

Gamma Delta Convention Scheduled Here Nov. 14

The twelfth national convention of Gamma Delta, a university organization for Lutheran students of the Missouri and affiliated synods, will be held in Lincoln, November 14, 15, 16. The Sigma chapter of the University of Nebraska will act as host with headquarters at Hotel Cornhusker.

Delegates, representing the 64 chapters, will attend from the Universities of Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Alabama, Chicago, Washington, Missouri, Indiana, Colorado, Ohio, Michigan, Northwestern, Tulane, Purdue, and the Chicago Medical Center.

Sigma chapter is sponsored by the Rev. H. Erck, student pastor, at the University of Nebraska since 1924 and dean of the Missouri synod of student pastors.

Highlighting the convention will be the Saturday evening semi-formal banquet at Hotel Cornhusker. Toastmaster will be Theodore Roesler of Lincoln, national 1947 Gamma Delta and past president of Sigma chapter.

Principal speaker will be Frank Mueller, assistant executive secretary of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce. Music will be furnished by a quartette from Council Bluffs.

To insure representation by well informed convention delegates, the National Board of Governors has set up a detailed convention procedure. Each chapter has been solicited for overtures which will be submitted Friday evening to a steering committee, composed of one delegate from each chapter. The formulated resolutions and recommendations are then to be presented to the general convention assembly Saturday morning and each delegate will vote on the items of business.

Presiding at the Saturday business meeting will be national president, Robert Lussy from Illinois, Dean T. J. Thompson of the Nebraska University will give the welcome.
