

BEN SIMON & SONS

Our Forty-Third Year!

Who's side are YOU on?

Everybody's taking sides in our SIBREW-HAYNECK CONTEST . . . A contest between Simon's men's and women's college boards to stimulate college board sales.

THE WINNAHS . . .

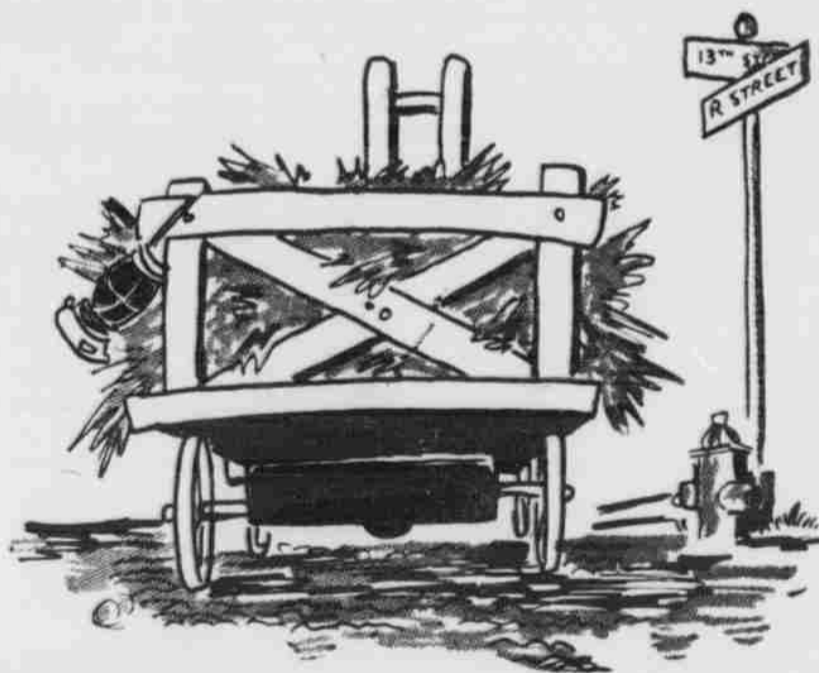

and their dates will be treated to a hay-ride and picnic with all the trimmings . . . hosted by the losing board and dates!

THE LOSERS . . .

Slaveys that they are, will pull the hay rack loaded with victors and dates down fraternity row!

Nancy Glynn says:

"We can't lose! Not with our beautiful collection of dresses, suits and coats for Easter . . . And accessories? Simon's has everything to make a smart outfit complete!"

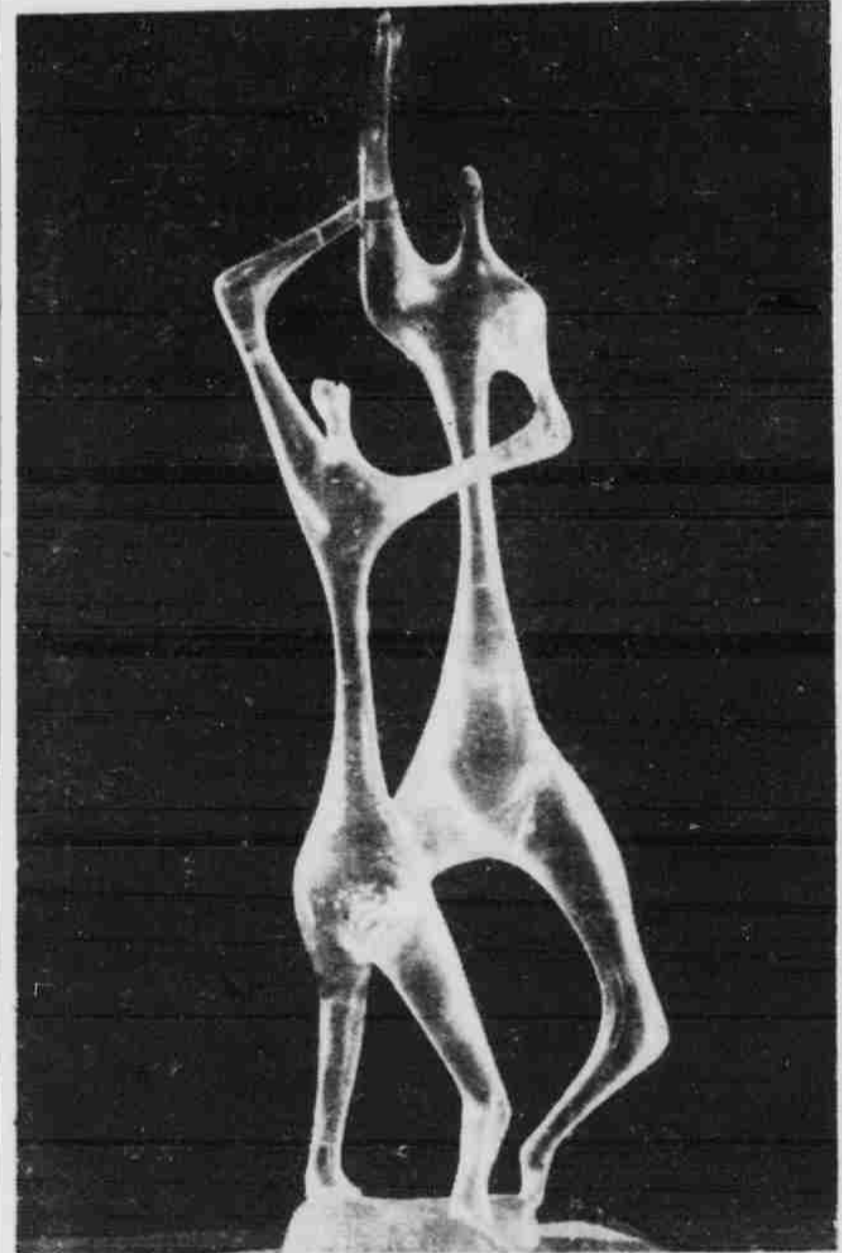

Lee Chapin says:

"It's in the bag! With a better than ever selection of men's suits, top-coats and furnishings, the men's board is sure to come out on top!"

Art Exhibit Photos . . .

A TALENTED SCULPTRESS of carved figures and animals, Cleo Hartwig has created "Lion Cub" out of tawny yellow limestone, now showing at the Nebraska Art Association at Morrill Hall. In the 1946 show, Miss Hartwig's stone figure, "Mother and Child," was shown.

AN EXPERIMENTER in plastic materials, Leo Amino, born in Japan, is showing his "Spring Plastic," two abstract figures. Formerly, Amino worked for a Japanese exporting company, carving figures for the handles of ebony brushes.

Ag Collenes will have a covered dish supper in the Foods and Nutrition building at 7 p. m. Friday. Dr. P. M. Bancroft, Lincoln pediatrician, will speak.

Old Time Flickers Scheduled Sunday For Union Show

"Ladies, will you please remove your hats, remember talkies have not been invented yet!"

Ye Olde Time Flicker Nite, sponsored by the Union general entertainment committee presents a calvacade of early century "mela-dramers," well interspersed with advertisements, cartoons, mood music, and the general courtesies of the house, such as "Go ahead and sleep, we'll call you for breakfast," and "will the couple in the 21st row please refrain from smooching; you are blocking the mayor's view!"

This special variety show, to be presented Sunday, March 21, at 7:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom, will feature westerns, comedies of the Chaplin type, slides of early day sports, Fatty Arbuckle cartoons, piano music to fit the theme of the scene, popcorn and peanuts, and loud cheers and jeers from the audience.

In the Colorado District High School Tournament at Rocky Ford, Colo., March, 1941, La Junta and Las Animas High Schools battled to a scoreless tie in the regulation game time. In an overtime period Las Animas won, 2-0, on a field goal.
