

SAE's Trounce Phi Psis, 39-20, to Cop IM Crown

Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the Interfraternity basketball championship Monday night by trouncing Phi Kappa Psi, 39-20.

Don McArthur, Sig Alph center, dropped seven buckets and three free throws to lead his team with 17 points. The Sig Alphas used their fast break to good advantage in defeating the Phi Psis. Bill Wenke dropped five points for the victors, and Berquest, Swanson and Saladen hit for four counters each.

Rooney Leads Phi Psis.

Pat Rooney led the Phi Psis in the scoring column with eight points. Bob Baum came through with three fielders for six points, and Schneider, Milliken and Mickie dropped one two-pointer each.

The Sig Alphas and Phi Psis both represented League III in the championship game. Each team lost one game during the season to earn their berths in the play-offs. Sigma Phi Epsilon handed the Sig Alphas their only defeat in regular play, and the Phi Psis lost their game to the Sig Alphas by a two-point margin.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon will meet I. F. T. tonight for the all-university championship.

Phi Delta Theta copped the B-team crown by downing the Beta Sigma Phi quintet, 19-14. Chapin led the Phi Deltas in scoring with five counters. Heckenlively finished second with four points, and Duryea, Meimer, Stewart, Henkle and McDermott hit for two points apiece. The Phi Delt B quintet limited the Beta Sigma Psi team to three field goals during the game. Bauer and Wolfert led the losers with four points each.

I. F. T. Takes Crown.

I. F. T. won the Independent championship by dropping the Psis, 29-24. Bill Hess led the winning team with 12 points. German led the losers with eight points.

A team box score:

Phi Kappa Psi (26)	Sigma Alpha Epsilon (39)
Schneider 1 0 3	Berquist 2 0 1
Baum 3 0 1	McArthur 7 3 7
Milliken 1 0 3	Wenke 2 1 1
Conley 0 0 2	Swanson 1 2 1
Rooney 4 0 2	Jensen 0 0 0
Mickie 1 0 2	Creed 1 1 1
Hollander 0 0 0	Saladen 2 0 0
	Walt 0 0 0
	Hate 1 0 0
Totals 10 0 13	Totals 16 7 5
Officials: Sam Kennedy	Vacanti and Jack

NU Wrestlers Place Second In Loop Meet

Oklahoma university won the Big Seven wrestling championship Saturday at Boulder by taking three individual titles and compiling a total of 35 points. Nebraska placed second with 30 points and last years defending champion, Iowa State placed third with 28 points.

Mike DiBiase, defending heavy-weight champion, succeeded in holding his crown by throwing Leonard of Iowa State in 5 minutes of the finals. Nebraska's other winner was Robert Yambor in the 121-pound division. Yambor decisioned Eugene Ewoldson of Iowa State, 8-4. Mickie Sparano, Husker 128-pounder, earned his way to the finals but was pinned by Oklahoma's Orville Wise.

Jack Tamai, Newton Coppel, Ed Coppel and Andie Marinkovich received third places for Nebraska. Jerry Calhoun handicapped from a previous mat injury, placed fourth.

CHAMPIONSHIP FINALS.

121 pounds—Robert Yambor, Nebraska, decisioned Eugene Ewoldson, Iowa State, 8-4.
 128 pounds—Orville Wise, Oklahoma, threw Michael Sparano, Nebraska, 5-22.
 136 pounds—Verle McClellan, Kansas State, decisioned Kenneth Watron, Oklahoma, 7-1.
 145 pounds—Stan Fansher, Kansas State, decisioned Kenneth Watson, Oklahoma. Referee's decision.
 155 pounds—Leonard Marcott, Oklahoma, decisioned Delbert Bush, Iowa State, 7-6.
 165 pounds—Jim Eagleton, Oklahoma, decisioned Jim Clagget, Iowa State, 4-0.
 175 pounds—Glen Brand, Iowa State, threw Rex Sheppard, Colorado, 3-39.
 Heavyweight—Mike DiBiase, Nebraska, threw Leonard Dalb, Iowa State, 5-00.

sparked by Phil Sprague, who took three firsts and two thirds to take high point honors. Leo Geier of Nebraska was second high point man with 16 points. Nesladek of Colorado was third in the high point scoring with 15 points.

Cornhuskers Win All-College Gymnastic Title

Nebraska's gymnastic squad finished its season Saturday by taking first place honors in the All College Open Championships at Boulder, Colorado.

The Husker gymnasts finished with a total of 37 points, which was five points better than second place Colorado. Colorado State was third with 18 points. The victory gave Nebraska a season's record of four wins, four losses and the All College Championships.

Two dual meets were figured in the meet. Nebraska met both Montana State and Colorado State. The Nebraska gymnasts came out on top in both contests, winning by scores of 67 to 36 and 73½ to 50½, respectively.

Sprague, Geier Lead.

Phil Sprague and Leo Geier of Nebraska topped the high all-around points department. Sprague was first with 17 points and Geier was second with 10. Sprague took one first and two seconds while Geier copped one third and two fourths. Ken Harding of Nebraska took third place in the side horse and Clarence Lefler, also of Nebraska, took a third in the horizontal bars.

In a dual meet Friday night, the Huskers defeated a strong Colorado University squad by a score of 70 to 62. The team was

ATTENTION ACACIANS

Undergraduate Acacians

Please contact Fred Bodie Jr.—Phone 2-4388.
 Leave name and address if he is not in.

Potsy Clark New Director Of Athletics

Potsy Clark, who has just arrived at the university to take over the duties of head football coach, received another burden Monday night with the announcement of his appointment as interim athletic director.

The action was initiated by the Athletic Board and approved by the Board of Regents. Clark announced Monday that spring football practice, which will inaugurate his second season at the helm here, will be postponed until next Monday.

As athletic director, Clark will succeed A. J. Lewandowski, who resigned from that position after the last gridiron campaign to devote full time to his job as athletic business manager.

Vespers will meet at 5 p. m. today, at the University Episcopal Church.

NU Rifle Team Captures First At Booneville

Sgt. John Lovold's Nebraska University rifle team captured the senior championships of the indoor Camp Perry rifle matches in Booneville, Missouri, last week.

The Nebraska rifle experts hit 720 of a possible 800 to win the meet. Iowa State scored 705 for second place.

Fourteen college teams competed. Herb Miller, former Omaha Central sharpshooter, topped the Husker team with 185. Other Nebraska marksmen were: William Brandt, Unadilla, Nebraska, 181; Walter Palmer, Westfield, N.J., 178; and Gerald Roesler, Tobias, Nebraska, 176.

Kemper Military Academy of Booneville finished third with 676, and Creighton was fourth with 668.

Natrona High School of Casper, Wyo., took first in the high school division with 749, and Omaha Benson finished second with a 725 total.

Announcing

NEW CAMPUS BARBERSHOP

GENTLEMEN:

If you are particular about your haircut, come in and see Paul. He will give you a haircut to suit your personality. One trial will convince you!

Also —

- SHAMPOOS
- MESSAGES

"FOR MEN THAT ARE PARTICULAR"

PAUL'S BARBERSHOP

223 No. 14th

(NEXT TO ABLE CLEANERS)

Howland Swanson

Nebraska's fashion center

JUNIOR and MISSES SHOP

TUESDAY

75 super spring dresses $15

specially priced for Easter-wise N.U. co-eds . . .

- Sheer wools, fines crepes, crisp taffetas, smooth gabardines, rustling failles
- Suit-type bolero dresses, gay prints, dateable dark dresses, trim two-piecers
- Come in TODAY to find "just YOUR dress" in just your size at this special spring price... $15

SECOND FLOOR

