Chancellor Makes Report Today

Council To Poll Students Asks NU Opinion Chancellor R. G. Gustavson, one of the five voting delegates to the International United Na-tions Economic, Social and Cul-tural Organization, will give a report to the students at an all-On Improvements

A poll to discover student opinion on four projected Student Council proposals will be taken at the convocation speech of Chancellor R. G. Gustavson Wednesday afternoon in the Coliseum.

Dale Ball, chairman of the Council's campus improvement committee, said that the Council would use the results of the poll as a basis for future action. He asked that all students answer the poll so that the Council could get a representative campus opin-

Part I deals with the possibility of building an all-faith chapel The poll asks students if they think there is a need for a chapel and if they would contribute to finance its construction.

Students to Senate?

Whether or not student repre-sentatives should attend meetings of the University Senate, and if those representatives should at-tend as observers or as active participants is asked Part II.

Possibility of a senior week of social activities to replace the present senior final examination week is raised in part III. The poll asks for a straight "yes" or "no" response on the question of senior week.

Parking Priorities.

Campus parking situation, long a sore spot to faculty members as well as to student drivers, with looking towards the possibility of setting up a priority system for parking places, is the subject of student body. part IV.

largely through the efforts of three students, Lorraine Lander-you, Harriet Quinn, and Mrs. Phyllis Sorenson Ball.

A facsimile to the poll appears on page I of today's Daily Ne-braskan. Students unable to attend today's convocation are asked to answer this poll and re-turn it to the poll box in the office of The Daily Nebraskan.

UNESCO Discussion Scheduled

university convocation this aft-ernoon at 3 p. m. in the coliseum. All classes will be dismissed for the Chancellor's convocation, Chancellor R. G. Gustavson.

Prof. Karl M. Arndt, chairman of the convocations committee, has announced.

The chancellor, who returned Dec. 5 from the Mexico City con-ference, will discuss "The Mexico City Conference of UNESCO and What It Means to Nebraska." The talk will include a description of how the conference was operated and what it accom-plished, as well as some personal observations on Mexico.

Dr. Gustavson told a representative of The Daily Nebraskan some time ago that he wanted to discuss UNESCO before the Today's convocation is spon-sored jointly by the Union Ac-The poll itself was compiled tivities committee and the faculty convocations committee. Nancy Garey, sponsor of the Union committee, and Bob Axtell, chairman, will be on the stage to introduce Dr. Gustavson.

The UNESCO convocation will give an opportunity for the public as well as university students to get a first-hand report from one of the most highly-regarded See CONVO, Page 4

PROPOSED CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS

This questionnaire is sponsored by the Student Council for of obtaining recommendations for the Campus Im-

Vol. 48-No. 52 LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA Famous Dinner Guest 'Eats' at Temple Tonite Kaufman-Hart Comedy Opens Uni-Vets Tell With Gaylord Marr as Lead Poll Results

Daily Nehraskan

Results on a Uni-Vet poll conducted to obtain information about veteran budgets on the University campus were an-nounced at the Uni-Vet meeting Tuesday night.

Investigators found that 329 single veterans polled average monthly living expenses of $105.19 This exceeds the amounts reported by single veterans at teachers ed by single veterans at teachers colleges throughout the state. At Doane 69 vets said expenses amounted to $95.82, while Kear-ney men averaged $99.83. At Wayne, expenses for 76 vets av-eraged $93.54 and at Doane 105 vets reported cost of living at $86.89 $86.89

In the group of married student vets with no children at the Uni-versity, 126 reported average expenses of $159.37. Sixty married vets with one child reported their expenses as $163.31. Fifteen vets with two children were in the $166.67 bracket. Only six married vets with three children answered the poll. Expenses of these six was $222.

These figures were arrived at by taking the average of all expenses reported by veterans in each classification: Single, mar-ried, married with one child, married with two children, married with three children. This poll was taken to inform delegates at the national veterans meeting being held this month. Poll results show that living expenses reported gen-erally exceed the GI bill allotment by $40.

Seal Sales End Today

The 1947 campus sale of Christmas seals will end today, accord-ing to Harriet Quinn, Tassels president. The seals are being sold by the members of the women's

"The Man Who Came To Dinner", Kaufman and Hart's threeact comedy, starring Gaylor Marr as Whiteside, the sarcastic dinner guest, opens tonight at 8 in Temple theatre for a three-night run as the University Theatre's second major production of the year.

The role of Whiteside will be Gaylor Marr's first lead in a University Theatre production. A veteran of campus dramatics, Marr will be remembered for his supporting role in "Joan of Lorraine",

Bridge Wins Announced

Winners of the first in the series of duplicate bridge tournaments are the teams of Tony Birch-Donald Nichols and Joseph Saults-George Shaw, Union bridge direc-tor Dale Ball announced Monday.

The first games were played Saturday in the Union, the next to be December 13. The conclud-ing tournament date of the preliminary series will be announced after Christmas vacation.

Requirements.

All entrants are required to participate in two of the three tournaments in this first series, at the conclusion of which a playoff between winners will be conducted to determine the first place team at Nebraska.

Members of winning teams in each contest of the series will be awarded a new deck of Congress Cards by the Union activities committee, sponosr of the tournament.

Results.

Results of the first tourney for teams playing North and South are: Tony Birch-Donald Nichols, 27 points; Bill Tyson-Joyce Keckley, 25; John Huston-Baird Tay-lor, 24; Ed Allen-Jack Pickett, 107, 24, Ed Alten-Jack Pickett, 23; George Carey-Joe Schenk,
19¹/₂; D. R. Ihrie-R. E. Brandt, 16¹/₂; McDowell-Saad, 16; Allan Mavis-Bill Campbell, 15¹/₂; and Phillip H. Jones-Eugene Von Fange, 15½.

resident. The seals are being sold by the members of the women's pep organization. Each organized house has its own seller, with the Tassels sell-ing seals at large on the campus. Fange, 15½. For teams playing East and West: Joseph Saults-George Shaw, 24 points; Kenneth Fitch-Keith Fitch, 23½; Jack Guttenburg-Bill Kolragov, 23; Lookabough-Kuntthe part of the fool in "Twelfth Night," and roles in "Macbeth," "Juno and the Paycock," and ex-perimental plays.

Wednesday, December 10, 1947

Marr writes the adaptations of articles from the Prairie Schoon-er magazine for Mid-Country, a weekly radio broadcast, and one of his original scripts is slated for production in the experimental laboratory.

Alexander Wollcott and Moss Hart were predecessors of Marr and other college Thespians over the country who have done the character of Whiteside on the stage, while Monty Wooley played the role in the screen version of the play.

The popular comedy is the story of Whiteside, a celebrated lec-turer who breaks his hip on the doorstep of the Stanley residence during a tour and remains to con-valesce. His many friends and as-sociates including Maggie, his sec-retary; Dr. Bradley, his physi-cian; and Miss Prentiss, his nurse, add to the hilarity in the Stanley household.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner," becomes increasingly in-volved wilth the appearance of members of the Stanley family and the evolution of a romance between Whiteside's secretary, Maggie, and Barton, local journalist. To divert Jefferson's attention from Maggie, Whiteside calls upon actress Lorraine Sheldon, and the ensuing triangle is one of the most humorous factors in the plot.

The principal supporting roles of the 22 member cast are taken by Phyllis Baldridge, June provement Committee. Year in school Church Preference College I All University Chapel 1. Do you feel that there is a need for a chapel?	which students may purchase seals. "No goal has been set, but we'd like to see the seals sold 100 to	Bob Remillard, 20; Bruce Fletcher- Jim Jensen, 18½; Irvin L. Reis- Warren Koenig, 18½; Clark R. Newman-Ted Deal, 15½; Frank	Gladys Jackson; stage manager, Bill Reuter; construction mana- ger, Don Clifton; light manager, Walt Davis; make-up manager, Dale Wisser; and warbrobe man- ager, D. Ann Richardson.

 2. Would you personally participate in its activities?	In stressing the importance of the sale of the seals, Miss Quinn pointed out that the X-ray used to examine university students each fall is aided by the Tu- berculosis Association through money raised through the sales. The great share of each dollar raised is used in the state, with the remaining amount going to fi- nance projects sponsored by the National Tuberculosis association. WW All-members Program Tonite A YWCA All-Membership meet- ing will be held tonight in Ellen Smith Hall at 7:15, according to Shirley Schnitker, president. Miss Schnitker will lead the discussion on the topic, "Gifts of our people." At the close of the meeting the Intercultural group will present a pageant, "Song of the Living." Dorothy Ichirage, Freddie Pow- ell and Peg O'Donnell will read the pageant and Jeanne Malone and Elaine Carroll are vocal so- loists.	Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business fraternity, initiated ten new members at a ceremony and dinner in the Union, Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 5:30 p. m. The regular initiation ceremonies were direct- ed by Master of Rituals, Eldon Donnelly. After the initiation, Professor George Darlington introduced the alumni members and new initi- ates, along with the guest speak- er, Mr. Gray Jewett. Mr. Jewett is assistant manager of the Lin- coln branch of the Western Elec- tric Co. He spoke on "The Ten Commandments," which dealt par- tucularly with the labor-manage- ment problem. He also illustrated several examples from the per- sonal policies used by his own organization. The new members initiated at the meeting were: Robert E. Clark, Robert Fulton, Rolland Gay, Paul Hill, Fred Meyer, Ken- neth Moore, Maynard Morgan, Louis Newell and Daniel Patton.	The books were sent by D. M. Chaffee of Detroit, grandson of the surveyor. "These books constitute an orig- inal field record," explains Dean Green, "In my estimation they are of great value." As evidence in any dispute over the boundary he believes the books to have more legal standing than the rec- ords now possessed by the state. Due to their value as historial records, he is making arrange- ments to transfer the books to the Nebraska Historical Society col- lection. "