

Vol. 48-No. 100

LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA

Sunday, March 14, 1948

Singers to Give 'Requiem' Brahms Work Will Feature Released Rehearsals Underway Released; Rehearsals Underway Two Soloists In Uni Theatre Brahms' "Requiem" has been chosen by the University Singers for its annual Palm Sunday concert. It will be presented Sunday, March 21, at 5 p. m. at the First Plymouth Congregational church, under the direction of Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook.

Daily Nebraskan

Soloists appearing with the 120 voice choir are Dora Lee Niedenthal, soprano, and Dale Ganz, baritone. Prof. Myron Roberts will accompany the chorus on the organ. Jeanette Dolezal is the student accompanist.

Dr. Westbrook calls Brahms' "Requiem" one of the most ambitious works we have under-taken for this occassion." In 1946, the Singers performed the Faure "Requiem" and in 1947 a program of selected numbers was given.

Preceding the Requiem, Prof. Roberts will play Bach's "Pre-lude in G Major," and Schumann's "Evening Song."

colleges. She is a member of the colleges. She is a member of the University Singers, and an active in Sigma Alpha Iota, professional music fraternity. A junior, she is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority, and was recently a candidate for Typical Nebraska Cond. She is a member of the Coed. She is a member of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet and the Lutheran Students Association. Miss Niedenthal is currently the soloist for the Grace Lutheran church in Lincoln.

Ganz, an assistant voice instructor, has appeared in four "Messiah" presentations and was the baritone soloist in "The Creation" in 1940. He was active in the former men's glee club, oc-tette, and madrigal groups of the University. He also appeared in a concert version of the opera "Carmen." When that work was staged this year by the Univer-sity singers, he played "Torea-dor." He took a lead role in the opera "Pugliacci" in February, 1947. Ganz served in the army With feathers in their hair, bu letins under their arms, penan for 52 months, and was discharged as a captain. He is affiliated with Delta Upsilon.

Brahms began his "Requiem" in 1856 after the death of his friend, Robert Schumann. He completed it 13 years later. Upon the death of his mother, Brahms added an-other section to the completed work.

Tentative casts have been an-, will be presented on May 24. Jack nounced and rehearsals have be- MacDonald is cast as George and Acted, directed, and staged by students, the plays are "The Servant in the House, "Amphytryon and I '38," "As the Eagle Grows," and Wife. "Of Mice and Men,"

First Play May 17

Jack Asbyll will play the key role in "The Servant in the House," scheduled for production on May 17. Others in the cast, nes, are Norm Leger as William Smythe, Ken Frohardt as the Bishop of Lancashire, Merle Stal-der as Rogers, Betty Laird as Auntie, and Pat Boyd as Mary. "Amphitryon '38," S. N. Behr-man's sparkling adaptation from the French of Jean Giraudoux, features Mary Wenstrand as Al-kemena, Homer Hauptman as according to director Don Johan-Miss Niedenthal is a music ma-jor in Teachers and Fine Arts Jupiter, Bill French as Mercury, Eloise Paustian as Leda, Tom Stimfig as Amphitryon, Milt Hoff-

"As the Eagle Grows," Elizabeth Wetzel's prize-winning dra- Senior women will also at that ma in the national playwriting contest, sponsored by the Nebraska Masquers, will be directed by Gaylord Marr. The cast includes Maggie Huff as Nila, Eddie Mc-Cullough as John, Jack Norman as Damon, Pat Meehan as Na-Paul Harrington as Albert Lang. The production date is May 22. Directed by Dale Wisser, "John Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men"

Visiting Prepsters

letins under their arms, penants on their wrists, and cokes where Holds Pledge Rites they should be, Nebraska high school students left the Student Foundation party Thursday re-membering "a swell time!" A crowd of several hundred high school and University partyoriginally called this and Foundation President Genene this, and sweet Nebraska chicks too."

gun on four plays to be presented in May as a part of the Exper-imental Theatre's entertainment calendar for the semester. Acted, directed, and staged by Richard Theatre's entertainment Acted, directed, and staged by as Whit, Bill Klamm as the Boss, and Betty Schultz as Curley's be held Thursday from 9-6 p.m. in Ellen Smith Hall on the city campus and from 9-5 p.m. in the Union on Ag Campus, announced Mary Esther Anderson, Mortar Board in charge of elections, today.

> Designed to integrate student activity in directing and acting classes, the four plays offer four widely diversified types of American theatre.

Officers and board members of the AWS, BABW, and Coed Counselors will be elected. Junior and time nominate girls eligible for Mortar Board.

The elections will also serve as a primary election for May Queen candidates. This is an unusual procedure and is necessitated by as Damon, Pat Meehan as Na- the fact that the number of ap-dine, Doc Secord as Corfield, and plicants for May Queen is far above the average number re-ceived in previous years. The fi-nal May Queen election will be held May 25.

> Names of candidates will be announced in the Wednesday issue of The Daily Nebraskan.

With feathers in their hair, bul- Music Fraternity high school and University party-goers filled the Union ballroom for the event from 4 to 6 Thurs-day afternoon. They heard greet-ings from Tom Novak, Claude Retherford, George "Potsy" Clark, and Foundation President Genene Mitchell. As one fellow in a gold and black sweater remarked, "All this, and sweet Nebraska chicks as Retherford, George "Potsy" Clark, Breck, Nancy Smith, Doris Bone- education here at the University A buffet dinner was served Miss Shively, and Miss Hosier will pour at the tea. Phyllis Ross after the pledging. is general chairman.

Owen Lattimore To Make 3 Talks Here This Week 2nd Montgomery Lecturer To Air Far East Situation

Owen Lattimore, authority on politics and economics in China, will give a series of three lectures at the university this week.

His talks will attempt to answer three main questions puzzling many Nebraskans: What's wrong with the Chi-nese government's political policy? Why do the Chinese Communists seem to be winning the civil war?, and what is needed to establish democracy in China and other Asiatic nations?

Home Ec Tea Will Feature Greece Talks Exchange Student Tells Experiences

The Silver Tea, sponsored by from 3 to 5 p.m. tinides will tell about her experiences in her homeland. A short program will follow each talk.

Raises Funds.

The Silver Tea is held annually to raise funds used by the American Home Economics Association through the Foreign Fellowship fund in bringing foreign students to study in our colleges. This year, six students are studying at various colleges in the country, one, Miss Constantinides, at the University of Nebraska Agricultural College. This is the third successive year in that the Nebraska Agricultural College has t Delta Omicron, professional mu-sic fraternity, pledged nine mu-sic majors this semester. The for-mal ceremony was at the home of Miss Kathryn Dean, faculty ad-visor of the chapter. The new pledges are: Virginia Taylor, Joan Frederict

The speaker is head of the Wal-ter Hines Page School of Inter-national Relations at Johns Hopkins University. He was a news-paperman and later a researcher in China for 22 years. In 1941-42 he was political adviser to Gen-eralissimo Chiang Kai-shek, and from 1942 to 1944 deputy director of Pacific Operations of the War of Pacific Operations of the War Information office. He has writ-ten a half dozen books and many articles on China.

Mr. Lattimore will also address over a dozen student and faculty groups. The Montgomery Lecture-The Silver Tea, sponsored by the Home Economics club will be held today at Love Memorial hall rom 3 to 5 p. m. Maria Constantinides from Council which selects the speak-Maria Constantinides from Athens, Greece, who is a junior at Ag college, will give two talks, at 3:30 and 4:30. Miss Constanory of the Montgomery family, long time Dodge county residents. Mr. Lattimore's schedule:

Monday, March 15.

Adonday, March 15. 6 p. m.-Dinner sponsored by the De-partment of Radio Relations for represen-tatives of the Nebraska preus and radio. Place: Student Union, Parlor A. Mr. George Round in charge. 8 p. m.-Public lecture "The Chinese-Russian Frontier." Place: Love Memo-rial Library Auditorium. The speaker will be introduced by Chancellor Gustavson. Tueday March 16.

Tuesday, March 16.

Tuesday, March 16. 9 a. m.-Talk before the class in Am-erican Dipiomacy. Place: Social Sciences 113. Dr. Norman Hill, professor of Po-litical Science, in charge. Noon-Luncheon sponsored by School of Journaliam. Place: Student Union, Par-lor X. Dr. William Swindler in charge. 3 p. m.-Talk before seminar in Com-parative Government. Place: Love Li-brary 407. Dr. R. C. Spencer, Visiting Professor of Political Science, in charge. 6 p. m.-Dinner sponsored by Econo-mica, Place: Student Union Parlor Y. Dr. E. B. Schmidt, assistant professor of Eco-nomics in charge.

'Ein Deutsch Requiem" Brahms work, is not the conventional re- Mitchell. quiem in the liturgical sense. The text of the "Requiem" is his own choice of passages from Luther's translation of the Bible.

MB's Honor Six At Annual Tea

Six Mortar Board Scholarship winners and outstanding senior girls will be named at the annual Mortar Board Scholarship tea according to Beverly Jackson, tea chairman. The tea will be held at Ellen Smith Hall from 3-5 Sunday afternoon, March 21.

All university women with high scholastic records of a weighted ture campus was announced today 85 average have been invited to by the Nebraska Department of attend. All foreign women stu- the American Legion. dents on campus have also been senior women.

Delta Omicron, Mu Phi Epsilon and Sigma Alpha Iota music sets—our youth and our agricul-sororities will provide instrumental music.

Standing in the receiving line will be Mrs. R. G. Gustavson, Mrs. Patricia Lahr Smith, Mrs. Verna Boyles, Miss Marjorie Johnston, Miss Elsie Ford Piper, Joyce Geddes, president of Mortar Board and Joanne Ackerman, vice president.

Awards will be made at 4:00 o'clock.

Friday, March 19.

Friday, March 19. Noon-Luncheon sponsored by the De-partment of History. Place: Student Union, Parlor Z. Dr. J. L. Sellers, Chairman of the Department of History in charge. 3 p.m.-Address. "The Nature of Poll-tics in China," before All-University Fac-uity Meeting. Place: Student Union, Fac-uity Lounge, Dr. Norman Hill, professor of Political Sciences in charge. 6 p. m.-Dinner sponsored by the De-partment of Geography. Place: Student Union, Parlor X. Dr. Leslie Hewes, Chair-man of the Department of Geography, in charge.

that of the Department of Gography, in charge, 8 p. m.-Public Lecture, "The Effect in Asia of the Soviet Nationality Pol-icy." Place: Love Memorial Library Au-ditorium, Dr. R. W. Goss, Dean of the Graduate College, in charge.

Sgt. Debes Wins Army Citation

Master Sergeant Dale A. Debes. university ROTC instructor and sergeant major, has been awarded the Army commendation ribbon. The award was presented him by Brig. Gen. Guy N. Henniger, head of the Nebraska National Guard, Friday night at the annual mid-winter ball of the university's cadet officers' association.

Sgt. Debes served as a liaison The Nebraska Youth Memorial officer with a Chinese artillery battalion in China and the award was for meritorious service during that period. After the war he was discharged as a lieutenant colonel and enlisted as a master sergeant. He was assigned to Nebraska in April, 1946. His home is Strawberry Point, Iowa.

The inauguration of a 60-day Week and Cornhusker Boys' and such a building, officials said. campaign to raise at least $250,000 Girls' State. With a central headquarters for for the construction of a Ne-braska Youth Memorial building to be located on the University of Nebraska College of Agricul-

In recognition of the occasion, Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic honorary will serve, assisted by members of Mortar Board and scribed the campaign as an in-vestment in "our two greatest as-

> Legion officials explained that the memorial would be dedicated to the young men and women of Nebraska who served in World war II.

Youth Groups Accommodated.

The completed building will be used to house the many partici-pants in youth and agricultural activities who meet in Lincoln,

Now being designed by University of Nebraska architects, the proposed structure will be designed to accommodate 400 guests, the announcement revealed. Construction will be such that both boys and girls can be cared for simultaneously, in separate wings, according to the plans. Included in the building will be a spacious auditorium, offices, storage space and everything else needed to make the structure of utmost use, it was predicted.

Emphasizing the inadequacy of makeshift facilities now used, it was pointed out that the College Activities building formerly used to house and feed boys and girls from outstate is now partially converted into a Student Union for university agriculture students.

Youth Programs Handicapped.

Vital programs of youth and agricultural groups have been seriall state activities, leaders anticipate new growth and strength in youth and agricultural activities.

Constant use of the building is indicated by the large number of organizations who will be offered its services. In addition to 4-H and Boys' and Girls' State groups, high school students visiting Lincoln or athletic tournaments, musical festivities and other pro-grams will be cared for, Legion officials declared. Agricultural group members, including the Flying Farmers, Feeders' Day participants, extension groups, short course attendants and others will also use the building, they said.

building will be "a unique people's memorial to its youth, both present and future," committee members concurred.

Contributions should be ad-dressed to the Nebraska Youth Memorial Fund, Legion Headsuch as the annual 4-H Club ously handicapped by the lack of quarters, State Capitol, Lincoln.

Legion to Erect Youth Memorial at Ag UN Clinics Lauded Tops