

NU Cagers Test K-State Friday Night

Nebraska University's Cornhuskers, fresh from two cage victories over Iowa State and Colorado, will travel to Manhattan, Kas., Friday, to meet the league-leading Kansas State Wildcats.

The Wildcats dropped Iowa State's Cyclones Tuesday night for their seventh victory in conference competition. They have lost only two games in loop play.

Big Bus Whitehead returned to action against the Colorado Buffaloes Wednesday night and should be a big help when the Huskers tangle with the Wildcats. Dick Schleiger and Whitehead will handle the pivot duties.

Coach Good's Cornhuskers will play two more games next week. Oklahoma and Kansas will meet the Huskers in the Coliseum, March 1 and March 6.

Week's Games Alter Circuit's Cage Standings

Second division standings in the Big Seven basketball race received another change as a result of conference tilts played early this week.

Missouri and Iowa State suffered setbacks at the hands of Colorado and Kansas State respectively and once more were deadlocked for third place with five wins and five losses apiece.

Nebraska's Cornhuskers gained sole possession of the fifth spot Wednesday night when they dumped Colorado, 58-53 at Lincoln. The Scarlet victory pushed Kansas U. into sixth place. The Kansans remained idle this week in conference play.

Coach Frosty Cox's Colorado Buffaloes split a pair of games in conference activity this week. The Buffs jarred Missouri, 56-48, Monday night but bowed to Nebraska Wednesday.

Husker Frosh Trip Missouri, Colorado Fives

Nebraska University's freshmen track team captured twin postal meets this week from the University of Missouri and University of Colorado frosh by 55-49 and 69-34 scores.

Bill Mountford took two firsts in the mile and the half mile against Colorado but had to be content with second in the 440, 880 and mile runs against Missouri.

Husker Leonard Kehl was tops against both teams in the pole vault with a 13 feet 1/2 inch jump. Other Nebraska winners were Aydin in the two mile run, Elliott in the high jump, Standsbury in the broad jump and a tie between Yestness and Ritter in the 60 yard dash. In the shot put Nielson won with a toss of 43 feet 2 1/2 inches for the Husker frosh.

Huskers Host To Conference Tank Carnival

Iowa State's defending champions will be favored to repeat in the Big Seven Conference swimming championships to be held at the University of Nebraska pool, March 5-6.

Coach Hellie Lepley of Nebraska predicts the conference record book for 25-yard pools will be rewritten as all but two of the top performers in 1947 will return.

Bob Savage who aided Iowa State to a new medley record and Dick Draper, member of the Nebraska record-breaking free style team, are the only two top performers who will be missing this year.

Roger Watts, Iowa State's middle distance ace, will lead the Cyclones in their defense of the title. Watts set three conference records in 1947 with :52.9 in the 100, 2:13.3 in the 200 and 4:54.6 in the 440.

Doug Robison, record holder in the 150-yard backstroke (1:43.6) also swam backstroke on the record-breaking 300-yard medley relay team (3:05.2).

Marvin Grimm, conference champion in the 60 and 100-yard free style and record holder in the 60 free (:29.1) anchored the Cornhusker 400-yard free style relay team in 1947. Other swimmers were Jack Campbell, Perry Branch and Dick Draper.

Grimm placed fourth in the 50-yard free style and sixth in the 100 in the 1947 National Collegiate Athletic Association championships at Seattle.

Potsy Calls Spring Drills For March 8

Spring football practice at the University of Nebraska will start March 8, Coach Potsy Clark announced.

Coach Clark is not yet sure what date he will arrive in Lincoln but "I'll be there in time for the spring kickoff," he told Business Manager A. J. Lewandowski in a telephone conversation.

Five of the lettermen of 1947 will be lost to the squad by graduation or completion of their eligibility.

Returning Lettermen

Letter veterans to return will include Robert Ackerman, Sidney;

Harold Becker, Lincoln; Alex Cochrane, jr., Ord; Frank Collopy, jr., Scottsbluff; Robert Costello, Lincoln; Ralph Damkroger, DeWitt.
