

Four Main Events Close Religion In Life Activities

Hartt Will Address Final Convo Wednesday In Temple; Family Life Group To Hold Panel

Four main events, highlighted by the closing convocation Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. in the Temple theater auditorium close the three day period of activity in Religion In Life week. This program included special convocations, discussion groups, special conferences with the leaders, denominational group meetings, faculty luncheons and classroom appointments.

Dr. Julian Hartt, the main speaker of the week who has appeared before student seminars, faculty groups, and on the radio forum, will be the speaker at the 8:00 p.m. convocation.

In the first convocation, Hartt expressed the thought that a great percentage of the confusion of today is caused by a fear of ourselves. "We who are finite cannot comprehend an infinite God and as we are imperfect have great barriers in responding to the perfect love which can be ours."

Dr. Hartt has led the seminar on "Faith and the Individual" and spoke to the "Y" discussion group Tuesday noon.

The Family Life Institute convocation will be held at 2:00 p.m. today in the Student Union ballroom in conjunction with Religion In Life week. The seminar, "Marriage and Happiness," led by Dr. Patton on Monday and Tuesday and by Mrs. Raymond Benson, director of student work in the Nebraska Christian Foundation, have led up to this convocation and the last seminar summarize the afternoon convocation. The "Interfaith Understanding" seminar will be held in room 313 of the Student Union and will be led by Rev. Nichols, Rabbi Kestenbaum and Msgr. Shuster, continuing the practice of having leaders of the three faiths at each meeting.

Dr. Hartt will speak at the faculty luncheon at 12:00 today. The faculty has had the opportunity of hearing some of the speakers at these luncheons. By integrating the faculty into Religion In Life week program it gains greater scope.

Thursday morning the committee will evaluate the weeks program of the year and changes in

Varsity Dairy Holds Annual Honors Fete

The annual Honors Banquet of the Varsity Dairy Club will be held in the Student Union Thursday Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. The dairy products team and the dairy cattle judging team will be recognized at this year's event.

Professor H. P. Davis of the animal husbandry department will serve as toastmaster for the banquet. Speakers for the evening include; Robert Fosslund, coach of the cattle judging team; Robert Koehler, high man in the contest at Waterloo; Professor P. A. Downs, dairy products coach; and Don Christensen high team member at the Miami, Fla. contest.

The speakers will discuss their experiences on judging trips from the coach's angle and the students impression.

Tickets for the banquet may be purchased from any Dairy Club member and are priced at $1.10 per plate.

the next Religion In Life week will be based upon the decisions made at this time.

Dr. Cronback is professor of social sciences at Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, Ohio and not professor of philosophy at Hebrew Seminary as was previously announced in The Daily Nebraskan.

Two Sopranos, Pianist Appear In Recital

Presented in senior recital today at 4:00 p. m. in the Temple Theater will be two sopranos, Jean Lock and Mary Ann Campbell, and pianist, Ruth Norman.

Opening the program with "Care Selve" by Handel, Miss Lock will sing a variety of selections ranging from the lullaby, "O Bimba, Bimbetta," by Sibella, to Mitchell's lovely melody, "Love Is the Wind." Two other numbers by Tyson and Giannini will be included in her program. Miss Lock will be accompanied by Dorothy Taylor.

For her first number, Miss Norman has chosen the Andantino and Scherzo movements of Schumann's "Sonata in g minor." Her next selection, "Prelude," is by the modern Russian composer Prokofieff, and will be followed by Debussy's impressionistic "Gardens in the Rain."

Miss Campbell, accompanied by Dorothy Schneider, will close the program by singing four selections, the first of which is "Wohin" by Schubert. She has also chosen to sing the aria, "Connais-tu le pays," from the opera "Mignon" by the Frenchman, Thomas. Also included in Miss Campbell's program are the two numbers "Secrecy" by Wolf, and "Holiday" by Curran. Miss Aleta Snell will play the violin obligato to one of these numbers.

E. B. BROWN.

Sheridan Whiteside, "The Man Who Came to Dinner" in the Kaufman and Hart comedy of the same name, will be portrayed in the University Theatre's December production by Gaylord Marr, veteran theater player. Playing leading roles with him will be June Gast, Margaret Huff and Paul Harrington. Miss Huff was cast in the role of the affected actress Lorraine after additional tryouts were held Monday to find a suitable person for the part.

Characterizes Woolcott

The Kaufman and Hart play is a stage characterization of theater critic, author and celebrated wit Alexander Woolcott, close friend of the playwright team. Set in the small town of Mesalie, Ohio, the play tells the rollicking story of the confusion and mixups that befall the Stanley family when their noted dinner guest breaks his hip upon leaving their house. Hospitalized for three months in the Stanley home, he invites myriads of his friends and colleagues to visit him there.

In announcing the 21-member cast, Dallas Williams, theater director, remarked that "This play is just plain funny—from beginning to end. The cracks in it are among the best I've ever heard in a play!"

Supporters Listed

Band Contest Will Offer Second Prize

A second prize, consisting of a year's season pass to the Varsity and State theatres, good for two people, has been offered as second prize in the Military Department's "Name the Band Contest."

The pass will be good from Dec. 5, 1947 to Dec. 5, 1948, and will be awarded to the couple whose entry is rated second best.

First prize will give the winning couple a formal from Hovland-Swanson and a tuxedo from Magee's.

Contestants must pick the name of the band from the clues which are given in The Daily Nebraskan during this week, and the dance slogan from the key slogans which will also appear daily.

Today's clue, the third in a series of five, is: A MASTER TRUMPETER, HE HAS BEEN KNOWN TO HOLD A NOTE FOR OVER A MINUTE AND A HALF

Today's key slogan: THE FINES IN MILITARY AFFAIRS.

Bizad Honorary Pledges Fifteen

At a dinner held Monday evening at the Union, fifteen bizad college students were announced as pledges of Delta Sigma Pi, professional commerce fraternity. New pledges are:

Wendal Busboom, Don Carey, Bob Franke, Bill Fuhr, John George, Warren Hinrichs, Eldon Huff, Gordon Humbert, Roger Larson, George Polski, Bill Roberts, John Schaller, Bill Spikes, Bob Stillinger and Dick Windrum.

Mr. Clive Hickenlively, state agent for the New Hampshire group, fire insurance underwriters, addressed the group of faculty and student members and pledges. The subject of his talk was "Insurance: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

Resuming a pre-war practice, the Delta Sigma Pi Scholarship Key will be awarded by the faculty of the bizad college to that male senior who upon graduation ranks highest in scholarship for the entire course in business administration. Affiliation with an organization is not a requirement.

Frahm Will Speak To AmVets Group

AVC Chairman Paul Rogers, Jr., announced today that John E. Frahm of the Lincoln Central Labor Union will be guest speaker at the Thursday meeting of the University chapter of the American Veterans committee.

Mr. Frahm will outline the functions and purposes of the newly created Educational and Non-Partisan Political league of Lincoln.

University veterans are invited to attend the meeting which will be held at 7:15 Thursday evening in the Colonial room of the Lincoln YMCA.

Union Concert Lists Concerto, Modern Music

BY SAM WARREN.

When the Student Union in cooperation with the University Symphony Orchestra brings a guest soloist to the Union ballroom for the second consecutive year Thursday at 8 p. m., students will have an opportunity to hear both a promising artist on the American concert scene and an unusual program of predominantly contemporary music.

Tossy Spivakovsky, Russian-born violinist who in five American concert seasons has established himself as a leading young violinist according to critical reports from the country over, will perform the Mendelssohn violin concerto with the orchestra under the baton of Conductor Emmanuel Wishnow.

Modern Numbers Chosen

As for the remainder of the program, Mr. Wishnow has chosen five selections from the modern repertory ranging from a romantic number for string choir by the Finnish composer Jean Sibelius to an ironic overture by the English composer Arthur Benjamin, who is perhaps best known to concert audiences for his transcriptions for viola of native tunes from Cuba and Jamaica.

Other selections are the subdued, impressionistic "Walk to the Paradise Garden," by another Englishman, Frederick Delius; the Rimsky-Korsakov orchestration of the prelude to the opera, "Khorvanchina" by Modest Moussorgsky; and the "Polka and Fugue" from Weinberger's opera, "Schwanda."

Convo Panel To Discuss Marriage

Dr. Evelyn Duvall, Dr. Henry A. Bowman, and Dr. Reuben Hill will conduct a panel discussion on the subject "To Marry or Not to Marry—While in College" at an university convocation, Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 2 p. m. in the Union ballroom.

Sponsored by the Family Life Institute of Lincoln, the convocation is one of a three-day series. All the guest speakers have done extensive work in the field of marriage and family relations.

After receiving her B. S. degree at Syracuse university and M.S. degree at Vanderbilt university, Dr. Duvall did graduate work at the University of Chicago. She is now the executive secretary of the National Council on Family Relations at Chicago.

Dr. Bowman, professor of sociology at Stephens college, has conferred with hundreds of young people on premarital and marital problems. His book entitled "Marriage for Moderns" will be used as a text for the course on Marriage and Home Relations to be offered at the University of Nebraska next semester, open to men and women students of sophomore standing and above.

An associate professor of sociology at Iowa State College, Dr. Hill is a regional consultant for the American Institute of Family Relations. He and Dr. Duvall recently published the book "When You Marry."

Home Economic Club to Install New Officers

Home Ec club will hold installation of officers at their regular meeting on Thursday night. Everyone is requested to be present at the affair which will be observed with a candlelight service. In the meeting to be held after the installation, members will discuss various workshops offered and choose one for their study.

Also due for discussion will be the annual Ellen H. Richards dinner which will be held next Wednesday, Nov. 21 in the Ag College cafeteria at 6:30. Mrs. Harold Prince has been obtained as speaker for the event and tickets will go on sale this week.

tour when the nazis came to power; Tossy Spivakovsky remained concertizing there and in New Zealand until 1941 when he came to America. An invitation from Artur Rodzinski to give the American premier of the violin concerto of the late Hungarian composer, Bela Bartok, won Spivakovsky wide acclaim since, he has been engaged by 15 of the nation's major symphony orchestras.

Students and faculty members may obtain admission cards from the Union office. According to Duane Lake, Union manager, a sizeable portion of the 800 admission tickets have already been distributed and students are urged to call for their cards immediately.
