

Husker Squad Departs For Kansas State Tilt

Nebraska's Fighting Huskers will seek to turn in a repeat performance of last Saturday's inspired play against touted Notre Dame when they collide with the hapless Kansas State Wildcats.

Coach Bernie Masterson's 35-man squad will depart for the K-State stronghold Friday morning at 10:00. A short workout is scheduled for Friday afternoon.

The Huskers will be favored to hand the Wildcats their 22nd consecutive defeat before a record homecoming crowd of 18,000 to 20,000.

But Nebraska holds a high respect and a slight fear of the passing ability of Quarterback Bill Church, a native Nebraskan. The former Fairbury star has completed 21 flips for 315 yards to date.

The Scarlet coaching staff has been polishing the Huskers' aerial defense and has been sharpening an air offense which has been inept in the past two tests.

The Husker squad is at near peak strength with only End Don Sailors and Quarterback Dick Thompson on the ailing list.

This will be the second loop contest for both elevens and the Nebraska All-America coached K-State crew will be out to avenge last week's humiliating 47-7 loss to Missouri.

All-Big Six Tackle Carl Samuelson will captain Nebraska Saturday afternoon.

Probable starting lineups:

Nebraska	Kansas State
Dankroger	Branch
Toogood	Heath
Wilkins	Berry
Novak	Conley
Lorenz	Schirmer
Samuelson (QC)	Dawson
Perck	Prather
Wiegand	Curry
Mueller	Merriman
Fischer	Bryan
Adams	Stehley

Pair Loop Tilts Highlight Card

Two loop games will feature the Big Six grid card this weekend as Nebraska meets Kansas State and Missouri tangles with Iowa State. Oklahoma will test Texas Christian while Kansas enjoys an open date.

At Manhattan Coach Bernie Masterson's fighting Cornhuskers will try to spoil Coach Sam Francis' homecoming plans. The K-State Wildcats take the underdog role in the second conference game for both clubs. Nebraska dropped Iowa State 14-7 while the Wildcats lost to Missouri 47-7.

The University of Missouri Tigers will be favored by two touchdowns when they tangle with the Iowa State Cyclones at Ames Saturday. The tussle will mark the first meeting of Missouri Mentor Don Faurot and Iowa State's Abe Stuber as rival Big Six football coaches. The two were backfield teammates at Missouri in 1925.

Coach Bud Wilkinson worked his Oklahoma Sooners on pass defense in preparation for Saturday's battle with Texas Christian at Norman. Eddy Davis, first team Sooner fullback, who suffered a badly cut nose against Kansas last week, will be sidelined for the game. Merle Greathouse will take over the fullback slot. Wilkinson named Tackles Homer Paine and Bill Morris to co-captain the Oklahomans. Texas Christian is expected to launch a tricky aerial attack against the Sooners.

LISTEN TONIGHT!

Spotlight Revue
SPIKE JONES
 his CITY SLICKERS and
DOROTHY SHAY

GUEST STAR

TEX WILLIAMS

CBS Network every Friday

KFAB 9:30 P.M.

© 1947, The Coca-Cola Company

POSTPONE TURKEY RACE.

Thursday rains forced postponement of the annual intramural cross country turkey race. The long distance event will be run Wednesday, Oct. 29, at 4:30.

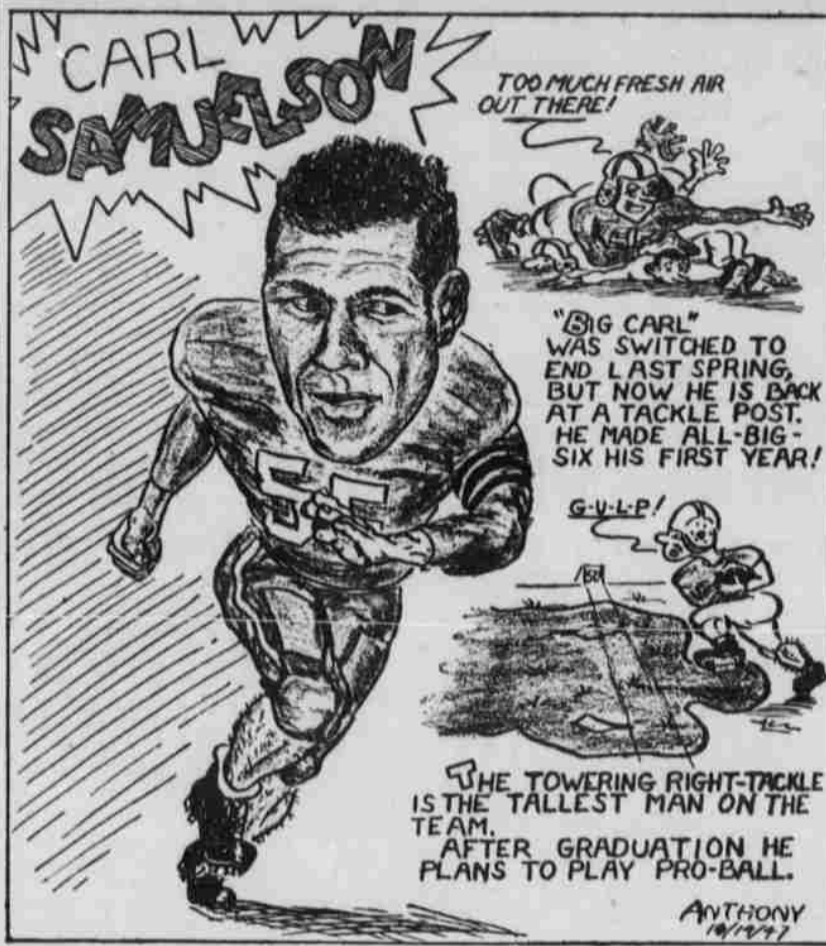

IM Grid Playoffs Scheduled Monday

With the regular season coming to a jumbled close, playoffs in the intramural gridiron race will begin Monday afternoon.

Several ties have forced playoffs before the playoffs.

In League II three clubs ended deadlocked for second place honors. Sigma Chi will play Kappa Sigma Friday afternoon with the winner to tangle with Phi Gamma to determine a playoff berth.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Delta Upsilon will battle Friday to break a second place deadlock in League I. Delta Tau Delta deadlocked for first and second will flip a coin to determine the order Delta in a single elimination meet of finish in the League II race.

CLASSIFIED

LOST—Blue Esterbrook pen, in or near Andrews Hall. Call 2-4869.

WANTED—Passengers to Kansas State game Saturday. Bill Starks, 2-4709.

LOST—Blue pencil belonging to a Parker "51" set. Has name of owner on it. Reward. Phone 5-8745.

FOR SALE—Kensington double breasted tux. Size 36. Like new. Max Hayward, 3048 R. 5-9319.

FOR SALE—Double decker bunk beds. Wood with springs and mattresses. $25.00. Call 5-4991.

BALLROOM dancing. Studio 2705 Royal Court. Nellie Speidell. Telephone 3-5480.

SPEED Graphic flash photography for parties, informal groups, student activities. Phone Greger, 3-4888.

Nebraska 'B' Gets Initial Gridiron Test

The Nebraska Nubbins will leave at noon Friday for their engagement against the highly touted Ft. Riley Cantours at Ft. Riley Friday night under the arc lights. The Husker B outfit will be out to protect perfect record produced last year which shows a string of four wins and one tie.

Coach Ray DeBolt continued to use the same first string through the week which included Harry Fox and Sophus Larsen at ends, Oscar Mussman and Bob Harrington at guards, William Kimball and Ken Ackerman at tackle, Hubert Unger at center, Rus Hale calling the signals, Harry Meginnis and Ben Munson at the halves and Dean Demoude at fullback.

Pair Tilts Scheduled

This is the first of two games scheduled this year for the Nubbins. The other contest will be played at Memorial Stadium against Ft. Riley November 15.

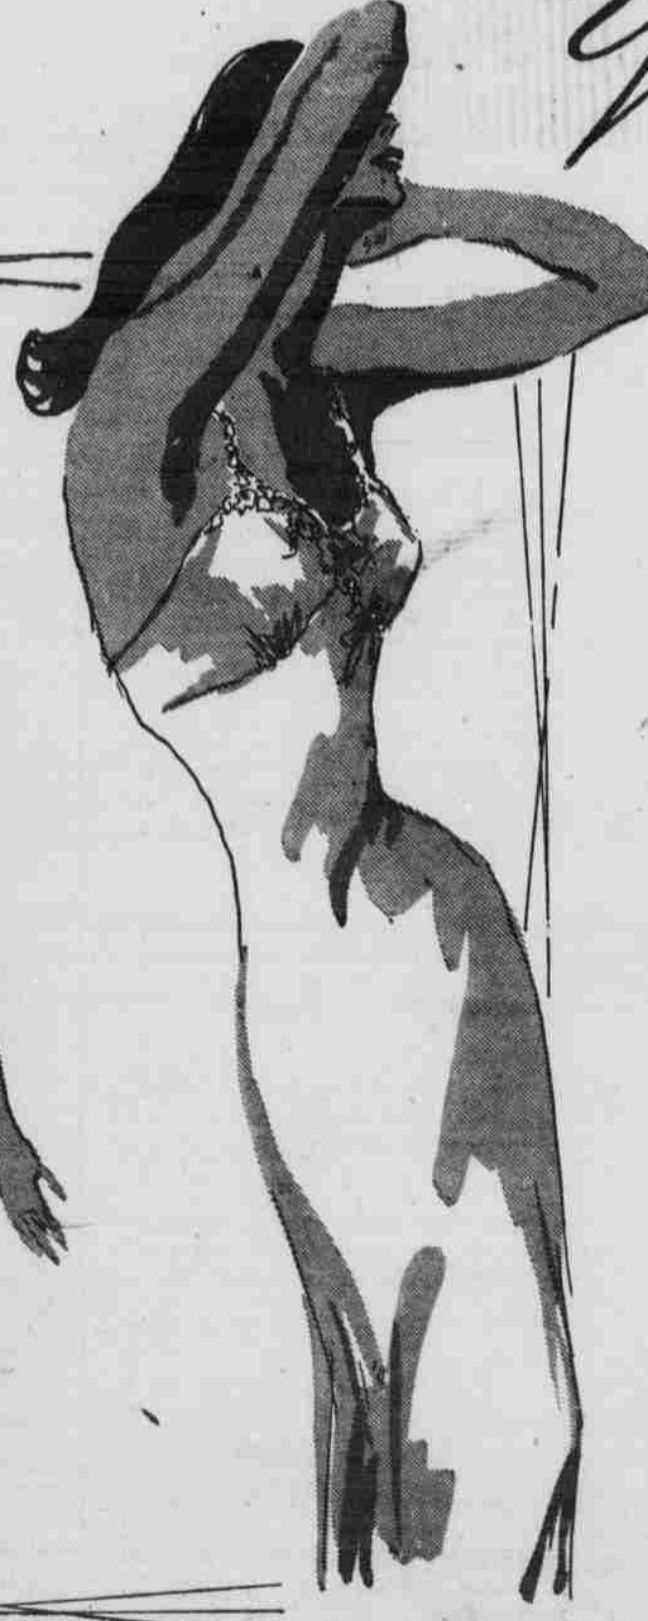

Others listed on the traveling squad:

Roy Churchill, Erwin Devish, Howard Doerr, Robert Farner, Don Finstrom, John Fox, Fred Hawkins, Lloyd Hermansen, Harry Johnson, Lou Kempkes, Bill Kane, Ed Lumomech, Ray Magansen, Jim Peters, Church Peterson, Harlan Powley, John Pegg, Bob Scoville, John Summers, Edgar Steele, Bruce Villars, Dee Villards.

STUDENTS from Omaha, leave Friday at five. Return Monday morning. Call O'Dea 3-9527. Chrysler, New Yorker.

MALE university student interested in single basement room. Cooking privileges. See E. R. DALEY, 1517 No. 33rd.

Yolande

Exquisite Hand Made Slips and Gowns

You'll "oh" and "ah" when you see the beautiful detailing . . . the dainty feminine touches on these rayon crepe and satin slips and gowns. Delicate scrolls and "filagree" work, lace, embroidery. Cloud pink and angle white in sizes 32 to 38.

SLIPS 5.95, 7.50, 8.95

GOWNS 8.95, 14.95

Miller's Lingerie... Third Floor

MILLER & PAINE