Pre-Dental Students to File Credentials for Enrollment

Pre-dental students who expect to make application for enrollment in the September, 1948 class in the college of dentistry should file credentials in Dean Hooper's office immediately.

The admissions committee of the college will not give consideration to applications unless all credentials are on file for them. It is the responsibility of the applicant to submit the papers requested.

Interviews.

Personal interviews with members of the admissions committee should be arranged as soon as all credentials have been filed in Dean Hooper's office. It is expected that the committee will make selection of enrollees for the September, 1948, class beginning about March 1.

Applicants for the 1947 class who were not accepted must re-apply if they are to be considered for the 1948 class. They must conform to the instructions listed and write a letter stating they desire to re-apply for the next class.

Form A-D may be obtained from the Registrar's office. This should be completed and submitted to Dean Hooper, together with three letters of recommendation, from influential citizens, business or professional people, former instructors or others who have known applicant and family for a period of time.

A recent photograph (approximately 2" x 3") should be attached to the application.

A transcript, or transcripts, showing all completed pre-dental courses, hours credit and the grade earned in each course must accompany the application. At least three semesters of pre-dental work and 45 semester hours credit must be completed prior to submission of transcript and application.

If the applicant is still in school second semester, he should include a statement of courses in progress and the hours credit expected. The same is true for the summer session. The applicant should also state definitely on what date he will submit a supplemental or final transcript covering all pre-dental courses.

Hixson to Discuss Insecticides At Tuesday Sigma Xi Meet

The use of DDT and other insecticides will be discussed by Dr. Ephriam Hixson Feb. 17, at 7:30 p. m. in Morrill hall auditorium. Dr. Hixson is chairman of the department of entomology, and will be speaking under the auspices of Sigma Xi, scientific research society.

With the release of DDT for public use in 1945 it was believed that our insect control problems were solved. However, Dr. Hixson will point out the inadequacies of this "magic insecticide."

He will discuss other insecticides that are being developed constantly to overcome DDT difficulties.

Six Husker Coed Queens Debut Today

Six new Cornhusker Beauty Queens will be revealed at the Valentine Tea Dance, sponsored by the Student Foundation.

The six queens will make their initial appearance at 4:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom.

Selected from twelve finalists by John Robert Powers, model agency director, the six girls will be presented by Lorraine Landeryou, Foundation president. They will be escorted by the Eligible Bachelors.

Queens Introduced.

The dance has been given a Valentine Day theme, and the queens will be introduced as they step through a large heart. Pictures of each finalist will adorn the ballroom.

Each girl will receive a bouquet of red and white carnations at her presentation. They will all be spotlighted the following night at the Interfraternity Ball in the Coliseum.

The girl who may be lucky on unlucky Friday the 13th include: Barbara Bush, Bobby De Jarnette, Nancy Glynn, Priscilla Knudsen, Ellie Lykke, Joan McMahon, Kay Menke, Joann Patton, Sherry Swanson, Carolyn Westervelt, Joan Wilson and Shirley Wyss.

Twelve Finalists.

The girls were chosen on a point rating of personality, appearance, and carriage. The twelve finalists were the highest ranking girls from the host of original contestants.

The Tea Dance will be held from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. in the ballroom today. Admission is 25c per person, singly or in couples. This is a 50 percent reduction in the price of admission, stated Beverly Jackson, chairman of the dance, from previous years. This dance also marks the first single sponsorship of the annual event. Formerly, the Cornhusker staff combined with the Student Foundation to plan the affair.

"Being a Cornhusker Beauty Queen is a traditionally wonderful honor for Nebraska co-eds," remarked Miss Jackson, "and the student body has always shown enthusiastic interest in their presentation at the Valentine Tea Dance."

New Cornshucks Comes Out Today

"Cornshucks," complete with cartoons, jokes, and what-have-you, comes out today. House representatives may pick up their copies at 3:00 p. m. from the "Cornshucks" office in the basement of the Student Union.

The new issue of "Cornshucks" features the "Cornshucks" version of the 1948 Nebraska Beauty Queens and the "Cornshucks" own Valentine Pine-Up Girl. The party page plays up the Sigma Nu Pig Dinner.

Also included will be a spread on "Cornshucks Goes Broke." Witnesses report that the new humor magazine is not in the financial condition implied in this spread, however.

NIBT Playoff Set for Feb. 14

Even Ely Cuibertson might pick up a few pointers at the University Bridge tournament to be played at 1:30, Feb. 14, in the Student Union ballroom.

Winners of two previous tournaments will match their wits and luck in a competition that will determine the eight couples who will represent Nebraska in the National Intercollegiate Bridge tournaments. Those who are interested and qualified must sign up with Dale Ball by noon Saturday.

The eight high couples will compete by mail with other schools of this section Feb. 18, 19, and 20, while the top couple will also compete at Kansas University in a Big Seven tourney.

Sectional tournaments will be followed by tournaments on a national scale until the National Collegiate champions are determined in Chicago, April 23 and 24.

Far East Expert To Give Lectures

J. A. Allison, Nebraska Grad, To Speak at Founder's Dinner

John Moore Allison, Nebraska, '27, and former Lincolnite, who has served in the U. S. State department for 19 years, will begin a series of appearances Sunday, Feb. 15, at which time he will address the Lincoln Alumni Club at their annual Charter Day Dinner at the Student Union.

Interfrat Ball Site Changed

The site for the Interfraternity Ball has been changed from the University Coliseum to the Student Union Interfraternity Council members announced late Thursday night. The rest of the plans for the Ball remained the same.

Mr. Allison, an expert on foreign affairs, will also speak to members of the student body Monday, Feb. 16, on three different occasions. His first Monday appearance will be at Professor J. P. Senning's Public Relations class at 9:00 p. m.

Speaks to Students.

At 10 p. m. he will address Professor Norman Hill's International Relations class. Monday at 3 p. m., Mr. Allison will lead a forum on international affairs which will be held in the new Love Memorial Library. All students are invited to attend this informal discussion.

Mr. Allison graduated from Nebraska in 1927, left for Japan shortly after his graduation where he taught school for two years, and then joined the U. S. State Department.

Far East Expert.

He has spent most of his time, since then, in the far east. During the Japanese slaughter of Nanking in 1937 Mr. Allison made national front page news after being slapped by a Japanese sentry while serving in the capacity of Embassy Secretary at Nanking.

When the war broke out, Allison was taken to Japan as a prisoner, but was returned to the United States on the first exchange ship, the Gripsholm.

Assigned to England.

He was assigned to England shortly before the end of the war where he helped formulate economic war plans.

Mr. Allison has led one of the most interesting careers of any Nebraska alum having spent most of the last twenty years out of the country. His long stay in the Orient has qualified him as one of the foremost experts on Eastern affairs.

He arrived in San Francisco last Monday, will spend two days in Lincoln after which he will travel to Washington, D. C.

7 UN Speakers at Denver

Seven representatives from the university are attending the three day Rocky Mountain Speech Conference which opened at the University of Denver Thursday.

They are: Donald O. Olson, speech instructor; and six students, Leonard Hammes, Omaha; Robert Moodie, West Point; Rodney Lindwall, Omaha; Richard Schleusener, Oxford; Jack Solomon, Omaha, and Theodore Sorensen, Lincoln. All will participate in the program.

Interfraternity Ball . . .

WARREN DURRETT'S ORCHESTRA pictured above, will play for the Interfraternity Ball, Saturday. The formal dance will be held from 8:30 to 12 p. m. in the Union. The orchestra has been "well received" in its past two summer engagements at Estes Park, according to Don Draeger, dance committee member. Durrett's band plays a number of novelty numbers, and is made up of many young musicians, including college students. The orchestra is booked from Kansas City. The ball decorations will include the Greek letters and crests of every university fraternity House mothers, alumni advisers, and deans have been invited, according to Rod Franklin, Interfraternity Council President. A special feature of the evening's program will be a spot light presentation of the 1948 beauty queens. Admission to the dance is $2.40 per couple, including tax.
