POPULAR MEMBER of the British Parliament, the Honorable Beverley Baxter, will address an all-university convocation Monday. He is a member of the Conservative political party.

Baxter, MP, Will Speak On 'Empire'

The Honorable Beverley Baxter, Member of Parliament, will address an all-university convocation Monday, Jan. 19, at 3 p. m. on the subject, "Is Empire Defensible?"

Beverley Baxter is a Canadian-born British member of Parliament, a member of the Conservative party. After he returned from World War I he joined the London Daily Express, the world's biggest newspaper as a writer.

Pungent Critic.

Baxter is acknowledged as one of the leading dramatic critics in England. His criticisms, pungent and outspoken yet eminently fair, appear weekly in the London Evening Standard.

All Vet Convo Set for Jan. 13; Walker to Talk

An all veteran convocation, sponsored by the Uni-Vet organization, has been scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 13, at 3 p. m. in Love Memorial auditorium.

Principal speaker will be Norman E. Walker, pre-med student in the university who was the Nebraska University veteran's delegate to the national conference for vet trainees in Washington, D. C., on Dec. 19-20.

Walker will give a detailed report of action taken and conclusions reached at the conference. He previously gave a brief account of the happenings of the meetings, which was published in The Daily Nebraskan earlier this week.

Keith Kittle, former Uni-Vet president, will speak presenting detailed statistics on veteran living expenses poll conducted on this campus and on campuses of other Nebraska colleges several weeks ago.

For the convenience of vets who live at Huskerville, arrangements have been made for the 3:30 bus to leave at 3:45 so that they may attend the convention.

Fees may be paid in Grant Memorial from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Jan. 26-28. Students must present identification cards at time schedule of dates for payment of fees is as follows: Students whose surnames begin with letters A to G inclusive—Monday, Jan. 26; H to Q inclusive—Tuesday, Jan. 27; R to Z inclusive—Wednesday, Jan. 28.

Any student failing to pay fees on day assigned will not be permitted to do so until Monday, Feb. 2 and will then be assessed a late fee.

Branch Tells Of Foundation Fund Increases

Three University Foundation funds have been increased by additions totaling $3,100 according to Perry W. Branch, Foundation director-secretary.

Geneva State Bank Student Loan and Scholarship Fund, sponsored by the Geneva State Bank, received $1,000. Previous gifts to the fund total $3,150, which provides financial aid for Fillmore county students attending the university.

$1,100 went to the Addison E. Sheldon Nebraska History Fellowship fund. This fund was established by Miss Ruth Sheldon of Washington, D. C., in memory of her father who served for many years as secretary of the Nebraska State Historical Society.

The C. L. Stone Fund received $1,000. The fund was established by C. L. Stone of Cleveland, O., who has previously contributed $5,000.

Indian Scientist To Speak Today

Dr. B. Sahni, prominent Indian scientist, will address students and faculty members in the UN geology and botany departments this afternoon.

Dr. Sahni, former president of the Indian Academy of Sciences, is a professor of botany and dean of the science faculties of the University of Lucknow. His visit at the Nebraska campus will include an inspection of the university's fossilized plant collections Saturday. He is making a four month tour of the principal universities and colleges in the United States.

Union Snacketeria to Open For After-Game Business

Innovation of the Union Snacketeria, located in the Campus Line, will follow the Missouri basketball game Monday night.

The Snacketeria, operating to relieve the crowded conditions in the Corncrib, will serve hot chocolate and coffee, doughnuts and brownies, until Union closing time.

Student Talent In Floor Show For Ag Dance

It is a known fact that considerable amounts of talent roam the ag campus as the years come and go. Much of this ability has gone unnoticed during the owner's tenure on the campus.

In an effort to reveal some of the prospective ability to the students, Jack DeWulf, chairman of the union dance committee, has announced that tomorrow night's will feature an intermission floor show.

Program Plans.

Due to the shortness of time forced upon them by vacation, the committee has had little time to arrange the program and, as yet, plans are incomplete. However, a Spanish dance by Beverly Ewald, with Sue Fishwood at the piano, and some selected vical numbers by Neal Baxter are already on the docket.

Contrary to previous publicity, the "post-vacation hoofing party" will feature dancing with Bobby Mills orchestra from 9-12 and not from 8-11.30. The dance will be held in the auditorium of College Activities building.

Ticket Sales.

Tickets for the dance are on sale at $1.50 per couple in the ag union. Single tickets may also be purchased at the door the night of the dance.

This will be the first dance to be sponsored at ag by the newly-formed activities board dance committee. DeWulf expressed hope that students would support the dance so that similar affairs could be presented in the future.

Future plans of the union activities committee call for a variety show similar to the performance given at the main union. Anyone knowing of particular talent possessed by students on the campus should contact the committee.

ROTC Mock Military Trial Proceedings Get Underway

The ROTC mock trials got under way Thursday afternoon in Social Sciences auditorium at 3 p. m. when the sophomore class opened proceedings in the case of "The United States vs. Pvt. Benjamin Jones."

Three separate sections of the Military Science 3 lab class tried the case. The trials have been divided into two parts, with the finish and the court's decision due at next Thursday's class.

Pvt. Benjamin Jones was seen stealing a wallet from another soldier and was apprehended with the wallet still in his possession. On the court are the president and nine junior officers who will try the case. There is also a Trial Judge Advocate and two assistants, defense council and two assistants and four witnesses, plus the accused.

All parts are played by ROTC students, with Captain Kelly of the Military department acting as supervisor. Those in the classes not participating actively are spectators.

This exercise closes the curriculum for third semester ROTC students.
