Straight Stuff

BY CHUCK HEMMINGSON.

What's this about shy Nebraska freshman girls? Jackie Denny got what she wanted without any trouble. After dating Keith O'Bannon pretty steadily this fall she asks Keith's pledge brother, Dick Michalek, to the Motor Boat. Dick, of course, is taking her to Friday night's rub at the Coliseum. By the way, Jackie, keep that Sig Alph pin shined up, Christmas is coming.

Hot Times

We keep hearing about the big conflagration across from the ATO Coffee Slop Monday night. Things were getting pretty hot in the Weber Apts. but Beetles Bergquist and Chick Story rushed into the building and aroused all the gals. Fire Chief Mike "Bob" Hunt (the only casualty—a pretzel caught in his throat in the confusion) remarked that "it was lucky Bergquist and Story happened to be in that 'locale' when the blaze broke out."

Mystery man of the campus—Who's this Bill Mufendorf, B-2 Hays Springs, on page 167 of the Student Directory? Snappers without dates for Dec. 12, can reach him at 24433 c/o Johnny Williams.

$4.40 Again.

Sig Eps will throw another "four-fortier" Saturday night for those who have any change left from Friday night's blowout. They're calling it the "Military Brawl" and I wouldn't be a bit surprised.

House parties were on top of the favorite indoor sport lists this week-end. Bill Denker's house was wide open Saturday night in Elkhorn and Dave Miller and Bud Hoffman entertained at their homes in Omaha Friday and Saturday night.

Christian Fellowship to Hear Former Ethiopia Missionary

Inter-Varsity Christian fellowship group will have as guest speaker Thursday night Mr. Sorenson, a missionary recently returned from Ethiopia who is studying in the philosophy department at the university.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in room 313 of the Union.

CADET OFFICERS NOTICE

A special practice for the Cadet Officers Association will be held Wednesday, Dec. 3 at 6 p. m. in the Coliseum. Another practice for officers and their dates will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. Attendance at this practice is required.

Novaes to Play Piano Recital Here Thursday

BY SAM WARREN.

The standing complaint of Midwest musical audiences that guest artists never perform the same "heavy" programs here that they give in New York will be invalid when pianist Guiomar Novaes appears in Lincoln Thursday for the student and town-folk audience of the Lincoln Fine Art series.

Bach, Mozart.

Engaged for the series because of her successful reception before a Lincoln audience last year, Madame Novaes will play at Lincoln high school auditorium the same program which she presented in Town Hall Nov. 23. Featuring Schumann's extended "Carnaval," Piano, the program consists of Bach, Mozart and Chopin numbers.

A native Brazilian (like soprano Bidu Sayao who sang in recital here last week), Madame Novaes is one of those artists whose careers date back to early childhood. Her feats as a prodigy led her government to endow her studies at the Paris Conservatory.

American Debut.

She was still a young girl when she startled Europe with her pianistic fireworks, so that she was already a seasoned artist when she made her American debut, a debut which critics still remember fondly. Members of the university school of music faculty recalled her Lincoln recital of some 15 years ago with the same enthusiasm that they accorded her last year's appearance.

Students may purchase tickets, at prices ranging from $1.20 to $3.60 at Walt's music store.

YM to Discuss Religious, Political Themes in Meeting

Two timely but widely separated topics will form the basis for the YMCA's discussion groups tonight at the organization's weekly meeting. With the approaching of the Christmas season, the Faith for Life group will discuss "Did Christ Really Live?" The Social Action commission will consider whether or not the Congressional committee on un-American activities should be abolished.

Convening at the Temple building at 7:30, the YM members will divide to go to the home of Rev. Sargent Bush where Dale Messer will lead the discussion of the historicity of Christ, and to the Baptist Student House where Lynwood Parker will head the discussion of J. Parnell Thomas' much publicized committee now investigating Communism in Hollywood.

An added note of interest to the first discussion will be the account of recent scientific research which claims to have proved that Jupiter and Saturn came close enough together, more than 1900 years ago, to have created the illusion of the "star of Bethlehem." The constitutionality of Congress' being able to subpoena citizens to ask them to declare their political beliefs will be the core of the Social Action commission's discussion.

President Ted Sorenson will be in charge of the business meeting at the Temple, and Don Jensen will head the short worship service.

Campus News In Brief

Committee Chairman Merlin Phillips and members Harold Roselius, Paul Krosne and Barbara Gardner are requested to be present. Dale Ball is also asked to be present.

THETA SIGMA PHI

Theta Sigma Phi will meet at 5 p. m. Wednesday in Ellen Smith hall.

Stanford Prof. Praises UN Mineral Collection

The university's collection of crystals and minerals was praised as "outstanding" by Dr. A. F. Rogers, former Stanford university mineralogist who retired recently.

During a stay of several days on the campus, the doctor visited Dr. C. B. Schultz, museum director; Prof. E. F. Schramm, Prof. A. L. Lugin, and Prof. T. M. Stout of the geology department; and Dr. G. E. Condra, director, and Dr. M. K. Elias, paleontologist, of the Conservation and Survey division. He also addressed geology students on, "The Romance of Jade."
