Candy passings are becoming a regular feature out Kappa Delta way. Three sisters wearing diamonds are Kay Schwartz, Fran Smith, and Pat Wentsch. Kay's fiance goes to Northwestern—they will be married in June. Fran is throwing out her books at the end of the semester to work in Broken Bow where her one and only, Claire Williams, lives. Pat and her fiance, Dale Bandy, will set up housekeeping in Texas after their marriage next summer.

Special delivery telegram to Miss Jane McArthur! Theta Xi Romeo from Michigan U. sent an urgent request to Jane to be on hand last weekend for two super formals—name bands furnishing the music. But Mrs. McA. said "No go," and Jane remains.

Sports News.

And now, ladies and gentlemen, we present the winner and still champion, "Jake" Jacobsen. Jake emerged from the Cornshucks office Friday afternoon after a rugged bout, still holding the title and wearing a couple of smooch-marks on his forehead. The champ made a good showing—his form was up to par—it was a great fight.

Dolton's was the scene of a gay social gathering last Thursday morning. The cream of society was there at 10 a. m. to catch their first glimpses of the new day. Seen chatting over coffee were Jody Wolcott and Bill Wenk, Shirley Eskilson and Bill Moomey, "Stein" Hemmingson and Joan "Gizzards" Gilford. One couple from this merry group, Nancy Lawlor and Bill Vlcek, was unable to get down to Dolton's but had their early morning coffee in the Crib.

And the Phi Gams have done it again. This time Jerry Johnston chalks up a score by tracking down Janet Graves getting her to sign her name on a steady contract.

Friday-Nighters.

Sports fans Olive Gettman and Bob Good took in the big Northeast-Hastings game Friday night, just for chucks. Quite a few of the campus kiddies were out at King's that night, however. Bruce Berquist, who usually dates Mary Sue Holland, was there with Janie Frye. Mary Sue took in the party with Winton Buckley. Bill Kimball, who shadows Bev Williams in his spare time, was dancing with Sal Holmes.

Blond Boy who's been beating a path up to Janet Graves' doorway until recently, was with Shirley Lierk. His little party was the first gang out at King's that night, arriving just as the band put away their razors and began playing. Jan Graves was with Jerry, of course, having turned down Dougie Doyle who called at the last minute to see if she was busy. Bill Vlcek, who recently severed relations with Jody Wolcott, was with Julie Rathbone. That man-about-town, Chick Story, who usually dates Susie Lancaster, had a date with Susie Lancaster. Bob Jordon, who is pinned to Fran Edee, escorted Fran Edee.

Also on the spot were Virginia Lapp and Tommy Ludwig, Joy Norman and Handsome Harry Galloway, Patty Wieland and Gene "Bathrobes" Weiler, Ginny Taylor and Bill Wenke. Billy Trombla chatted with Dave Doyle, Joyce Steele made the rounds with "Nasty" Hemmingsen, and Tish Swanson made her entrance with Jerry Jacupke.

Alpha Chi Betsy Bahensky has been wearing Dick Bell's pin for almost a week now. That's some kind of a record, isn't it?

The Sig Alphas had open house yesterday—an informal dinner followed by cards, movies, and what have you. Tickets for reserved seats in the trophy room were sold out early. Marilyn Nelson had a spot there with Joe Sanchez, and Fran Copey was on hand with Arch Mehrhoff. Phil Grimm was there with an express package from Omax. Mary Jo Hamilton attended with Dick Kinsey, Jody Loder with "Lover-Boy" Gunderson, Pat Gaddis with Norm Walt.
