Potsy Clark Returns to Huskers

Vol. 48-No. 86 Lincoln 8, Nebraska, Sunday, February 22, 1948

Two Concerts Scheduled On Union Slate This Week

Carnegie Hall Hopefuls Here

Two concerts of special interest will be presented in the Union this week, with eight state finalists in a nation-wide contest to appear at Carnegie Hall performing Tuesday, and a professional quartet staging scenes from the operas "Faust" and "Samson and Delilah" on Thursday. Both con-certs will take place in the ballroom.

The eight finalists in the Carnegie Hall auditions were chosen from 28 Nebraskans who participated in the preliminary contest at Temple Theater a month ago. Under the sponsorship of the Associated Concert Bureau of New

Annual Drive For Red Cross Begins Feb. 25

Drive to raise funds for the American Red Cross will begin Wednesday, Feb. 25, under the sponsorship of the All University Fund.

The annual drive will be carried on through solicitations from organizations and organized houses. Booths will be set up in Love Library and the Union where students who are not contacted otherwise may make contributions.

The drive will last for a period of one week,

Goal.

No goal has been set, but AUF co-chairman of the drive, Marcia Mockett and Joan Farrar, have expressed the hope that "we can raise more for the Red Cross this year than we ever have before." The goal for the drive last year was $1,800. Miss Mockett and Miss Farrar, both members of the AUF advisory board, are acting as co-chairmen of the drive in the absence of Beth Noerenberg, AUF director, who is presently attending a home ec chool in Detroit, Mich.

A meeting for all house solicitors will be held in the Union Tuesday at 5 p. m., headed by Bob Easter, AUF head solicitor. York City, the project is designed to offer public appearance experience and objective criticism to young artists, Anton Schubel of the concert bureau who judged the prelimin-aries will return Tuesday to choose winners from the state finalists, who include five university aspirants, two Nebraska Wes-leyan students, and one Wayne State contestant. The national winners will perform in a series of concerts in Carnegie Hall this spring to compete for 16 cash awards totaling $6,000.

Instructors Mary Louise Boehm, pianist, and Richard Koupal, tenor, and students Jeanette Hause. Jean Thompson and Robert Anderson are the University of Nebraska participants. Geraldyne Kelley and Leland Finecy from Wesleyan and William Byers, jr., from Wayne State complete the list. Price of tickets is 60 cents, tax included.

of to sapers (Rachmannoot. Jean Thompson, soprano. Schubert

United Nations Observer Talks scholarships are granted eign students each year. AtConvoToday Miss Mabel Head, official observer for the United Council of Church Women at the United Nations, will speak at an allcampus convocation in the Student Union ballroom at 3:00 p.m. Sunday.

dent of the Ohio Council of Church Women and worked 11 years with church educational and mission boards. She also worked with the YWCA for 18 years and with the Cleveland Peace Committee for ten years. She has spoken at several civic affairs during her appearance in in Lincoln and in addition to this afternoon's convocation, will ad-dress a mass meeting at St. Paul's church at 8:00 p.m. The Lincoln Council of Church Women is sponsoring Miss Head's appearance in the city and the religious welfare council, through its special events committee, is sponsoring her appearance on the campus

-Courtesy Lincoln Journal. POTSY CLARK.

State Home Ec Meet to Have NESCO Text

"UNESCO Appeals to the 1948 annual meeting of the Nebraska Home Economics association which will be held here in Lincoln Feb. 27 and 28, Chancellor R. G. Gustavson will be one of the guest speakers slated for the convention. Miss Anna Dee Weaver, Home Eco-nomics editor of The Nebraska Farmer, will speak on "Opportunities in Home Economics.

Other Speakers

Miriam Cunliffe, an exchange teacher of Home Economics from Dr. Martha Kramer, Assistant Dean of Home Economics from Manhattan, Kas.; Miss Julia Kiene of the Westinghouse corporation; and Miss Maria Constantinides, a university student formerly from Wiseman and Mr. Baragar. Greece. Miss Constantinides is studying through a scholarship given by the American Home Economics Association. Five such scholarships are granted to forjunior and senior high school students will meet Friday afternoon as a part of the convention. They will become acquainted with Ag campus through speakers, films, and a tour.

High School Group

The purpose of this meeting is to interest future college girls in Home Economics as a profession, said Rodola Nelson, who is gen- p.m., Thursday, Feb. 26. eral chairman of the program. To be directed by Robert Black, Open house will be held at 4 the play is a romantic comedy,

Wartime Mentor Officially Signed Contract Calls for $7,500; No Athletic Director Named

George (Potsy) Clark will take over the head coaching duties of the 1948 Nebraska football team by terms of a one-year contract calling for a salary of $7,500.

This announcement was released following a Nebraska Board of Regents meeting Saturday morning in Omaha. The appointment will be on an interim basis. The University of Nebraska Athletic Board met Friday night and sent its recommendation for solving the University's football coaching problem to the Board of Regents.

Radio Students Plan Area's First Television Show

Television will have its first major test in the Lincoln area Monday evening.

Engineered by WOW television expert Joe Herold and directed by university radio instructor Home," will be the theme of the Paul L. Bogen, a 15-minute documentary telecast will be presented at 7:15 and 8:15 p.m.

Title of the script, written by Gaylord Marr, is "Menace in Milk," which relates the benefits of pasturization and tells of different types of diseases in the milk industry, Arnold E. Baragar, university associate home economist, served as consultant.

A special atternoon dress rehearsal at 4 p.m. will be shown Other speakers will be Miss only to students of the speech department. The invitational eve-ning broadcasts are for university England; Mrs. R. G. Gustavson; faculty members and local radio and newspaper officials.

> Cast for the telecasts includes: Ken Greenwood, Dorothy Ogden, held 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m., Tues- and Center Bobby Costello. day, Feb. 24; 3 to 5 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 25; 3 to 5 and 7 to 9

To be directed by Robert Black, o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Foods and Nutrition building. Ex-

Mr. Clark's appointment was made possible by the recent resignation of Bernie Masterson. Chancellor R. G. Gustavson, who is now in the east, is understood to have given his approval by phone. Chancellor Gustavson left Sunday and is not expected back in Nebraska until early next week. It is understood, too, that Dr. Gustavson talked to Clark, who lives at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The position of athletic director will remain temporarily open. A. J. Lewandowski recently re-signed as athletic director to de-vote full time to the job of athletic business manager.

Potsy will not be a newcomer to Cornhusker football coaching circles. He piloted the Huskers through the 1945 season. He was on a short-term contract and departed as soon as the 1945 season ended.

During that season, Potsy's team won four games, finishing fourth in the Big Six race. The team lost its first five games and then finished the season with four straight victories

Huskers' 1945 Record.

Oklahoma, Minnesota, Indiana, Iowa State and Missouri were the five teams to down the Huskers. The Huskers then upset Kansas, Uni Players Set and downed Kansas State, South Dakota and the University of Iowa. The Husker win over Iowa University came a week after the Hawkeyes had defeated Minnesota.

Several members of Potsy's 1945 team are expected to be Tryouts for the University ready for spring practice. These Theater's fourth production of the men include Guards Rex Hoy and year, "Playboy of the Western John Sedlacek, Fullback Phil World," by J. M. Synge, will be Young, Halfback Cletus Fischer Potsy's Coaching Experience.

Clark was a University of Illinois football star in the days before World war I. He coached the University of Kansas teams in and 1917, and again in 192 1916 "Even though it is very poetic," and 1927. He also has served as states Mr. Black, "'Playboy of the Western World' is essentially a ball coach at the University of Iland 1927. He also has served as linois, head coach at Michigan State and head of the Kansas University athletic department. Potsy was associated with the Minnesota athletic staff for two years. He has had eight years' experience as a professional football coach.

Miss Head is a former presi-

Joint "Y" Meet To Discuss April Estes Conference

YWCA and YMCA cabinets will hold a joint meeting Wednesday Feb. 27 at 7:15 in Ellen Smith hall to discuss the Estes Conference slated for Apr. 23-24 in Lincoln.

Loueva Phluger, Midland Col-lege, and Alan Carlson, Kearney State Teachcers' College, are co-chairmen of the district conference. Eileen Hepperly will be Nebraska's official delegate.

At this joint meeting next year's calendar will also be drawn up for publication in the "N" book.

A special conference of YW and YM officers has been announced for Monday from 12-2 to discuss special business.

May Queen Filings Open To Barb Senior Women

Any unaffiliated senior women who are not living in organized houses may file now for May Queen in the office of the Union. Applicants have until five p. m., March 2, to file. All organized houses may turn in names of their in names of their * candidates to Mary Anderson. Candidates for May Queen must have senior standing and a 5.5 average.

The May Queen reigns over the traditional Ivy Day ceremo-nies slated for May I this year. She will be chosen at an allwomen's election March 10, but her identity will remain a secret until Ivy Day.

Dr. Hall to Speak At Lincoln Town Discussion Mar. 3

Dr. William E. Hall of the department of educational psychology will discuss "Where Does Peace Begin?" when the Lincoln Y.W.C.A. starts its second season of local Town Meetings Wednesday, March 3, at 8 p. m. The Y.W.C.A wil make an auditorium of its cafeteria at 1432 N St for the meeting.

The panel of which Hall is a member will discuss "Can We Wage Peace?" Other members will be Dr. Gerald Kennedy, pas-tor of St. Paul Methodist church who will speak on "Fear and Safety," and Arthur Emerson of the Soil Concervation Service, who will sum up "Economic Ways to Peace."

and is open to the public.

hibits will also be displayed at Consumers Public Light and Power company, 1401 O street,

Witches, Ghouls Vied for Prizes At Beaux Arts

Weird and outlandish costumes were seen at the Beaux Arts Ball, in the Morrill Hall galleries Fri-day night, sponsored by Dela Phi Delta, art honorary. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith won the prize for the most "horrible" costume. The Ball theme was "Nightmare." John Kirsh, in a costume with four legs and arms and two heads, won the prize for "fantastic" outfits. The prize for the "ridiculous" costumes went to Pat Benson. Also at the ball were the three witches from "Macbeth" unearthed mummies, ghouls and Draculas.

Paintings, on the "Nightmare" theme painted by advanced composition classes, were given as prizes in a game of musical chairs.

The corridors of Morrill Hall were decorated with paintings out of their frames, and bodies of torn draperies, overshoes, and old umbrellas. In the gallery was a large frieze depicting possible foreign and American students, nightmares.

chairman of the Beaux Arts committee, and Jerry Johnston, entertainment chairman, John Mal-comb had charge of decorations Gandhi's achievements in the ed-No admission will be charged and Betty Aasen handled publicity.

comedy play. It's just good fun."

Twelve Parts Open.

There are parts for six male and six female characters. Anyone with sophomore standing or above is eligible for tryouts. Performances of the play are scheduled for the evenings of Mar. 17, 18, 19, and 20, with a matinee on the 20th.

The setting of the play is an Irish inn. The story revolves around a young man who is a colossal liar.

Romantic Angle.

is taken in by the townspeople 30. there. Complications, however, set in when the supposedly slain father makes his appearance.

The romantic angle of the play is developed through the rivalry between a strong-willed widow, known for her husbind-killing, and the young daughter of the innkeeper.

Cosmopolitan Club Holds Memorial Service for Gandhi

At a Wednesday evening meeting of the Cosmopolitan Club, for there was a commemoration Virginia Purdham was general service held in the Union for Mohandas Gandhi.

Mr. Rambaran Ramdin spoke at the meeting, emphasizing dion peoples.

Organization of the full Engin-Week committee for 1948 eers' He holds to the belief that he has killed his cruel, hated, father with a spade. At the inn, he is so boastful that he is lionized and is taken in by the tourspeorle 20

> Departmental chairman are: Paul Extrom, Ag. 1.; Robert Brown and Marshall Baker, Arch. E.; Otto Kral, Chem. E; Arnold I. Johnson, Charles Talbert, and Clarence Lewis, C. E.; Herbert Temme and Dick Stonesifer, E. E.; Jack White, Eng. Mech.; Gerald Pipher and Irwin Reis, M. E .; Neil Kennedy, Mil. Eng.; and Hen-ry Schleuter, Naval Eng.

The special chairmen are: Paul Ruhter, banquet; Wilbur Lehnert, contest; Eldon Clapham, convocation; Charles Corke, field day; Wayne Scott, inquiries; Joseph Rogers, photographer; Al Henry, programs; Bruce Clausen, ribbon sales; Warren oKenig, sledge; Jay Funk, traffic; Stan Liedtke, Win-Gandhi's achievements in the ed-ucation and the help of the In-Blue Print; and Fred Pelton, publicity.