'48 TNC Finalists Chosen

Cuts Field to 22

The first judging of entries for Typical Nebraska Coed took place Thursday night from 7 to 10 p. m. at the Temple Experi-mental theater. The 22 coeds selected to compete in the finals

Jackie Wightman, Cherie Viele, Ruth Stewart, Myrna Samuelson, Eugenie Samson, Shirley Sabin, Barbara Rolland, Catheryn Rapp, Peggy O'Don-nell, Doralea Niedenthal, Marilyn Miller, Mary Helen Mallory, Beryle Lotspeich, Lillian Lock, Peggy Lawrie, Mary Sue Hol-land, Pat Hickey, Pat Boyd, Dor-othy Borgens, Pat Black, La-verna Acker and Betty Assen.

Judges who chose these final-ists were AWS board members Jane MacArthur, Betty Ann Sawyers, Nancy Glynn, Mims Weeth, Jean Compton, Jean Chilquist, Marion Crook, and Phyl Harris. Participants were judged on personality, appearance, activities, and scholarship, qualifications established during the war. Each organized house was represented by two girls attractively attired in date dresses and suits.

The Typical Nebraska will be selected from the final-ists by faculty advisors Miss Mary Guthrie, Miss Arleen Lockhart, and Miss Gertrude Knie. She will be presented as the climax to the annual Coed Follies Tuesday, March 2, at the Nebraska theater. This delight-ful show, sponsored by the AWS board under the direction of Marion Crook, will offer five skits and four curtain acts, plus a style show given by the TNC

Heads Y Board For New Year

Tuesday night. Meeting at 6:30 p. m. in the Green Room of the p. m. in the Green Room of the city YM, Dean Nels Bengtson, former chairman introduced the control of the city YM, Dean Nels Bengtson, former chairman introduced the city YM. mer chairman, introduced the new Roy Laase, treasurer; and Don ficials were rumored to have been Crowe, secretary. New board in contact with several coaches members are: Rev. John Douglas who would be available should Clyde, Dr. W. K. Pfeiler, Coach the university coaching staff be Harry Good, Prof. Chester Lin- revamped.

of ceremonies for the event. The speaker of the evening was Dean ing formal statements, the Ath-Carl N. Borgmann, dean of faculties.

Entertainment was furnished by a quartet made up of Virgil Ganzel, Stanley Lamber, Neal Baxter, and Jack White. The banquet was planned by Keith Frederickson, Bob Borin, and Sorenson.

Y membership jumped from 342 past week and since last Monday in 1946 to 477 this year, executive secretary Gordon L. Lippitt minor ailments. announced in his annual report. Membership two years ago was 280. Participation in regular, special, recreational and general ter director. tended to a total of 28,639 attend-

AWS to Select Skit Finals Tonight

Jackie Gordon, Janet Straton, Nickie Nikelson, Norma Long, Jean Compton and Marian Crook will be judges for the Co-ed Follies tryouts and will watch the skits Feb. 11 and 12. The schedule includes:

tule includes:

Wednesday, Feb. 11.

7:90 Kappa Delta.

7:15 Pi Beta Phi.

7:30 Sigma Delta Tau.

7:45 Chi Omega.

8:00 Residence Halls.

8:15 Kappa Kappa Gamma.

8:30 Sigma Kappa.

Thursday, Feb. 12.

7:00 Alpha Omicron Pi.

7:15 Kappa Alpha Theta.

7:30 Gamma Phi Beta.

7:35 Delta Delta Delta.

8:00 Alpha Xi Delta.

8:15 Delta Gamma.

8:30 Tewn Cub.

8:45 Kernels.

9:00 Alpha Chi Omega.

9:00 Alpha Chi Omega. 9:15 Alpha Phi.

Daily Nehraskan KK Skit

Vol. 48-No. 78 LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA

Wednesday, February 11, 1948

Blazine, Lewandowski First Elimination Regret Bernie's Action

Among those expressing their opinions to a Daily Nebraskan athletic director. news editor toward Bernie's actions was Line Coach Tony Bla-zine who served five years under Ray Eliot at Illinois. Blazine was Masterson's line coach last season.

TONY BLAZINE.

When questioned Blazine replied, "In my one year here at Nebraska I have enjoyed my association with Masterson as one of his assistants. Just what his plans are for the future are un-Prof. A. W. Epp known to me. It goes without saying that I wish him the best of luck in any new endeavor which he may undertake."

Deepest Regret.

Ad Lewandowski, Athletic Business Manager, commented that "Bernie's resignation was accept-ed with deepest regret."

Officers and members of the YMCA Board of Management were announced at the annual banquet braska as my Alma Mater means a great deal to me and its success under me for the past two years at Nebraska I would like to say Other officers include: Dale Stauffer, vice chairman; Dr. Le-Roy Lasse, transument and Dale Some time ago University sheid, and Mayor Clarence Miles. Among those mentioned promi-Ted Sorenson acted as master nently was Ray Eliot, present IIlinois coach, whom Blazine for-merly worked under. After issu-

Clinic Treats 560 Patients This Week

Five bundred and sixty university students have passed through the Student Health Center in the

No serious epidemics or diseases have been reported according to Dr. Fuenning, health cen-

The Student Health Center has been particularly on the watch for "Virus X," flu germ which has been prominent on the west coast and could be spread easily through the campus.

Upper respiratory diseases are most prevalent cases at the health center with no signs of flu appearing among the students,

Student Faculty Council To Meet New Members

New members of the Ag Student-Faculty Council will be introduced at the Student-Faculty Tea Feb. 19 from 3:45-5:00 p.m. in the Home Ec parlors. They are: Louise McDill, LaVerna Acker, sophomores; Betty Beckner, Harriet, Moline, juniors.

Other members of the council are: Lucille Manning, Margaret Lux, Bernice Young, senfors; Sally Hartz, junior; Gwen Monson, sophomore; Jeanne Wielage, Alice Boswell, and Marian Pratt, fresh- will be shown during the meetmen.

Bernie Masterson's resignation as the head football coach of the University has caused much comment from many sources during the past 24 hours.

I there was, however, no announcement concerning the buring of an expression that ment concerning the hiring of an

There was no mention of money by Mr. Masterson or the board. Masterson's contract called for three more years at $10,000 a the same time.

The move came as a surprise to most Husker football fans for even though there was much criticism of Masterson at the end of the '47 season, it was expected that he would stay on as head football coach.

Delian-Union Story Contest Deadline Nears

All unaffiliated students who plan to enter the short story con-Union literary society must turn in entries by March 1, it was announced Tuesday.

The original and previously unpublished start should be in the published story should be in the hands of the society by that time. Entries can be mailed to Clark

Gustin, 2233 D St., in Lincoln. The story is restricted to 5,000 words, and must be double-spaced and typed in black typewriter rib-

Prize Money: $60.

The contest, sponsored by actives and alumni of the group, offers a first prize of $30, a second prize $20, and a third prize of $10. In addition, the society will attempt to secure magazine publication for the three winning manuscripts.

Judges include: Jo Ann Cosgrove, Mrs. Franz Radke, and Dr. Kenneth Forward, with Shirley Russel as an alternate.

Last year's prize-winning stories are on exhibit in the Delian-Union hall, Room 303, Temple, 12th and R Sts., between 1-5 p. m. every afternoon, Monday through

Donors Swell Lincoln Train Fund by $71

The Abraham Lincoln Friendship Train was $71.25 richer yesterday through contributions of anyone who is interested. students organizations viduals. Today is the last day that gifts will be taken at The Daily Nebraskan office.

All money collected by the Rag will be turned over to the office of Dr. G. W. Rosenlof late today. It will then be given to Chancellor Gustavson, general chairman of the drive.

In addition to the $895 already donated by members of the University faculty, and the $32 collected by the Rag previously, contributions have been delivered by: Alpha Phi, $25; Farm House, $21.25; Terrace Hall, $10; Tau Kappa Epsilon, $10, and W. D. Aeschbacher, $5.

Young Demos Hear CIO-AFL Leaders

State officers of the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. will address a joint meeting of Young Democrats and labor unions Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the YMCA, according to a statement appearing in TOCSIN, official publication -of the UN and Lancaster county Young Democrats.

Scheduled to speak Friday are: Frank Cronin, C. I. O. director for Nebraska and Iowa; Gordon C. Preble, president of the Ne-braska State Federation of A. F. of L., and Don Bykerk, law stu-dent and member of Young Democrats.

Don Morrow, charman of the university Young Democrats, will preside.

"A City," an 18-minute film on community planning and housing, ing,

Queens to Step At $100 Through Heart Spring Contest To Get Escorts

A large heart will provide an entrance for the 1948 Beauty Queens at their presentation Friday at the Valentine Tea Dance. Bouquets of red-and-white carnations will be presented to all contest which closes March six of the fair new royalty at Judges of the Kosmet show will

The girls will step through the heart and will be escorted by this year's Eligible Bachelors: Irv Dana, Lee Goodwin, John Ayres, Bob Wenke, John Doyle, Byron Hooper, Jim Swanson, and Al

Members of the Student Foundation, sponsors of the tea dance, dation, sponsors of the tea dance, will visit all organized houses Wednesday evening to sell the 25c tickets. A booth will be set up in the Union all day today and Thursday. Tickets may also be purchased from Foundation members, and at the door to the

The dance, an annual affair, will be held from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom. It will mark the first appearance of 1948 Beauty Queens, selected by John Robert Powers, New York model agency head.

Milk Authority Plans Tuesday Lecture at Ag

Arthella Sandmeyer, nutrition service field worker of the Evaporated Milk association, will present a demonstration of the uses of evaporated milk Tuesday, Feb. 17, in room 321 in the Food and Nutrition building on ag campus.

All food and nutrition majors are asked to attend the demonstration, according to Mrs. Edith Solomon, foods instructor. Girls who took foods courses last semester are especially urged to come, Mrs. Solomon added. "The demonstration is important to those girls who might be interested in commercial work because this type of the commercial work because this type of the commercial work because this type of the commercial work because the type of the commercial work because the type of the commercial work because the commercial work and the commercial work because the commercia cause this type of work is one of the fields which is open to foods majors."

Food courses as they are conducted today have no place for work on demonstration techniques. This lecture will demon-strate proper food preparation procedure. The lecture is open to

'Y' Kiddies Snag Bizad Professor To Pull in $$

"Going, going, gone" will be the cry of auctioneer, Prof. Curtis Elliot, when he offers box lunches for sale to the highest bidder at a YM-YW Hard Time Party Friday. The get together will be ferred from instructor in law and held in the Temple from 8 to 11:30 librarian to full time instructor of p. m. and will feature dancing.

by YW gals to lucky fellows. Dress will include anything from sweaters and skirts to blue jeans. the legal aid bureau, has been ap-

The evening is not only planned for gaity but has a worthy mo-tive as well. The proceeds from ductory course in law the frolic will go to the Estes Conference Fund which sponsors a summer worship conference in Colorado. Each year the University sends representatives to this conference.

Candidates for Prom Oueen to File Today

Prom queen candidates must be filed with Dick Folda or placed in the Innocents box in the basement of the Student Union by Wednesday. Any junior or senior girl is eligible. The ten finalists will be selected at a junior-senior election, and the queen will be chosen from these finalists the night of the prom. Each ticket entitles the purchaser to a vote.

The date of the prom is set for Friday, Feb. 27. An unusual presbeing planned.

Prize Set

Closes March 1 All aspiring script and playwriters notice! The Kosmet Klub Contest will be held April 15, 16, 17 at the Temple.

A cash prize of $100 will be offered for the best skit in the

DICK LAHR

be Dick Lahr and Avrum Bondarin who will also be directors of the production.

Regulations state only that the skit must be humorous, entertaining and original and must conform to the Kosmet Klub tradi-

Kosmet Klub workers were selected in May, 1947, to serve until May of this year. Officers elected were: Dick Lahr, president; and Av Bondarin, business manager, Fig Flagg, Phil Keeney, Dick Johnson, Warren Howard, Rog Stewart, Harry Knudsen, Cab Thesin, Bill Schenk, and Norbert Tiemann were new active mem-

Anyone wishing to enter must submit scripts to Bondarin or

Allen Axelrod Appointed New Law Instructor

Dean F. K. Beutel of the Law college announced Friday the addition of Allen Axelrod to the staff as instructor in law to teach government regulation of business and interpretation of uniform laws.

Axelrod graduated from University of Michigan with honors did graduate work in industrial relations at the Massacusetts Institute of Technology and graduated with highest honors from the Yale Law school early this year. During the war he served with the War Labor Board.

Two other changes have been made in the Law college staff, Houghton Furr has been transm. and will feature dancing. accounting, bankruptcy and con-Tempting foods will be offered stitutional law.

Miss Velda Benda, assistant li-barian and issistant director of pointed librarian and instructor in law and will teach an intro-

Bizad Honors To Be Awarded

Twenty-third annual honor recognition banquet for Bizad students will be held Feb. 12 at 6:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom.

An address by Dr. Gerald Kennedy will be a feature of the program. After the address the William Gold prize keys will be awarded to ten sophomores who ranked highest in the College of Business Administration last year.

The annual affair is sponsored by the three honorary bizad fraternities. It is a protect designed to give recognition to those student who do outstanding work and all Business Administration key and scholarship winners for entation of the prom queen is the past year are announced at this time.