nu 19, Phi Kappa Psi 0.
Cornhusker 30, Brown Palace 0.
Field House 7, Melting Pot 0.
YMCA 1, Presbyterian House 0.

Phi Delts Take 2nd Round Match

Phi Delta Theta took a second round intramural table tennis match from Sigma Alpha Mu Thursday afternoon, winning 3-2.

Jack Cady, Dick Hahn and Tom Shea paddled their way to victory over Al Lagman, Forest Mozzer and Herb Denenberg. Milton Trilinsky and Irving Veitzer, SAM, defeated Tom Bromly and Jim Lyle of the Phi Delts.
