Prom Queen Election Set Today

Daily Nehraskan

Vol. 48-No. 84

Lincoln 8, Nebraska

Thursday, February 19, 1948

YOUNG AND OLD-Albin T. Anderson, 36, UN history professor and Young-Democrat nominee for the senatorial nomination, talks to Will Maupin, 84, of Clay Center (seated) during the course of the Democratic Pre-primary convention. Maupin formally nomi-nated Anderson for the democratic senatorship.

Talks Today In Library

Dr. Lewis U. Hanke, author, world traveler and former in-structor at the Harvard university, will speak on "What Americans Need to Know About Other Countries, today at 11 a. m. in Love library auditorium.

Dr. Hanke is author of "The irst Social Experiments in Amer-"Las Teorias de las Cases, and is also editor of "Handbook of Latin American Studies."

Since completing the arrangements for his visit to Nebraska, Dr. Hanke has been awarded the Albert J. Beveridge Fellowship by the American Historical Association for the outstanding manuscript in American history submitted in 1947. The prize-win-ning manuscript was "The Struggle for Justice in the Spanish Conquest of America.'

Dr. Hanke holds a Northwestern A.B. and a Harvard university M.A. and Ph.D. He is now a staff member of the Library of Congress. His travels have in-cluded the Near East, Spain, Portugal and Latin America.

The author and traveler has also been an intsructor at American University and Beirut. As a staff member of the Library of Congress he is the Director of The Hispanic Foundation. He has spent considerable time in research in Spanish Archives.

Hemphill's Ouster To Be Explained Early Next Month

Investigation of the discharge of Benjamin F. Hemphill, asso-ciate professor of architecture, has been completed by the university faculty committee on academic privilege, university administrative officers announced Wednes-

A complete report on the committee's findings, which are now gents, will be release being studied by Chancellor R. G. public early in March.

Lewis Hanke Falls City Senator To Address World Federalist Confab

Harold C. Prichard, 31-yearold Nebraska State Senator, will discuss the subject, "Some Frontiers of Sovereignty," at a United World Federalist-sponsored meeting in room 313 of the Union at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

Prichard, a supporter of Albin T. Anderson for the Democratic nomination to the Senate, was instrumental in assisting the UWF in having incorporated in the state Democratic platform a statement supporting the "strengthening of the United Nations into an or-ganization capable of maintaining lasting peace." The youthful senator, a war veteran, has stated that the UN as now constituted is not capable of maintaining a lasting peace, and he shall introduce a resolution into the Democratic platform calling for the creation of a Federal World Government while at the national convention in Philadelphia in June.

HAROLD C. PRICHARD

Gustavson and the Board of Regents, will be released to the

Council Sets NSA Meeting Airs University For Tonight

A meeting to explain the purbe held in the Love Library au- in the Union Wednesday. ditorium tonight at 7:30.

Sponsored by the Student Counfrom all campus houses and or- paigning for student offices. ganizations.

Rodney Lindwall, co-chairman of the committee, will preside at election which required judiciary the meeting. He will introduce the committee ruling afterward." He four speakers.

History

B. J. Holcomb, Nebraska delegate to the National NSA conference last summer and Regional meet last fall, will give a brief history of NSA and will summarize the results of the National conference.

Robert Coonley, regional vice-president, who is head of the regional domestic program, will speak on the activity at the Regional conference held in Kansas City. Coonley was one of five University of Nebraska delegates.

Jack Hill, university delegate to the national NSA conference and editor Tof he Daily Nebraskan will speak on the NSA program on both the national and international level.

State Program

Harriet Quinn, university delegate to the Regional conference, will outline the NSA program in the state.

The speeches will be brief, acco-chairman, and the meeting will probably not last over one hour.

At the end of the speaking, students may ask questions, and information on NSA will be handed out to representatives from houses and organizations.

Ag Exec Board Polls Students On Schedule

The Ag Exec Board is sponsoring a poll of student opinion today on Ag campus concerning the present class schedule system. The poll will be circulated in Ag Union from 12 to 6 at the election

The results of the poll will be submitted to the faculty for their consideration in making new class schedules and hours. From the poll, the board hopes to be able to work out a satisfactory plan for Ag students.

Headed by Charles Brim, the committee from the board which worked out the poll included John Osler and Gwen Monson. Working with this committee was Dean W. W. Burr of the College of Agriculture and Dr. C. C. Wiggans, chairman of the Department of Horticulture. Following is a copy of the poll:

Year in school-Does your curriculum require you to attend classes on the city campus? Do you favor the present class schedule?

4. If Chem. 2 and 31 were taught on Ag campus would an on the hour schedule be satisfactory?
5. Do you depend on city busses for transportation to and from classes?
6. Does the present 50 minute lunch hour rush you?
7. Would you prefer classes to start at at 8:00—; 8:20—; 7:50—.

State Home Ec Group Plans Lincoln Meeting

Meetings of the Nebraska Home Economics and State Dietetics Association will be held in Lincoln Feb 26 and 27, according to Miss Margaret Fedde, chairman of the university home economics department.

A Saturday luncheon will be served on the College of Agriculture campus after which the Home Economics department will hold open house in the new Foods and Nutrition building.

Juniors, Seniors Will Cast Ballots at City, Ag Booths

Juniors and seniors will vote today for the eight finalists for Junior-Senior Prom Queen. The polls will be open from 12:00 noon to 6:00 p. m. in the Student Union and the Ag Student Union. The Student Council will direct the voting under the supervision of Stanley Ahrends.

Council Group Election Rules

in the Student Council by-laws poses and program of the National was laid down by the judiciary Students' Association (NSA) will committee at the council meeting

The report by Ned Raun, committee chairman, is the official excil NSA committee, the meeting planation of Article IV, Section IV is open to all interested students of the council by-laws. It defines and the designated representatives the restriction placed on cam-

"About a year and a half ago," Raun said, "we had a disputed said that this explanation is to make the election rules clear to all candidates and their supporters beore the spring election.

The text of the judiciary committee ruling will be found on Page 2 of this issue Challenges Statement Bob Wenke, law college representative, asked that Betty Aasen explain who authorized the statement in the council handbook stating "It is hoped the university . . . becomes affiliated with N.S.A." He pointed out that no council action has been taken giving such approval.

"The 'it is hoped' phrase was ill advised," Miss Mieleuz, the handbook committee's faculty advisor, stated. She said that the present interpretation was not anticipated by the committee.

Action was postponed until next week on a motion by Wenke that a minimum total votes be required in the student election on the question of affiliation with NSA. He drew an anaology with cording to Norm Leger, committee such a requirement in bond elections in many cities.

Raun asked consideration be postponed until the judiciary committee could check on the constitutionality of such a measure. Dick Schluesner, a member of the committee studying NSA, said since all students would be committed financially by the election some total vote should l€ spe-

The candidates are Nadine Anderson, Kathryn Geist, Nancy Gish, Jackie Gordon, Phyllis Harris, Mimi Loomis, Marilyn Lyness, Jane McArthur, Lynn Nordgren, Sally O'Shea, Helen Prince, Rosemary Reynolds, Barbara Rowland, Mîmi Smith, Marianne Srb, Pat Toof, Bonnie Voss and Elaine Washburn.

C a n didates for Junior-Senior Prom Queen must meet university elgibility require-ments. They are junior or seniors. The finalists will be announcedand their pictures will appear simultaneously in the Feb. 27 issue of the Daily Nebraskan. The Junior-Senior Prom Queen will be selected from the finalists by popular vote at the door the night of the Prom.

Presentation of Queen

One of the most unusual presentations of the Prom Queen in the history of the dance is being planned according to an announcement by Stan Johnson, president of Innocents Society, which sponsors the dance. The coliseum will be completely decorated with thousands of balloons.

Lee Williams' twelve piece bandwill play for the prom. He recently completed an engagement at Chicago's Trianon Ballroom and played for the Minnesota Junior-Senior prom last year. Tickets went on sale Tuesday and may be obtained from any Corn Cob worker or member of Innocent Society. The price, lowest of any major university function this year, is $1.67 plus tax per couple.

The Junior-Senior Prom does not officially close the formal season this year since the date of the annual dance is unusually

 Sample	Ballot
Junior-Senior

Vote for Three:
NADINE ANDERSON
KATHRYN GEIST
NANCY CISH
JACKIE GORDON
PHYLLIS HARRIS
MIMI LOOMIS
MARILYN LYNESS
JANE McARTHUR
LYNN NORDGREN
SALLY O'SHEA
HELEN PRINCE
ROSEMARY REYNOLDS
BARBARA ROWLAND
MIMI SMITH
MARIANNE SRB
PAT TOOF
BONNIE VOSS
ELAINE WASHBURN