Tangled Lives Theme of Uni Players Show

"The Petrified Forest," by Robert E. Sherwood, is destined for production in the Temple Theatre next week on Feb. 18, 19, 20 and 21. As a mood piece this drama furnishes three fascinating leads. Gabrielle, a girl who wants something different from life; Allan Squier who belongs to a vanishing race, and Duke Mantee, a killer with crumbling illusions. The feminine lead, Gabrielle, is enacted by Betty Schultz, an Arts and Science senior. Here is a complex characterization. "Gaby" is the product of World War I with a French mother and a G. I. father.

An Idealist

She is an idealist forced into a hard and earthy environment in the locale of Arizona. The world confuses her emotions and reason so she seeks an escape by painting and day dreaming. Basically she is unhappy and her love affair with Allan Squier makes the situation all the more complex.

Betty brings a vast amount of talent and experience to the Temple boards. Both at Nebraska Wesleyan and at Nebraska University she has won a good theatre following. Her "Claudia" was memorable as well as her portrayal of the lead in "The Silver Cord" plus her numerous roles in Actor's Lab this year and last. Betty's Nurse Preen in "The Man Who Came to Dinner" last December won her an ovation nightly. Robert Sherwood has penned an absorbing drama of mood and characterization. As an actress, Betty will shade her Gabrielle as the author intended. Max Whitaker is staging this latest production of the University Players.

Two things every college man should know!

1. This is a woman. Synonymous with legs, tears, and gold. But necessary. Fragile. An independent dependent. Knows what she wants and how to get it. Always turns arguments around to whether you love her or not.

2. This is a "Manhattan" Lasher Shirt. Very necessary too. Has slick long collar points so popular now. Distinctive "Manhattan" tailoring. Residual shrinkage less than 1%. Study this and other fine "Manhattans" here today!
