Corn Cobs.

Corn Cobs, men's pep organization, recommended the council take action in a resolution adopted at the regular Cob meeting Tuesday.

The text of the Corn Cob resolution is: "Be it resolved that the Corn Cobs re-ganization encourage the University of Ne-braska at the next Big Six Conference to commit itself as opposed to the racial dis-criminatory practices now in effect in the Big Six, and to introduce amendments to the Conference rules so that: "First, each member school of the Big Six shall accept on its home field what-ever players a visiting team shall choose to play, and "Second, that in the event that four out of six, or five out of seven member schools (which ever the number shall be at the next meeting) shall also record themselves as opposed to the racial discrimination in like manner, that then the University of Nebraska withdraw from the Big Six conference."

Tassels, women's pep organization,' approved such and "Y" groups on the campus approved similar proposals. The "Y" statement adopted Wednesday after the council meeting follows:

"Be it resolved that the University of Nebraska Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. go of record as opposing racial discrimination in the Big Six Intercollegiate Conference. We urge a policy which would call for selection of players in line of their abilities, regardless of their race, creed, or color. In the event that the next Big Six Conference does not adopt such a policy, we further urge that our University then withdraw from the Big Six Conference. Signed.

Signed. Ted Sorenson, President, Y.M.C.A. Shirley Schnittker. President, Y.W.C.A.

Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity has writen their other Big Six chapters to secure a poll of opinion and attitude of Negro and other students on the campuses. Linwood Parker, teachers's college senior and secretary of the local chapter, expressed hope that his group could act in an advisory capacity to the council-sponsored student conference.

Poll Results Show UN Students Prefer Dewey for President

BY SAM WARREN Special Features Editor, The Dally Nebraskan

If the 1948 presidential election were held tomorrow, Thomas E. Dewey would take city campus students' preference over President Harry S. Truman, with Har-old Stassen, Dwight G. Eisen-hower, Robert A. Taft following in that order, according to a four-question Daily Nebraskan poll during the last week.

However, the nearly 175 stu-dents quizzed, felt that Truman would win over Dewey. Eisenhower shifted places with Stassen from the preference list to take third place in the expectedto-win class

Primary Unique

The poll was occasioned by a recent announcement from the office of the Secretary of State of Nebraska that the April 13th Nebraska primary will carry lists of probable contenders for the Democratic and Republican presidential nominees, in the first effort of its kind on the part of any state to indicate relative strength of the several candidates for nomination.

The idea to include this public opinion barometer on the state primary ballot came from a bipartisan committee of 40 interested Nebraskans, headed by Raymond A. McConnell, jr., editor of The Lincoln Journal; Vice-Chairman Robert Crosby, present lieutenant governor; and vice-chair-man Mrs. Sidney M. Smith, secretary of the Omaha civic improvement committee.

These three outlined the idea to 37 others who agreed to circulate petitions for the possible candidates so that the names could be included on the primary ballot. A concerted effort was made to chose a fair proportion of Democrats and Republicans on the committee, including such quar-ters as young people, labor lead-ers, daily and weekly newspaper editors, leaders in and women's

Although it has been possible in the past for a candidate to instruct the Secretary of State to withdraw his name from the primary ballot, despite signatures of 400 petitioners, the bi-partisan committee questioned the legality of this prerogative, since the primary is not technically an election. Hurried checking on the part of Secretary Frank Marshall proved the committee's supposition correct.

Cannot Withdraw Names

Consequently none of the candidates in whose favor a re- while that campus wished Dewey quired number of petitions are to win first, with Eisenhower seccirculated can withdraw even if ond and Truman third.

they should wish it. Those on the committee's tentative list as announced recently are Truman and Wallace; Dewey, Eisenhower, MacArthur, Martin, Stassen, Taft, Vandenberg; Bricker and Earl Warren (who were not included on The Daily Nebraskan's list by oversight).

The four questions asked by over 15 Daily Nebraskan reporters sent to various portions of the campus, and the break-down of the 174 students' answers were as follows:

1. Do you approve the Secretary of State's plan to make the Nebraska preferential primary an indicator for the 1948 presidential campaign by including all candidates mentioned for both Republican and Democratic nominations?

Yes 131 2. Do you feel that all likely candidates have been included on the list?

The poll returns from ag cam pus, which reached The Danly Nebraskan office too late to be tabulated, showed, however, an interesting fact. Of the more than 50 students question, the majority felt that Eisenhower would be elected president in 1948, with Dewey and Truman following,
