SCORING ANOTHER BASKET is Forward Claude Retherford, who laid up a 15-point record despite the defensive efforts of Guard Ralph Thiessen and Bill Berberian of Purdue. The Nebraska five were able to keep a lead up until the last two minutes of the game when Purdue shot ahead for a heart-breaking victory. Final score: 60 to 56.

Frosh Serve Early Notice

The freshman basketball squad under the direction of Coach Tony Sharp gave indication Monday night that they may be heard from in future years in Husker cage play.

The Frosh showed several possible contenders for future varsity berths as they knocked off the Nubbins, 45-25, in a preliminary to the Purdue-Husker clash.

All-state center Bob Pierce proved effective against the speedy Nubbins as he controlled the backboards through most of the game. Along with the rangy center, Merle Relling showed lots of class, scoring nine points. Playing steady floor games for the yearling were Brandenburg, Gates and Lucht.

The speediest man on the floor was "Bernie" Beiterman of the Nubbins. Beiterman's cool shooting and fast floor game were the reasons for the close halftime score of 19-17.

Carl Samuelson just missed being the game hero in the closing seconds as he intercepted a Frosh pass in mid-court and dribbled half the length of the court, only to have his well aimed shot roll off the rim.

Minnesota Cage Quintet Next Foe for Huskers

BY FRITZ SIMPSON
 (Daily Nebraskan Sports Writer)

With the season's opener against Purdue past history, Coach Harry Good's Husker cagers are looking ahead to Saturday's encounter with Minnesota's Golden Gophers. The Nebraska team will travel to Minneapolis for the contest Saturday night.

The University of Minnesota basketball team should be much improved over the 1946-47 combination. Last season's Gophers finished fourth in the Big Nine conference with a record of seven wins and five losses. They compiled a 14-7 mark for the season, including 11 straight victories on their home floor.

Gallery Shows Austrian's Art

Paintings and drawings of Carry M. Hauser, Austrian artist whose religious works are well known in Europe, are now on display in the University of Nebraska galleries.

The exhibit, which includes three oil paintings, seven in tempera, 32 in water color, and 10 in crayon, is the first in America of religious art painted during the Nazi occupation of middle Europe despite official opposition.

A native of Vienna, the 52-year-old Hauser began painting and writing at an early age and soon associated himself with the "expressionistic" group of Austrian painters who gained prominence in Europe following World War I. These young painters believed in the realistic expression of religious themes.

By 1935, Mr. Hauser had become a leader of the "expressionists." When the Nazis invaded Austria in 1938, Mr. Hauser identified himself with those who resisted the Nazi effort to stamp out religious art. He fled from Vienna in 1939 and spent the war years in Switzerland.

While there he continued to do some work, part of which is included in the exhibit at the University.

Mrs. Hauser's work will be exhibited until Dec. 29 in Gallery B, second floor of Morrill Hall. Later it will be displayed at other art centers in the midwest.

Coach Dave MacMillan has seven lettermen from the 1946-47 squad—Jack Young, Wayne Gil-land, Harry Grant, and Wally Salovich, forwards; Jim McIntyre, center; and Ed Kerman and Bill Pepper, guards. In addition, six lettermen of former years are members of the Gopher squad.

Big gun on the Minnesota quintet is Jim McIntyre, 6' 9", All-Big Nine center in 1946-47 as a sophomore. McIntyre scored 314 points in 21 games and 183 points in 12 conference games last season. The 20-year-old, 235 pounder finished second behind Cook of Wisconsin in the loop scoring race.

Minnesota's other high scorer of a year ago, and a member of this season's squad, is Forward Harry Grant. Grant won letters as a regular end on the 1946 and 1947 Gopher football teams. He was 13th in Big Nine scoring last season with 111 points.

Last season's Nebraska-Minnesota game on the Husker hardwoods found the Gophers capturing a 68-58 decision. Coach MacMillan's charges lost their first game of the 1947-48 season, Saturday to St. Louis university. The Golden Gophers will battle through a 20-game schedule.
