

ON THE WAY TO 80TH VICTORY—Lowell Lange, Cornell college 145-pound grappler, holds the upper hand as he wins a decision over Nebraska's Jack Tamai during the Iowa school's 28-0 win against the Husker mat team Monday night. Lange is the AAU and NCAA 145-pound ruler. He is unbeaten in 80 consecutive bouts.

Scarlet Matmen Host Pair Colorado Clubs; Yambor Set

Bob (Peewee) Yambor, University of Nebraska 121-pounder, will be in action when the Cornhuskers meet the University of Colorado wrestling team here Friday night at 7:30.

Yambor was shelved by a stomach ailment when Nebraska opened the season against Cornell college at Mount Vernon, Ia.

The Cornhuskers meet Colorado State college Saturday night. Yambor and Jack Tamai, 145 pounder, are the only lettermen listed by Coach Buel R. (Pat) Patterson in the lineup that will face the Colorado teams.

Kenny Brown, Columbus, will move up to the 128-pound group in place of Mickey Kelley, for the two Colorado matches. Brown grappled in the 121 division Monday in the Huskers initial match against the powerful Cornell, Ia. squad.

Although the Cornhuskers were unable to score a point against Cornell, the team as a whole showed improvement over a year ago.

Nebraska's mat squad will be bolstered after the second semester when the Copple brothers, Newt and Ed, will be eligible. Newt was second at 145 pounds in the national A.A.U. meet last season.

The Cornhuskers will line up for two week end matches as follows:

- 121 pounds: Bob Yambor, Omaha.
 - 128 pounds: Ken Brown, Columbus.
 - 136 pounds: Jack Barrett, Omaha.
 - 145 pounds: Jack Tamai, Omaha.
 - 155 pounds: Dick Hill, Lincoln.
 - 165 pounds: Jerry Calhoun, North Platte.
 - 175 pounds: Andy Marinkovich, Omaha.
 - Heavyweight: Rex Hoy, Lincoln.
- Referee: Norman Sorenson, Omaha Central.

Name Dallas Site Big Six-SW Meet

The Big Six-Southwest Conference track meet will be held at Dallas, Tex., June 5, Coach Ed Weir announced. The meet was started a year ago with the top performers of the two conferences matching strides.

"In another year, I believe the meet will be held in Lincoln," Coach Weir said. "We were handicapped last year by not knowing until the last minute the meet would be held. As a result Bobby Ginn and other Big Six athletes had made plans which precluded their participation."

Women's Clothes are THEIR OWN TESTIMONIALS

Fashion and wearability—the qualities that win or lose customers—are carefully regarded by women when they choose their clothes.

Because of the importance of fashion in the economic and social scheme, a knowledge of style, quality and value is an inherent part of the average woman's shopping equipment.

Manufacturers in the women's fashion industries must therefore stand or fall on the consumer reaction to their merchandise. Testimonials have no value in selling fashions. The goods must be delivered.
