

Husker Teams Start Second Week's Drills

Coach Patsy Clark's Cornhusker gridders started into their second week of spring practice Monday taking the spotlight.

Several squads took their turn night with scrimmage sessions at the contact work. One offensive backfield was composed of Darwin Salestrom in the signal-calling position, Ray Magsamen and Gerald Ferguson at halves and Frank Callopy at fullback. On the defensive eleven were Bob Reidy and John Andrews in the line-backing spots, with Phil Young, Bill Moomey and Kenny Fischer working behind the line backers.

Tony Blazine had his linemen drilling, while passers Dick Hutton, Roy Churchill and Bob Scoville warmed their passing arms. Dutch Meyer and Jim Myers worked on punting.

Sharpe's Men Work.
Coach Tony Sharpe sent his baseball candidates into their second week of outside work. Working in the pitching position were Jim Sharp and Big Jim Sandstedt. Catchers were Willard Branson and Dilford Blatchford.

The Husker diamond men also took their turn at infield practice. One lineup had Dick Schleiger at first, Hobe Hays at second, Bob Grogan at short and Bill Denker

Copple Places Third in NCAA Wrestle Meet

Two Nebraska wrestlers dropped early matches in the NCAA wrestling tournament at Bethlehem, Pennsylvania last week.

Heavyweight Mike DiBiase dropped a pair of matches Friday night to Oklahoma A. & M.'s Richard Hutton, defending champ who retained his crown, and Bob Maldegan of Michigan State, respectively.

In the 125-pound division, Nebraska's Bob Yambor dropped a 3-0 decision to Paul McDaniel, also of Oklahoma A. & M.

Copple Reaches Semis.
Newt Copple reached the semi-finals in the 147.5-pound class by pinning Walter Schallcross of Rutgers and repeating with a pin over Andrew Pychany of Indiana. Navy's John Fletcher, however, pinned Copple in the evening bouts. Copple gained third place in his weight class.

The Aggies from Oklahoma won the team title with 33 points. The Aggies copped two individual titles in winning the tourney. Hutton won the heavyweight division and Jack St. Clair was champion in the 160.5 pound class. Nebraska finished with five points to place 12th in the meet.

at third. The second outfit was composed of Butch Mathews at first, Fritz Hegwood at second, Bob Bull at short and Don Hays at third.

Fem Fun

Badminton Schedule for Mar. 23.
Salsbury - Moore vs. Batten - Stuhl at 5:00 in Grant Memorial.
Hansen-Mattison vs. Stratton-Branch at 5:00.
Blackstone-Bock vs. Lord-Ichinaca at 5:00.

It is important that all games are played at the scheduled time so that the tournament can be finished before spring vacation.

The Duckpin tournament will begin immediately after vacation. Team lists should be handed in at the W.A.A. office by 5:00 Thursday, March 25. A team is composed of five members and any number of teams may be entered.

Newman Club Captures Title

Intramural basketball drew to a close last week when the Newman Club defeated I.F.T., 24-19, to win the Inter-Denominational championship.

Hammersky led the victors with five buckets, and B. Costello hit for six counters to take runner-up honors. Baumbalk finished with four. Duling and Kreizinger paced the losers with six points each. The Newman Club led at half-time, 6-5. I.F.T. is the Independent champion.

YWCA comparative religious group will meet Tuesday at 5:00 p.m. in the dining room of Ellen Smith Hall. Rev. Phillip Shug will speak on Unitarianism.

Patsy Releases Revised Golf, Tennis Slates

Revised nine-match golf and tennis schedules have been released by George (Posty) Clark, University of Nebraska Athletic Director.

The Big Seven conference championships in both sports will be in Lincoln May 21 and 22. The varsity tennis squad will start practice in the Coliseum next week, according to Coach Gene Leighton.

Two Lettermen
Coach Leighton will build his team around two lettermen, Jack Cady of Lincoln and Robert Slezak of San Francisco. The Cornhusker coach has asked anyone interested in trying for the team to see him.

The golf and tennis teams will travel together and play the same teams.

Schedule:
April 23, Colorado A. & M. at Ft. Collins; 24, Colorado at Boulder; 30 Kansas at Lawrence; May 1, Missouri at Columbia; 3, Iowa State at Lincoln; 7, Wichita U. At Wichita, Kas.; 8, Kansas State at Manhattan; 10, Oklahoma at Lincoln; 13, Wichita U. at Lincoln; 16, Oklahoma A. & M. at Lincoln tentative; 21-22, Big Seven Conference at Lincoln.

Freshman competition in the Law School moot court trials will be concluded Thursday, March 25.
