

The Daily Nebraskan

Member

Intercollegiate Press

FORTY-SIXTH YEAR

Subscription rates are $1.50 per semester, $2.00 per semester mailed, or $3.00 for the college year, $3.00 mailed. Single copy 5c. Published daily during the school year except Mondays and Saturdays, vacations and examination periods, by the University of Nebraska under the supervision of the Publication Board. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office in Lincoln, Nebraska, under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized September 30, 1922.

The Daily Nebraskan is published by the students of the University of Nebraska as an expression of student news and opinions only. According to article II of the By Laws governing student publications and administered by the Board of Publications: "It is the declared policy of the Board that publications under its jurisdiction shall be free from editorial censorship on the part of the Board, or on the part of any member of the faculty of the university; but members of the staff of The Daily Nebraskan are personally responsible for what they say or do or cause to be printed."

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor	.....	Duke Novotny
Managing Editors	.....	Jack Hill, George Miller
News Editors	.....	Jeanne Kerrigan, Norris Leger, Wally Becker, Cub Clem, Tottie Fiddock
Sports Editor	.....	Ralph Stewart
Ag News Editor	.....	Keith Frederickson
Special Feature Editor	.....	Sam Warren
Society Editor	.....	Charles Hemmingson
Business Manager	.....	Gould Flagg
Circulation Manager	.....	Jack Selzer
Assistant Business Managers	.....	Bill Wilkins, Merle Stadler, Irwin Chesen

To the Big Bad Wolves...

What an education is offered to one in a barber chair, particularly during football season. Jack Pesek's punt average is a mere drop in the bucket compared to the kicking that was taking place in one of the local tonsorial parlors yesterday a. m. Or, to quote the Lincoln and Omaha sports pages, "the wolves were howling!" but loud.

Just who these oft mentioned wolves are remains a mystery. The only ones "ye olde editor" has seen to date sported plenty of mid-riff paunch and looked as if the closest they ever came to a football was straining to get a pair of pigskin gloves on. In other words the only growling they could successfully muster would be the result of middle age gastric disturbances.

Recently one of the "non-wolfish" Alums, who has stuck by the Cornhusker team, and its coaches, through thick and thin, made a statement that more or less clarifies the character of those on the other side of the fence. He said and I quote, "good alumni are created while they are still members of the student body." Well, boys, that kind of tags you and your activities during undergraduate days. Frankly, it's a wonder you even attended games 'way back when' if your actions now mirror your "whole-hearted" support as a student.

The local sports editors may be getting gray headed with worry over your antics, but no one else is. The student body isn't impressed and won't be until you clean up your own house and brother it's in mighty sad shape. Consequently, a closing suggestion.

It's getting pretty cold for wolves with winter coming on, so why don't you just go into hibernation and forget about the great outdoors. Leave the team, the coaches, and the student body alone. We'd all be better off without YOUR kind of support.

Wanted: One Divorce...

We want a divorce !!!

Not the marital kind with broken hearts and buckets of crocodile tears, just a nice, peaceful, painless one. In fact, this divorce concerns only a few people of the Band.

This divorce would be short, sweet and definitely helpful. The party of the first part (the editor) asks the party of the second part (Mr. Lentz) to grant to the "Pep Band" a divorce from the band during "playball" time at the rest of the football games.

While we were impressed by the Band's performance at Mizzou last week we were equally unimpressed by the silence of the group while the game was going on, the same silence that was magnified by the students in the stands.

Remembering the shaking chandeliers in the Union last Thursday eve when only a score of musicians tooted, tweeted and rumbled an abundance of Scarlet and Cream spirit into the assemblage, the silence at Columbia was, oh so sad. Especially when you know the spirit's there.

How about it Mr. Lentz? Let that spirit move you, friend, and help give Husker side-line cheering a boost!

Decree that divorce and let the "hoot n' toots" sit on the side and assist the cheerleaders in removing the mythical "quiet please" and "do not disturb" signs from the cheering section. They could still perform at half-time and the results of musical support to a cheering section would be as apparent as that of "the other side" at Columbia.

Letterip

The Editor
The Daily Nebraskan:

Have we started to forget the war? Have we forgotten Bud and Gus? Don't you remember Hal, Brooks, and Cal? They aren't here to tell us how it felt to be cut to pieces by a German machinegun. That Italian handgrenade went off with a bang, didn't it, Hal? No, they will never come back, but will we forget them?

In his elegant plea for AUF donations, Chancellor Gustavson spoke with horror of the fact that tuberculosis had increased by 25% in Italy and probably a larger percent in Germany. That's tough, isn't it? I imagine that Gus and Bud are sitting up by the pearly gates and are weeping large buckets of tears over the plight of the poor Germans and Italians. Bud will probably dash over to the Heavenly Hock Shop and see if he can get two bits for his Silver Star (the one he got for killing four Germans in hand-to-hand fighting), so he can give to the AUF in order to save the life of some poor German.

We are college students, and we are old enough to know what's going on. Aid to Europe is a good economic and political move, or at least the powers that believe it is. If this aid will keep us from another war, it is well worth it. But, let's forget this talk of the poor starving Germans and Italians. Too many of us were taught that the only good Germans were dead ones, and we still believe it. KILLING GERMAN BY HAND IS A ROUGH PROPOSITION. WHY NOT LET T. B. DO IT?

William H. Dovey.

Everybody's coming—BHRH

"N" Club Meeting

An important meeting of "N" club members will be held Wednesday night at 7:30 in the Coliseum club room. Officers for the coming year will be elected, Jim Brogan, acting secretary, has reported. All members are urged to attend.

CLASSIFIED

LOST—Brown billfold in Social Science Hall. Person was seen picking it up. Return to Nebraskan office. Keep five dollars. No questions asked.

FOR SALE—Martin tenor saxophone, 3 months old. Chick Anderson, 2-7757.

LOST—Parker "51" gray, silver and gold pencil belonging to a set. Call 5-5255. "Betts." Reward.

BALLROOM dancing. Studio 2705 Royal Court. Nellie Speidell. Telephone 3-5480.

LOST—Vicinity of 11th and R. ladies' black leather zipper billfold. Personal contents needed badly. Reward. 4-1812.

FOUND: Brown leather keycase. Owner can have case by paying for ad at Daily Nebraskan.

FOR RENT—Rooms for boys. Best location on campus. 1237 R street.

LOST—One gold Eversharp fountain pen. Stamped with name Lloyd Robertson. Contact Lloyd Robertson, Bldg. 15, Apt. R.S.T. Huskerville or call 6-4852. Reward.

WILLING to sell four good tickets on west side entrance for one on east side to Kansas game. 5-8413.

FOR SALE—Well tailored double breasted Tux, size 38, purchased at Nebraska Clothing. Also 2 Arrow Tux shirts, size 14 1/2. Call 5-8413.

WANTED—Two tickets to Nebr.-Kansas football game this Sat. Call Charles Creamer, 5-7331.

Something to see—BHRH

Russian Violinist To Play in Concert

Russian violinist Tossy Spivakovsky will be presented with the university symphony orchestra in a concert in the Union ballroom November 13 at 8 p.m.

Spivakovsky, this year on his second transcontinental tour, has appeared with 15 major orchestras this season, playing in Chicago Cleveland, Detroit, Toronto and other large cities. He was chosen by Artur Rodzinski, conductor of the New York Philharmonic Symphony orchestra, to play at the premiere of the "Bela Bartok Concerto."

The concert sponsored by the Union Activities Committee is open to the student body. One ticket per student may be obtained by presenting identification cards at the Union office.

FOOTBALL'S DEMON DEACON

Peahead Walker, coach of tiny Wake Forest College, cooked up so many upsets in the Southern Football Conference that he's known as the "Dixie giant killer." Fabulous stories have grown up about him and his winning ways... and what's more, he admits every one is true. For the lowdown read "Football's Demon Deacon"...

WHO WILL MAKE the Coaches' Association 1947 All-American? Watch for this exclusive Post feature.

by Collie Small

THE SATURDAY EVENING
POST
NOVEMBER 8, 1947 10c

Hoagy Carmichael was kicked out of a college quartet because he couldn't sing. He's since hit the top in movies and radio, and he's No. 1 with juke box fans. Read "Star-Dust Troubadour" by Pete Martin.

to warm the hands of autograph fans

"Sock-Em" Mitts

Whee... what an idea... collect your pals "pennings" on these Red or Green auto-graphable sailcloth mitts that are warmly fleece-lined inside.

2.25

accessories on first