Huskers Rest, K-State Crew Next Foe

Coach Harry Good's Husker eaglers, fresh from their first circuit victory over Colorado, will take time out for semester exams before entertaining the high-riding Kansas State Wildcats, Jan. 31.

Coach Gardner's Wildcats are currently running second in the Big Seven race with a 2-0 record. Kansas university leads with three victories against no defeats. Kansas State has established itself as the No. 1 team in the loop by virtue of a season's record to date of 12 victories and one defeat. The Manhattan boys took their twelfth win Monday night when they trounced Iowa State, 61-42.

Four loop teams will remain idle this week, Missouri, Oklahoma, Colorado and the Huskers will take their rest periods before renewing the conference race. The top inter-sectional contest of the week will pit Phog Allen's league-leading Jayhawks against the always powerful Oklahoma Aggies, Wednesday night at Lawrence.

Iowa State will entertain its old rival, Drake university, Thursday night, and Kansas State will be host to the Bulldogs at Manhattan Saturday.

Iowa State Teachers Drop Patterson's Grapplers, 28-5

Coach Pat Patterson's Scarlet grapplers received a sharp lesson Tuesday night as the Iowa State Teachers had handled the Huskers 28-5 in a dual meet at the Coliseum.

It was the final home appearance for the Nebraska matmen until the District Olympic tryouts which will be held at the Coliseum April 1-2.

Schedule Trio IM Cage Tilts For Wednesday

Three cage tilts Wednesday night will conclude the first semester of play in the intramural basketball loop.

The three games were postponed from Tuesday night because of the conflict created by the University of Nebraska-Iowa Teachers wrestling match at the Coliseum.

Cornhusker Co-op will tangle with Sigma Alpha Epsilon in an A-team game at 7:00 while the Tau Kappa Epsilon five will play the Phi Kappa Psi A-team. Alpha Tau Omega and Sigma Nu will collide in another A-game at 7:50.

Monday's Results.

Ricketeers 24, Football Team 22.
Sigma Epsilon 24, Phi Rollers 22.
Newman Club 26, Building B 6.

Rustics 47, Lapp's Boys 26.

Familiar Rhodes Name Bask at NU

A name familiar to University of Nebraska sports followers in 1923-'24-'25 may reappear this year.

It is John Rhodes.

John is the son of Choppy Rhodes, all around Cornhusker athlete of two decades ago. Young John has shown a smooth hurdling style that may bring him some of the fame his dad enjoyed as an undergraduate. John has been handicapped by an infection since his discharge from the army.

Nebraska's Bobby Yambor, undefeated in three straight matches this year, put the Huskers into a brief lead by decisioning Harold Mott of Iowa STC. Yambor won by a 3-2 count. Mott is Iowa's AAU grappling champion.

Marinkovich Draws.
That was the end of Nebraska's winning ways. But Andy Marinkovich did salvage two points for Patterson's charges by battling Ed Ahrens, ISTC, to a draw in a 175-pound match.

Dick Hill, Jack Tamai and Jerry Calhoun of Nebraska fell victims to pin holds by invading Cedar Falls wrestlers. Hill and Tamai were stopped by a half-nelson hold in 1:45 and 7:50 respectively. Calhoun was pinned with a body smother in 3:50.

Nebraska forfeited its heavyweight match to the visitors, Rex Hoy, Huskers' heavyweight grappler, reported ill and was ordered not to compete in Tuesday's match by the team physician.

Third NU Loss.
The loss was the third in four matches for Nebraska's inexperienced crew. Nebraska fell to the AAU and NCAA champions from Cornell college, Ia., 28-0 in the season opener, tripped Colorado university 19-10 and fell to Colorado College 20-6 before dropping Tuesday's match to the NCAA runner-up squad.

121 pounds: Bob Yambor (N) decisioned Harold Mott (IST), 3-2.
128 pounds: Floyd Oglesby (IST) decisioned Kenny Brown (N), 6-0.
136 pounds: Neal Johnson (IST) decisioned Jack Barrett (N), 5-1.
145 pounds: William Koll (IST) pinned Dick Hill (N) in 1:45 with a half nelson.
155 pounds: Bill Smith (IST) pinned Jack Tamai (N) in 7:50 with a half nelson.
165 pounds: Bill Nelson (IST) pinned Jerry Calhoun (N) in 3:50 with a body smother.
175 pounds: Andy Marinkovich (N) drew with Ed Ahrens (IST), 1-1.
Heavyweight: Iowa State Teachers won by forfeit from Nebraska.
Referee: Orville Orr, Iowa State Teachers College.

Mosser Ties 2nd High Score

Neal Mosser, who picked up 11 points at the University of Nebraska defeated Colorado Saturday night, moved into a second place tie with Joe Brown in the Cornhusker scoring race with 93 points.

The Hebron guard jumped ahead of Rodney Cox with whom he was tied for third spot last week. Cox is in fourth place with 89 points.

Claude Retherford, who shared scoring honors with Mosser against the Buffs, boosted his point total to 147 points in 14 games. Retherford is averaging 10.5 points per game.

The Indiana hot shot also leads in the field goal and free throw departments with 55 fielders and 37 free tosses.

Nebraska has dumped in 275 field goals out of 951 shots and 211 free throws out of 352 efforts in 14 games.

The ten top scorers:

Player	G	Att.	Goals Made	Free Throws Att.	Free Throws Made	Pf	Total	Ave.

'Pop' to Fourth.
"Pop" Near Mosser is the name, bud!
The varsity basketball guard's wife presented him with his fourth son Sunday.
Occurring on his 28th birthday, Mosser's new offspring will add to the family which now includes the three-year old twins, Tom and Joe, and Jerry, age two.

50-YARD SPRINT WINNER—Bill Moomey, Delta Upsilon, is shown breaking the tape a stride ahead of ATO Francis Fagot. Moomey tied the previous record of :05.7 in copping the final heat of the 50-yard dash Monday night. The Delta Upsilon team copped first place in the annual indoor intramural track meet by edging the ATO team 46½ to 44 13/14. Bill Mueller of Sigma Chi and Al Ruby, Phi Delta Theta, placed third and fourth in the short dash. (Photo by Daily Nebraskan Photographer Bob Duis.)
