

Matmen Scrap For Top Spots In Cornell Test

With less than a week left before the initial mat test, there is still a spirited battle between wrestling candidates for several spots on the opening Cornhusker lineup.

Coach Pat Patterson's charges will face Cornell college of Mt. Vernon, Ia., at the Coliseum Tuesday, January 13. Cornell holds both the National AAU and National Collegiate Athletic association team wrestling championships.

In the 128 pound class, either Karl Kelly, Omaha or Kenneth Brown, Columbus, will represent the Scarlet. Patterson is as yet undecided who will get the nod in the 155-lb. class. Dick Hill, Lincoln, and John Broughton, Bridgeport, are the leading candidates.

Yambor Starter.

Bob (Peewee) Yambor is an almost certain starter in the 221-lb. division as are Jack Barrett and Jack Tamai, both Omahans, at 136 and 145 pounds, respectively.

Andy Marinkovich has moved up to the 175 pound class and Jerry Calhoun, North Platte, has taken over the top spot among the 165-pounders.

Representing the Huskers in heavyweight division will be Rex Hoy. Although he has never wrestled competitively, Hoy has been making rapid strides. Hoy moved into the front when Tom Novak had to quit because of an injury suffered during the football season.

Thinlad Entries Due By Monday

Monday noon, January 12, is the latest entries can be filed for the indoor intramural track meet to be held January 13, 15 and 19. Entries are to be turned in at 207 Coliseum.

The indoor track in the east stadium is available from 4 to 6 p.m. daily to all contestants to practice. They are urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

Events are scheduled to start promptly at 5:10 and competitors should be there at an earlier time for a warm up.

Each group will be required to enter at least five men in order to be eligible for Jack Best points. Awards will be made to the team champion, individual champions, all first place winners and to all record breakers.

HUSKER STABILIZER—Neal Mosser, stellar Nebraska guard, came up as a steadying influence for Coach Harry Good's Scarlet cagers. Mosser potted seven points to share high scoring honors with Forward Rod Cox and Center Dick Schleiger Tuesday night as Nebraska bowed to a fired Iowa State Cyclone five in the Big Six conference opener at Ames. Mosser's floor play has been a bright point in Husker performances to date.

Husker Wrestle Coach Launches Prep Campaign

Pat Patterson, NU mat coach has started a campaign for wrestling in Nebraska high schools. At present only four Omaha schools have competing teams.

Lincoln high has introduced the sport this year on an intramural basis. Fremont is considering adding wrestling to its sports agenda.

FEM FUN

Basketball practices are being held each night at 5 o'clock. Two practices are required for each girl to be eligible to enter the tournament which is scheduled to being the week after exams.

The fourth round of table tennis is now being played. Three games, instead of one game, determine the winner for the remainder of the tournament. Don't forget to watch the bulletin board.

Games for the next few days include: Thursday, January 8, Scott-Baumann, Sawyers-Hamburg, and Spurgson-Garrop; and January 12, Allen-Finkle, Peterson-Fritz, Sage-Wulff.

All sports heads for basketball report to the W. A. A. office as soon as possible, or call Jeanne Branch.

Miller Names NUGymnastics Travel Squad

Coach Charles Miller's seven-man University of Nebraska gymnastic team will leave Friday for Champaign, Illinois, on Saturday, January 10.

Members of the squad selected to make the trip are Leo Geier, Lincoln; Ken Harding, Auburn; Clancy Lefler, Valparaiso; Charles Purdy, North Platte; Bill Rankin, Omaha; Phil Sprague, Beatrice; and Jim Johnson, Lincoln.

Four Members Crippled.

Other squad members, Mel James, Wilson Lockett, Allen Heikes and Norm Anderson will be unable to make the trip because of training injuries, but should be ready for the first home meet, February 7 against the same Illinois team.

Every man on the team has had at least one year of experience in gymnastic competition with the exception of Jim Johnson and Charles Purdy.

Illinois won from Nebraska in 1947 by six points.

"Greatly Improved."

"Both teams have greatly improved," Coach Miller said, "but Illinois probably is stronger due to more experience and reserve material. Our team has made a

Fire First Rifle Team Competition

First matches in the interteam rifle competition will be fired Thursday afternoon in the basement of Andrews Hall according to the schedule released by the intramural office.

Phi Gamma Delta marksmen open the intramural event by meeting the Beta Sigma Psi team at 4:15. In Thursday's other match Alpha Gamma Rho meets Zeta Beta Tau.

The Phi Gams return Friday for their second match meeting Sigma Nu, Phi Kappa Psi and Tau Kappa Epsilon round out the second day of shooting.

Five loops—four fraternity and one independent—are entered in the Jack Best sport. Each team consists of five competitors. Competition will be conducted from prone, sitting, kneeling and standing positions.

great deal of progress, however, and should make a good account of themselves Saturday."

Tumbling will probably be the Huskers' weakest event. The loss of Gene Sundeen, number two tumbler last season, leaves a hole in this event. Sprague and Rankin are the only experienced tumblers on the team.
