Gades Name Dunham; Win Band Competition

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Gade were declared first place winners in the Military Ball "Guess The Band Contest" for identifying Sonny Dunham as the band and "Greatest Military Ball of All" as the slogan.

Merle E. Laughlin and Dorothy Estes became second place winners as a result of a drawing held in Dean T. J. Thompson's office Monday. Letters of both couples were postmarked at the same time, so the winners were decided by a drawing, conducted by the Dean of Student Affairs.

A tuxedo from Magee's and a formal from Hovland-Swanson's is first place prize, won by Gail Gade, football letterman in 1946 and varsity lineman again this year until an injury benched him for the season. Laughlin and Estes win a year's pass to the Varsity and State theaters.

Letters from all over the state poured into the ROTC headquarters over the week-end following announcement of the final clue in The Daily Nebraskan last Friday. Bands ranging from Eddy Haddad to Tommy Dorsey were named by contestants, who mailed entries numbering in the hundreds.

Second of Men's Dorms Completed; Accommodates 64

One hundred thirty-two Nebraska students now have rooms in the new men's dormitories.

Saturday morning, 64 students moved into the second of the three new buildings. The first unit was completed early in October and now houses 68 students. In January, the third unit will be completed and will provide rooms for 136 students.

The dormitory is furnished, and students are provided with maid and janitor service. The rental is $65 per semester.

Eventually, the university hopes to build five more dormitories for men. The cost is borne by the University dormitory corporation which retires its bonds by student rentals.

Notice to Veterans

No books or supplies for the current semester will be issued to veterans after Saturday, Dec. 20, 1947. Because of the time involved in gathering together all charges from several stores for such books and supplies, which in turn causes a delay in billing the Veterans Administration and in being reimbursed, the university has found it necessary to establish this deadline.

Veterans who will graduate at the end of the present semester may use their purchase authorizations after Dec. 20 for the rental of caps and gowns for the Commencement exercises, provided such exercises are held.

Veterans in the Graduate college who will receive their degrees at the close of the present semester must file their claims for approved thesis expenses before Jan. 29, 1948.

Debate Teams Win 6; Take High Ratings

Four members of the Varsity debate team entered in the practice debate conference at Karney Nov. 14 and 15 won six out of eight debates, according to an announcement Monday from Donald Olson, debate coach.

One team, consisting of Jackie Wightman and Eloise Paustian, received three excellent and one superior qualifying rating. The other team, Mary Dye and Betty Jeanne Holcomb, received four excellent ratings.

"These are good ratings," Olson state, "considering that this was the year's first conference for the Nebraska team."

Thursday Nov. 20, Ted Sorenson and Jack Solomon will appear in a convocation debate at Doane College in Crete, where they will take the affirmative side of the year's question, "Resolved: That A Federal World Government Be Established."

Coeds to Elect Eight Eligibles For MB Dance

Like Pinocchio who sang, "I've got no strings to hold me down—there are no strings on me!" eight elected university male students who have no strings attached will make a public appearance on the basis of their freedom—and their popularity. They will be the eight Eligible Bachelors who will be presented at the annual Mortar Board Ball to be held Dec. 12.

Any male student considering himself eligible may file as a candidate. Any number of unaffiliated men may file. Filings will be taken at the Union office window until Thursday at 5 p.m. The information candidates must submit includes name, college, year in school, and activities. Candidates will also be expected to have photographs available for the election in which all women students will vote to select the eight Eligible Bachelors. The date of the election will be announced later, according to Joan Ackerman, vice president of Mortar Board.

The Mortar Board ball follows the Military Ball by one week. A

Class Presidents' Election Today

Juniors, Seniors to Vote; Polls Open at 9 in Unions

Four Greek candidates will be voted upon today in the annual fall election of Junior and Senior class presidents. Only one fraternity man and one sorority woman filed for each of the two presidential positions.

Marian "Tootsie" Campen, Gamma Phi Beta, and Glen Blinde, Beta Sigma Psi, will vie for the Senior class top office.

Panhel Week Highlighted By Banquet

Featuring Panhellenic workshop week, which started last Sunday, will be a 6:00 banquet in the Union ballroom Wednesday. Amy B. Onken, national panhellenic head and national president of Pi Beta Phi, will be the principal speaker.

Purpose.

Panhellenic workshop, which is an annual event on this campus is put on to further co-operation and understanding between all sororities. It also gives sorority women a chance to become acquainted with each other and to exchange ideas, according to general chairman, Beverly Beatty.

Besides Miss Onken's talk, the banquet entertainment will include a skit presented by all pledge presidents. There will also be an all-sorority skit under the direction of Kay Ham, Gamma Phi Beta, which will depict school life in the "old days." About 500 are expected to attend the banquet Wednesday.

Activities.

The week's activities, which will end Thursday afternoon, include round table discussions, teas, and open meetings featuring alumni speakers. Different house presidents preside over all meetings. Another feature of the week is an exchange luncheon series in which each sorority sends several girls to another house for noon lunch each day.

Last event of the week will be a tea Thursday afternoon given by the pledge presidents for all unaffiliated women at the Alpha Xi Delta house Thursday afternoon.

Announce Cast For Flick Play

Dave Innis, Mrs. Betty Laird and D. Ann Richardson will portray the respective leading rolls of Mark Hanlin, Jean and Marchia, in the Speech Department's three-act play, "Return to Surigao," to be presented at the Studio Theater, Thursday, Dec. 4, at 7:15 p.m.

In supporting parts, Rex Coslor will portray Emil Fokker, Abe Katz will take the part of Ankeny, Herb Spence will play Guillermo, Jane MacCraig will be Maria, while Gordon Winter will take the part of Collins. Jack Asbyll, Charles Bergoffen, Stephen Hershman, and Russ Druger complete the cast.

Directing "Return to Surigao" is C. E. Flick, who is also the play's author.

Tickets will be on sale at the University Theater box office Dec. 1st to 4th, for 75 cents. A special performance by invitation only will be presented Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 8 p.m.

turnabout affair, coeds make their own dates, buy tickets for the Ball, and foot the bills for the evening.

Candidates for Junior class president are Peggie Lawrie, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Jerry Johnston, Phi Gamma Delta.

The polls will be open from 9 a. m. until 6 p. m. Only Juniors and Seniors will be allowed to take part in the voting. Students on the downtown campus will cast their ballots in the Union basement, and Ag students will vote in the Ag Activities building. To obtain a ballot each student must present his identification card.

Blinde is in the Business Administration college. A former tassel, Miss Campen is in the Arts and Science college. She is one of the six finalists for the title of Honorary Colonel.

The two Junior candidates are both enrolled in Teachers college. A Coed Counselor, Miss Lawrie is treasurer of the All University Fund. Mr. Johnston is a managing editor of The Cornhusker and a member of Delta Phi Delta, art honorary.

Last year's class presidents were Don Chapin, Senior class, and Dake Novotny, Junior class. Last spring they carried out their duties on Ivy Day by planting the young shoots of ivy—a ritual which is a traditional part of the Ivy Day ceremonies.

Award Chicago Trips To Five Ag4-HMembers

Five ag campus students are among the winners of all-expense trips to Chicago for the National 4-H Club Congress which will be held in conjunction with the International Livestock Show, Nov. 20 to Dec. 6.

Students who will attend are: Jean Beck, Carolyn Huston, Jane Hokamp, Dean Eberspacher, and James Harmon. All are in their freshman year.

The trips are awarded in recognition of outstanding accomplishments in club work. Jean Beck and Carolyn Huston are state champions, Carolyn in clothing and Jean for outstanding girls record. Eberspacher will attend in place of Ralph Hild who was swine champion and ineligible to go. Dean was the reserve swine champion.

Miss Hokamp and Harmon are activities winners at the State Fair, Miss Hokamp in dress revue and Harmon in health competition.

State leader, L. I. Frisbie and assistant leaders Allegra Wilkens and Guy Davis accompany the Nebraska delegation of 25 club members to the Chicago meeting.
